CULTATY COUNCIL.

We will give a synopsis of the proceedings next week.

WARDEN'S ADDRESS.

Gentlemen of the Council .- We are business of the year, and it is of some special nature, so far as I am aware. to engage your attention at this session. On the other hand there is great reason for congratulation on account of the abundant harvest which has crowned the labors of the husbandman, and also because of the improved financial position of the county.

I have much pleasure in observing that the defaulting municipalities have paid up a considerable amount of their provisions for her family, in accordmeads be refunded $10.50. being arlo;30 a. m.; 14th, 10:30 a. m.; 21st,
