On yesterday—I swear it was but yesterday—
I kissed her on the mouth. They say she has been buried three-and-And they are all liars-I still am young, I am still young-how else?

Ten days ago—ten days, no more— I forded with bare feet the shallow brook And watched the little school of shining min stem the stream. ly brother was there with me, and we laughed Yes, and we fought, because I would go first. We held each other's hand and, naked, ran And splashed the water high and laughed again. I wonder why he comes no more ! It is so long-Every day I look for him.

And this-it, too-is all a lie-this, too-my hai It is not gray, but dark as night, As dark as Egypt's night when her first-born of For here, see here! this is a lock of it-She kept it twenty years. And hers - it was his dong, Satan'slost it-yes, poor clown, I lost it The day we stormed Chapultepec, was forty years old that day.

That was that day, but that night-That night a letter came; it was edged with read it there by the camp fire's light among the cypresses. read it-I do not know what it said-it was edged n ever saw her any more. The cypresses around Chapultepec

And the loug moss waving in the night wind ! Come, I will whisper it to you; it is not moss, that Hanging from the cypresses I heard a woif howl away off They said it was a wolf, but I knew. I knew

It was Satan laughing. All through the long night Satan laughed at me While I sought him. Ever keeping just beyond my maddened reach I saw his gray form creep along the dark ravines And glide through air, While I, bruised by falls, and torn, Stumbled o'er the nopals and the cactuses. They say they traced me on the morrow to where

At the foot of a high rock, By shreds of cloth that hung blood stained Upon the bristling points of cardo leaves. And on the hooked and barbed thorns of that wild Pshaw! this is a dream, a lying dream-And I am young, and she is here. I will wake up-To-morrow I will wake.

WOMAN GOSSIP.

The Princess of Wales and Her Daughters-Pleasing Effects of the Rivalry Between Mrs. Langtry and the Other Professional Beaties.

Brides at the Breakfast table-Fashio Matters-Waifs, &c

Fashion Notes The habit costume is in high favour. New tinsel lace is shown in steel for new colours in millinery. Vandyke red is the latest colour, a shade darker than cardinal. and jet are very stylish. Indian beads cut in red jasper ornament new lace pins and earrings. New open work Tuscan braids have border woven with gold tinsel. Crushed roses of pink and crimson will be worn upon spring hats.

Clear medium French blues are revived as the latest rival of navy blues. Some of the new patterns in cambric itate embroidery in Roman pearls. Bishop's purple ereque is employed to rel ieve delicate tints in spring bonnets. The torquoise is largely used set in side by side with diamonds or pearls. Only delicate trimming should be used the open-work Tuscan straw bonnets. have taken the place of belt bouquets.

A silver cub bear lying on its back with playful paws is a new ornament for the extensively in open-work and Irish point a princess in manner. A blending of these lie notice about forty years back, by a man department would incur little additional ery, which simulates the open patterns o Irish point lace. Swiss muslin with gold dots is used morning caps. They are fastened with quaint pins of gold. The most fashionable rings are of hammeraround the finger.

with gay little humming birds. Quaint point-shaped breakfast caps with full rosettes of pale rose or blue. Wreaths of roses shading from deep mask to pale concha-shell pink are used bonnets of yellow Tuscan straw.

The English walking hat promises to be revived in rough and ready straw and fancy braids for spring and summer use Cotton foulards are of superior quality and very pretty in patterns and colour.

vogue. It is in exact copy of the Trinitari- self little to people. When she does grow an garb, except the Maltese cross and head- fond of some one, however, her affection never Lybaris, the people were noted for the skill eral prison. The two had seen each other man marries a widow he should give up Elysees. Scattered about everywhere on smoking. "She gives up her weeds"—he plush-covered tables are an infinity of knickshould be equally polite.

A SLEIGH-RIDE without a girl is a cold

debt by imposing a tax on beauty. There isn't a woman living in the country who inkstands, blotters, knives, and what not, uscript found in the Harleian Library there would not demand to be assessed. What is the difference between a hone consists of a number of small cells, while honeymoon is one great sell. consin (from the rural districts) : "No, not voyage to Indis. as I knows on, but I'll look under the pianny

Why mourn for Grimes—his daughters live : proud to occupy so large a space. On fashion's streets we find 'em. And they wear "Old Grimes's coat." All buttoned down behind 'em.

An aristocratic papa, on being requested and pitilessly exposed her weakness. Thus bidding them watch at early dawn the next disposed of her enemies, until they have curious enough to remember his words, and hopped beldly on the tail of the carrious, do single-handed. Add to this melancholy their backs several European birds that left charged adds twenty-four hours to the age of all of borne them over the Mediterranean, and the pale beauty of the "Jersey Li'y" may impressed with the supposed power of the the exclusive court circle which she so long and it has been proved within a few years adorned has turned to the worship of strange that the fale is not an exaggerated one, as heart of anybody who ventured to breathe a on the backs of storks on their southward suspicion of such a thing. Still, Mrs. Lang- trips, which is perhaps as remarkable as it try's own court cost money to maintain, and they had been trained to de it. perhaps it is just as well to extend the area conqueror having, perhaps, satisted upper little more exclusive. Mrs. Langtry is going on the stage. Brides at the Breakfast Table. There is no more trying time to bride and groom than to appear at breakfast. One couple. The husband writes "Mr. Smith" with a bold hand, and then hesitates. The clerk could dash it off in a second, but the Then he gazes admiringly to see

Mahogany and geranium pinks are new she is really just what she is. Under one now. It has been many a day since such a swoop passed through the various roads of Asia Duchesse de Berry hats of black velvet was made upon the national capital. There the animals appeared, dancing and throwing is always a couple on hand, but when nearly themselves from tree to tree in a most naa score meet it shows that business has tural manner, while to the infinite amusebook is swelling. Some people attribute this of the "noble army," showers of manumarked increase in doubling up to the factured cocoanuts fell upon the stage. severity of the weather.

Alexandra and her Daughters.

The Marquis Du Lau, says The Fiagaro. owns a statuette of white marble by a cele court of Henry II. Her frail and pleant figure is molded in a long brocade petticoa slightly turned up on one side. Her bus is encased in a stiff waist, loaded with precious stones. The head is delicate and nobl adorned with streaming feathers hide a por Immense bows of very broad satin ribbon tion of her hair. Such is this statuette a jewel become a woman-a little fairy-half dress is much employed for dress trimmings. trait of her royal highness the princess of Artificial roses in the fine chiffon now in Wales by M. D Epinay. An exquisite and use are readily mistaken for natural flowers. truly royal image, representing better than any other an almost supernatural beauty.

Once descended from her pedestal the princess becomes a gentle, kind, young woman, Embroidered collars for children are larger | citizen-like housewife. It is noticeable that than ever, and come in showy open-work when people seek to praise a princess they tried in the form of a regular company. On students of the Naval academy may learn bie did sleep! Make it light!" call her citizen-like, while in praise of an or. this point he says: "I believe a modern practical seamanship. Were we to convert Turned 'down Ryron collars are imported dinary citizen's wife they will say that she is species of exhibition was introduced to pub- our practice ships into patrol ships, the navy other, is necessary to the real gentlewoman. She must be a princess in heart, in soul, in generous sentiments, in courage and in anpearance, and a bourgeoise in hospitality, in the love of the fireside, in the care of her children, and in principles of wise economy.

ters of the princess of Wales take their mus. the open air, and the spectators were exposed gold, made in pliable strips, and wound lesson. They have "mamma" waked up, ed to the weather, which frequently proved in and Schumann, and she plays them with

The three young princesses, Louise, Victoria and Maud, differ as greatly in character is proud, rather reserved, and atraches her- of any other of the minor theatres."

is good-hearted, and at times even a little ser-GENTLEMEN who are continually inveigh- The private apartments of the princess of knacks, such as small porce ain dogs, bird-Ir would be quite easy to pay the national cages with stuffed birds, figures in Dresden in all the fetes and shows it held quite a china, tiny flowerstands of France or Sevres. prominent position; and in a very old manjust as in the shops of Rue de la Paix. The is an engraving which represents a hare well as her dressing tables and all the latest to an admiring crowd of spectators. furniture are surrounded by low screens, tioned shows. A hare was trained to attack MISS SOPRANO (who has just finished play- | dered. Many objects in ivory, enamel, silver, and mother of pearl recall Prince "Bertie's" Frendship, grace, and kindness—such is the Turkish Policy in Armenia.

[From the London News.]

the reflection that every day their foreign consorts, who had evidently Mrs. Langtry, nowever, is equal to the advantage of a peculiar habit of these birds goddesses, and base indeed would be the small birds are frequently observed sitting glance over some of the trained animals of the past shows that we have not really adlar shape, and the horses' feet were providox with a trumpet in his mouth would and ludicrous appearance as they marched around. In a Bodleian M.S. of the fourteenth century is an account of horses traintime, or regulated by some musical instrument. In the Bodleian Library are found uscript, "a wild, hairy man was exhibited with a balance to music He also drank a his pipe like any other Christian." Previous of white roses will ere long find its way to to that animal's, appearance, the following the bridal chamber. Then there is another letter appeared in the Standard of April 3, 1711, probably intended as an advertise-

HONORED SIR : Having heard that this nation is a great encourager of ingenuity, I and rich capitalist," and "the benefactor." have brought with me a rope dancer that how "Smith and wife" looks on a book for was caught in one of the woods belonging public scrutiny. He is an inch taller, and to the great Mogul. He is by birth a monfeels that he has become a man of family, key, but swings upon a rope, takes a pipe of trying ordeal comes with the entry into the reasonable creature. He gives great satishotel dining-room. The bride blushes, and faction to the quality, and if you will make imagines that every one in the room has his a subscription for him I will send for a broeyes upon her. Such cooing and billing as ther of his out of Holland, that is a very Shades of honeysuckle will be used on new goes on at the table 1 "Let's be like old good tumbler, and also for another of the married folks," she whispers; but that will same family, whom I design for my "Merry Mulbefries are in great demand for mour- not do, and the more she tries to disguise Andrew," as being a great mimic and the herself the more does she convince folks that greatest droll in the country where he is picked up, and that the ministerial pocket- ment of the spectators and the mortal terror Drawings which are more than four hundred years old represent horses standing on their forelegs and beating time with their hind ones on a drum held by the showman. and in 1612, at a grand court festival. Moses Pluvruel, riding master to Louis XIII. of France, accompanied by nine gentlemen. went through a ballet dance on horseback, executing leaps into the air and graceful returns that were wonderful in the extreme. The following is from a show bill in the time of Queen Anne: "To be seen at the Ship upon great Tower Hill, the finest taught like a spaniel dog. If you hide a glove, a handkerchief, a door key, a pewter basin. or so small a thing as a silver twopence, he will seek about the room until he has four it, and will then bring it to his master. will also tell the number of spots on a card and leap through a hoop, with a variety of other performances."

Doborey's, near Islington. Soon after, a would be greatly increased. competitor by the name of Sampson made his appearance, and he again was succeeded by Astley. The latter established a riding school near Westminster bridge, and has been a successful candidate for popular favor. Every morning at 9 o'clock the three daugh. These performances originally took place in the circus has passed into other hands, and first commitment to the prison a woman

In olden times the hare, which is now | ward of the general prison. thought to be so untractable and timid. was rendered so bold by constant training that marching up and down, and beating a tabor son notes a similar case in the above-men a dog, and as the latter rushed at his antage on the back of the dog, would drive its sharp and cling with a tensoity worthy of a better cause.

Dogs rarely figure in the old engravings, and evidently the wonderful sagacity of this bed sleeps every member of the family: or perhaps they have just arrived at that state of culture which results from years of state of culture which results from years of state of culture which results from years of the bed. Before his father succeeded in procuring a bed the family adhered to the fa and cling with a tensoity worthy of a better motto of that royal home, where Paris is cause. An aristocratic papa, on being requested by a rich and vulgar fellow for permission to marry "one of his girls," gave this rather crushing reply: "Certainly. Which one would you prefer—the waitress or the cook?"

Although there is no truth in the report among the eld paintings, and he is merely among the eld paintings, and indeed his intelligence that an insurrection has broken out in Armong the eld paintings, and he is merely among the eld paintings, and indeed his intelligence that an insurrection has broken out in Armong the eld paintings, and he is merely among the eld paintings, and in the clipses that an insurrection has broken out in Armong the eld paintings, and in the clipses that an insurrection has broken out in Armong the eld paintings, and in the clipses that an insurrection has broken out in Armong the eld paintings, and in the clipses that an insurrection has broken out in Armong the eld paintings among the eld paintings among the eld paintings are altered to the standard that a man "and a "man" and a "man" rould you prefer—the waitress or the cook?"

Nervous bride, who has been reading an account of the condition of the public of the condition of the condition of the public of the condition of the public of the condition of the condition of the public of the condition of the public of the condition of the condition of the condition of the condition of the public of the condition of the condition of the Nervous bride, who has been reading an account of the condition of the public thorough farcs, to her husband: "My darting for one pour one of the gendarmeric extensibly charge with the duty of maintaining order in the country. Husband—"What's my pootay wootsy afraid of?" Nervous bride—"Why, it was can't the other day that I asked you if you the other day in the carrying trade of the werld will be repeated the other day."

I a number of Circassions into the gendarmeric extensible position. Even in the carrying trade of the werld will be repeated the carrying trade of the werld will be repeated the carrying trade of the carrying trade only the other day that I asked you if you the Armenian Christians bear to the Kurds and soon after a company of dancing dogs the pigs can sleep, and in winter the additional warmth supplied by the animals is and other Mussulman inhabitants of Armenian Christians bear to the Kurds appeared at Southwark Fair, called the welcome. The other end of the apartment without legs, and several of the species entirely extinct.

"And the boat!" Robbie commands, was left standing by himself. Another bird bright and rested before dawn;

diers were stripped of their ornaments, and The "Sulphur King."

and obtained sufficient influence to secure for ed to combat. The animal is represented as his son, who was in the pricetbood, a ing over the pictures of boys' suits in a his grand Erard piano. "As we are talking rising in the air and striking at a shield held bishop's mitr. With his immense wealth book of patterns. by the joculator, who, in turn, thrusts at him | he contrived to make himself so highly with a short sword or club, both keeping popular that he never returned from the exercise of his senatorial functions in Rome without being feted as if he were a prince.

> gratify this desire. He was aided by cer- shoulders are so high ?" tain friends in dissipating his wealth, and to such an extent that he not only spent every was to the people of Gigenti "the honest ter quarters." Now he is "the swindler Genuardi, who never had a sovereign of his own to fly "Formerly he was "the shrewd, the is nearly eight o'clock." accomplished, the scholarly;" now he is "the dull blockhead who got himself made post of usher," and is, to boot, one of the > > Patrolling the Ocean.

Inited States each to provide two steamers the route between New York and Liverpool ernment steamers could remove sunken slept. wrecks, warn passenger steamers of the locality of icebergs, and afford relief to ship- Robbie still asleep. Tick! tick! tick! wrecked vessels. A steamer with her maof charge by the patrol steamer, and would Now there is a stirring and heaving of not, as is now too often the case, decline the counterpane; an arm, short and fat, 000 of salvage. A shipwrecked crew com reasonable degree of confidence that in two breathes more quickly. Robbie is or three days' time a patrol steamer would waking. Presently, uprises the tumpick them up, and the owners of a missing bled white head: " Mamma! Mamsteamer would have good reason to believe that, were she in danger or distress, help ma! Make it light!"

would be not far off. would be inconsiderable in comparison with hour the benefits that would be secured thereby. Part of it might be paid by a light tax on vessels in the Atlantic trade, and the pay- is n't morning yet. Can't Robbie sleep ment of such a tax would probably be more a little longer?" than balanced by the decrease in insurance According to Strutt, these exhibitions led premiums which would follow. We are to the formation of a regular circus, and at compelled yearly to send naval steamers on that time the experiment was probably first aimless cruises in order that the young named Price, who displayed his abilities at expense, and the safety of the ocean passage

Married Maniacs.

inquest under the prisons act on a man who clock ticking—tick! their progress, being herself a consummate and a stage in front, with scenes and other murder, but, on proof that he had been and theatrical decorations. To his former diver- still was insone, he was ordered to be detisements he then added tumbling, dancing, tained in prison during the p'easure of her farcical operas, and pantomines. The success majesty. He was in 1865 transmitted to the asleep, too. he met with occasioned a rival professor of lunatic wards of the general prison. In 1875 horsemanship named Hughes, to build he was so far restored that, on medical another theatre for similar performances not certificates, he was released on probation far distant, to which he gave the pompous under an order of the secretary of state. He as in physiognomy. The eldest, Louise, has title of the Royal Circus. Hughes was un- then took up his abode at Coldstream, of as in physiognomy. The eldest, Louise, has fortunate, and died some years back, but which place he was a native. Soon after his his head. "Mamna, get pussy!" Parisienne of the three. Victoria, the second | the spectacles exhibited there in the present | another county was also brought before a daughter, is the image of her father. She day (1800) are far more splendid than those justiciary court charged also with murder. She in like manner was found to be insane, In Calabria, and especially in the city of and accordingly was committed to the genwavers. She unites to a thorough conscious. they showed in training horses. This might within its wall. She too, had so far recovered, Sets of jewelry are in forms of pansies ness of her own dignity a generous heart, truly be placed among the lost art sor tricks, as soon after his release she was also set at can still be called a baby. She is but 10 ses were so generally and thoroughly drilled The man soon relapsed into a state of lunacy. vided themselves with pipes and musical in- Perth. At no lengthened interval the woman, try to sleep. struments, and so defeated the riders with now his wife, also replaced into lunancy and incredible slaughter, as the horses, on hear- was sent back to the prison where her husing against fashion worship should remember Wales, both at Sandringham and at Marlbor- ing the notes, reared up and attempted to go bind had preceded her. He died from cancer that it makes a heap of difference whose dress ough house, are fitted up completely in the through the figures and dances they had in the stomach on the 9th of January last, now !" been taught, thus causing great confusion, and was buried in the graveyard of the pris- Mamma's chest and raises himself on. The wife is still an inmate of the lunatic

An Irish Family in Bed

Malachi Higgins is the tenant in possession f five acres of the divided farm. The house hair! Do lie down!" in which he lives was built by his father when on his marriage that portion of land was allotted to him. It is a cabin consisting of a single room. The walls are made of tempered mud mixed with straw, and the looks at the watch and finds that he makes slimy patterns upon their white- so she puts on her slippers and wrapwashed faces. In this one room is a per, lights the lamps, places the older than Robbie. Walter was eight it was at Utrecht that I heard some carrier who, having raised by means of specul- story Walter heard many times, but he the Abbate's midday repast was being laid ations in the very smallest way a modest was not at all tired of it. He never out by his vale. It was a charming situasum of money, bought with it a plot of land near the village of Committini. The thought to ask Cousin Charley if he magnificent prospect to which I have alluded; land so bought turned out to contain a valu- were tired of telling it. They sat to- but Autumn was far advanced, there was a Others were taught to lie down, while an able sulphur deposit, the working of which gether on the sofs in the dimmest cor- fresh breeze, and the table was ordered inbrought the postman's family immense ner of the room; Cousin Char doors. Meantime, Lizzt, laying his hand upwealth. Ignazio amassed a fortune, which ley told the story in a low voice, for opening to his bedroom, and thence to a little sterling, was created a baron and senator, Grandmamma was reading, and Aunt stting-ro m, (the same which commanded Helen and Walter's mamma were talk- that view of the Campagna.) Here stood

" But Grandmamma said:

"Charley, don't make yourself too "Oh. Mamma! he's just in the best

"I'll give you ten minutes. finish it in that time?" The story was finished in ten minutes more, but Charley talked fast to ward the end of the time.

The next morning, at five o'clock, again lightly on the ke, s, and the bells went In enext morning, at nive o clock, and the brides at breakfast looked at each other like sisters for consolation.

In enext morning, at nive o clock, and the beins went three millions or more of fishermen, manage in all was quiet in Aunt Helen's room, the wisdom of trying to convert the wisdom of trying to convert the lamp was unlit, the fire unkindled, and the United States to take the lamp was unlit, the fire unkindled, and as the warrior all was quiet in Aunt Helen's room, the morning, at nive o clock, and the beins went three millions or more of fishermen, manage the wisdom of trying to convert the wisdom of trying to convert the lamp was unlit, the fire unkindled, and the United States to take the lamp was unlit, the fire unkindled, and the risks of covariant to diminish some action to diminish the risks of ecean navigation? Every municipal government and a pale glimmer of moonlight shone emotion of one who, as he pas es, hears in less microscopical, give the absolute control other burning mountain and the lamb was unit, the intermed like the vague sea into a number of sub-divisions, more or other burning mountain and the lamb was unit, the intermed like the vague sea into a number of sub-divisions, more or other burning mountain and the lamb was unit, the intermed like the vague sea into a number of sub-divisions, more or other burning mountain and the lamb was unit, the intermed like the vague sea into a number of sub-divisions, more or other burning mountain and the lamb was unit, the intermed like the vague sea into a number of sub-divisions, more or other burning mountain and the lamb was unit, the intermed like the vague sea into a number of sub-divisions, more or other burning mountain and the lamb was unit, the lamb was unit, the intermed like the vague sea into a number of sub-divisions, more or other burning mountain and the lamb was unit, the lamb was un patrols its streets, and there is no good rea- through the curtain, for the moon had the ruins of some wayside cloister the ghost less microscopical, give the absolute control other burning mountain, and the son why the great ocean highway should not risen late and was making the most of of old monks humming their drowsy meloe patrolled. Were England and the her time. Tick! tick! sounded from her time. Tick! tick! sounded from purple shadows of Italy s cal over the land, to extract nine fish and a ha'f in every tell this ory by reference in the hell below where the old clock. the hall below, where the old clock out of the orange west! We sat motionless could be thoroughly patrolled. These gov. talked to itself all night long and never | —the disciple on one side, I on the other.

Quarter past five, half past, and chinery broken down would be towed free |-ten minutes' more rest for Mamma. passage of bells, tossing high up in the evening air, the half-bar of silence, the broken assistance in order to save $30,000 or $40,- clothed in white flannel, is thrown out. pelled to take to their boats would have a Robbie turns over on his back and Mamma rouses herself, thinking she The cost of patrolling the ocean highway cannot have been asleep more than an "Robbie, do go to sleep again.

> Robbie throws of the coverlet and and sits up in the bed.

> "Robbie don't want to sleep. Rob-"Come, lie in Mamma's arms a little while. See how dark it is! that i arms, feels his hands to know if they ago than fifteen years. theatre, completely covered, with a ride in this man's life. He had been arraigned at a Jeanie's asleep, and Walter's asleep, daughters. In music she can fully appreciate the middle for the display of horsemanship, circuit court at Jedbu-gh for the crime of and Katy's asleep, and pussy's asleep, down in the dining room, by the fire. Now, Robbie shut his eyes and

> May be a little dream will come !" Mamma is almost asleep herself this time, and stops rubbing. " Want to see pussy!" Robbie says, lifting/ Mamma could n't get pussy now. Poor pussy! She wants to sleep. Rob-"Where is breakfast? Robbie want with petals enameled in natural colours. A easily moved. Her intellect, which is great- for, though we have our trained studs now, liberty on a probationary order. She wended is fast asleep,—the kitchen is all dark, we can in no wise educate them up to the her way to Coldstream, and there the two and the dinning-room is all dark, and standard of the ancients. The Lybrian hor- lunatic murderers were wedded together. the dishes are shut up in the closet, years of age. In appearance she bears a great and trained that the Crotonians, when and attempted to commit suicide, and there. and the bread and butter are in the likeness to her grandmother, the Queen. She marching against them in time of war, pro- fore was recommended to his old quarters at pantry, and—Robbie shut his eyes and

"Robbie is 'wake! Make it light bed; he crawls up a little higher and buries one hand in the pillow braid of Mamma's hair is under the

"Make it light!" Robbie says, and mamma hears him drumming on the head-board with his fat feet. Mamma of bells," he said, "I should like to show 33 years. How few of the present genera-

While the two mammas bent their I had hoped, but no opportunity offered itmade bankrupt. He was also arrested for voice could be heard, although he spoke hard y ever be prevailed upon to open the into abusive enemies. Formerly Genuardi thought he would look around for bet- heard him; "but," he added with enthus- man could hope to do. "they ring the 'Angelus' in It ly careless. derstand that to the great majority of the ly; the bells swing irregularly, and leave off, Irish people, the cultivation of the soil is treble-like bells tossing high up in the face at onc. evening air ; it ceased, but so softly that the Liszt was almost as mut onless : his fingers seemed quite independent, chance ministers of his coul. The dream was broken by a pause; then came back the little swaving-

Steam and Iron on the Sea.

rhythm—and the Angelus was rung.

SAILING SHIPS OVER.

(From the Now York Sun.) At the close of last year there were in ourse of construction on the Clyde about fifty

Among the steamers on the stocks in the through lenses of the same texture and de-Scotch yards are one of 8,500 tons, one of cisiveness. From a purely commercial 7,000 tone, one of 6,250 tons, one of 5,500 standpoint of "individualistic" selfishness ons, and two of 5,000 tons each. These it is no doubt an exercise of power in the are all designed for the transatlantic s'eam- highest degree legitimate, and to be harmonship companies, and are double and three ized in an excellent way with whatever Mamma takes Robbie close in her times the size of the vessels in use not longer remnants of a moral nature "science" and are warm, and slipping one hand un- ed in 1858, and was larger than any of these through no fault of his own has been rank is obtained and appointment and Surveyor Charles Rankin's der his night-gown, softly rubs his steamers, but she was rather a phenomenon brought into this world, and who since be is this country. About a weeks of original Field Notes, Plans, (Glasgow Herald.)

back, and smooth fat legs, hoping to Sheriff Barclay, at Perth, has just held an soothe him into quite. "Listen to the architecture. For the purposes for which as possible; to secure we say from such as dispatched from Constanting the last fifty-five years, I am a step in the orderly progress of naval as possible; to secure we say from such as dispatched from Constanting the last fifty-five years, I am tick! she was built, those of a great freight and one, the nine fish and a half which he is troops from Salyrna to Volo. It have Surveys in strict accord. who, a few minutes later, appears in her unfavorable, interrupting the show, and had died in the lunatic ward of the general Everybody in the house is asleep! Great Eastern proved unfit, and her con- lowed to live, or even nine fish and three. state, and against the optaining the entrance of the D. ruinneller. After dinner coffee sets in cream china, dressing-gown and remains with them till sometimes preventing it altogether. To prison for Scotland. The evidence disclosed with bands of blue and gold, and decorated the lesson is over. Nothing interests the some eventful and very remantic phases of Grandmamma is asleep, and Aunt struction brought heavy financial loss on quarters for that matter of it, or pine fish her builders. It was only the development of ocean telegraphy that gave her a chance can live himself or even support a wife and posite Gal ip li, a masty fl.t. opportunity which saved the huge ship from complete failure as a useful vessel.

> every year increasing in size, and immediately going into act ve service. The new Cunard steamer, the Servia, for in-tance, will be of 8,500 tone, if we take the Custom House measurement, but of about 11,000 ons of actual weight when loaded for sea. See theref re approaches the Great Eastern in size; but, unlike her, will be a vesse thoroughly adapted to the severe and steady the great Atlantic lines, and unlike her, she represents in her construction the latest ad vances in practical marine architecture. Steamers of a toppage equal to that of the "There is no breakfast yet. Katy Servia will hereafte be common on the great-York and Liverpool They have been renworld. It is now done by the steamers ratrols all but a very small part of commerce. Already three-quart rsof he merchant marine of Europe are steamers, and the European commercial navies in the same direction.

nations generally are rapidly increasing their the Cunard line was t e Scotia, launched in 1861. Compound engines were first introduced at about the same time. Very nearly of dirt and degradation, but God made t "Oh, Rob! Don't pull Mamma's simultaneously, to , iron began to supersede | world, we didn't, the presence of suffering in that time forward our ship, ards steadily declined in activity, and our share o' the carryment of England as the great bui der of ships water that cozes from the rotten thatch has only wakened at his, usual hour, for the world. Steam and iron revolutionfor the world. Steam and iron revolution- or less complete emptiness of the Irish pea-ized naval architec ure and made England sant's stomach and the more or less over-

However the principle of "the greatest considered an excellent one in theory, in the case has had so attenuated an opportunity of displaying itse f, that to all intents | the Lord's work. The and purposes it has remained a theory and seious humbugs, they no hing more. Perhaps also it is destined and being naturally Sicily, adds another to the many proofs older than Robbie. Walter was different was quite wonder which are constantly forcing themselves into years old, and Robbie looked up to him bell music which was quite wonder bell music which was quite wonder to the justice, or the deliberate tyranny of the notice of "the mutability of human affairs." in all things quite as if he were a man. notice of "the mutability of human anairs.

This person, who has recently been placed as a hopeless lunatio in a private asylum at Palermo, is the son of a Sicilian letter
Name of the mutability of human anairs.

One evening Cousin Charley was tellsuperior; and is usually well handled. We had again reached the upper terrace, where had again reached the upper terrace, where an io k for an extension of that benefit, general was to made the providence.

One evening Cousin Charley was tellsuperior; and is usually well handled. We had again reached the upper terrace, where an io k for an extension of that benefit, general was to made the providence. of existence, and the "sammam bonum " of here gentry, which then number "rather than "the greatest | appius the more reasonable way in which to propriety, that the effect grasp the "great unknown" phautom which has floated like some heautiful mirage before the eyes of many of THE GREAT AND GOOD OF ALL AGES ; but that of course is mere matter of opinion an 'Angelus' which I have just written;" on our part, and whichever v'ew of the possibilities of human life be adopted, the "Don't you think this pretty, Jeanie, and opening the piano, he sat down. This results may, probably enough in the end, was the moment which I had so often and so amount to very nearly the same thing. One being sung not halk all the langest for which langest for the lan this was one with a sailor collar and vainly longed fr. When I left England it plaits in the back?" Aunt Helen was seemed to me as impossible that I should ever advantage, however, of what may appear to on the should be left they sing it, talk all the same thing. One being sung, pat brother thing. But a change came. The son of the post-man thirsted to be a leader of society, and saying. "But don't you think Robbie hear Lizt play, as that I should ever see many as the more desponding and preman thirsted to be a leader of society, and saying. But don't you think Robbie hear List play, as that I should ever see sumptuously sceptical view, is most under the sumptuously sceptical view, is most und tion have had this privelege. At Bay outh, which is sure to be felt sooner o later, will be lighter in the one case than in the other, cent, but became deeply involved and was heads over the book, Cousin Charley's self, and it is well known that Liszt can and the inducement to try again, consequent. ly greater. In Ireland, at any rate, at the fraud, was tried, and was sentenced to im- so low: "The rain came down, trick- piano in the presence of strangers. A favor- present moment and for long centuries in fraud, was tried, and was sentenced to imprise nament. The effect of this reverse of fortune was to turn him into a hopeless lunatic; and to convert his former admirers lunatic; and to convert his former admirers lunatic. The effect of this reverse of ling down the trunk of the hollow line pupil, Polig, who was then with him at the pust, it might well seem that to lessen the pupil, Polig, who was then with him at the pupil, Polig, who was then with the pupil, Polig, who was then with him at the pupil, Polig, who was then with the pupil heard him; but, he added with the depth and who are always such wooded issm, "when the master touches the keys, incerity of this great Irish moves and which or to the equally wooded in it is always with the same incomparable effect, unlike anyone else; always perfect." is making itself so w dely felt over the fascinating," said Aunt Jeanie; "It "You know," said Liszt, turning to me, whole civilized world, unless we fully un-

> and the cadences are often broken up thus :" their only means of living. Deprive them and he began a little waying passage in the of that and starv. tion stares them in the THE LAND IS TO THE IRISHMAN, listening ear still carried the broken thythm in most cases what the sea is to every fish. meeting is thus shown to be a through the pause. The Abbate himself erman, it is his very life. Now, as a certain seemed to fall into a dream; his fin ers fell | well-known writer has pointed out, take a should be corry to deny it, relimited area of the sa, assign to it some course, and God has various and fish caught, for the privilege of using one of | way to what took places Green the microscopical tracts of water aforesaid and getting a "living" out of it : endow event may have taken placeton told last week, but we don't has this alien race with the canacities care, -speaking in a semitter they shall be able to say to this man could mention as they shouldbe and he goeth, and to another man and throwing the audience into come" and he cometh, and so that they shall be at perfect liberty to "evict" any of laughter by some silly stor. fi-berman who is already paying nine fish and a half, but who has a wife and six children to support, and cannot conscientiously premise to give the nine fish and threequarters for not a little scepticism. which a neighbour more fortunate it may be get too much into a rut, there is as regards the good things of this world; or it, it very often does, and in perhaps only iess scrupulous, has been will. | ruts to , but there are more w ng to offer to the landed or rather " watered" giatleman and proprietor, for the privilege of being given a chance to live ; do all enterprise, we doubt if He care to the County of Grey. Farmers this and you will have a fairly intelligible to associate with buffoone y and Land Sales, Punctually at-

notion of what BRITISH JUSTICE AND FAIR-PLAY steamers of upward of and about 3,000 tons have been able to accomplish in Ireland for very coolly, whereas his oppose George Corbet, Jr. each. Twenty years ago there were not half some hundreds of years back, and you will no end of an excitement, and ED. LOWN AND GENERAL AGENT as many steamers of that size in the whole cease to wonder moreover that the "fisher- enough to "run" half a dozen moreover to Loan at low world. The few that did exist were looked men "and the "alien race" do not always vivale." That p'an however did interest. Principal payable at the look at the world and things in general work well, and the quiet maun of years, and interest half year-"advanced thought" in their wisdom may The Great Eastern, it is true, was launch- have left us, to secure from a man who and nineteen twentieths, if he thinks he she took the ground on the Dass family into the bargain on the one twentieth | imperfectly marked, which has of the fish, which no power in Heaven or on | more than one British steamer last two years. The stranding

Now, however, we find the ocean steamers earth can make more than a twentieth. That of course is his look out. EVERY MAN FOR HIMSELF. and "Deil tak' the hin'most," is a most sent off a special aide-de-comp wise, just and excellently Christian maxim, with orders to leave with asim and has been acted on in Ireland by those as possible and get the vesting who should have known better, in a most The dispatch vessel with Hour praiseworthy and assiduous manner. As | was just about to leave when sal results go to show however, the practical carrying out of this great truth does not Osmanieh had got off. Hober, seem to have given universal satisfaction. himself at the palace later in "Hold perfectly stil until you are bled, or closely questioned as to the at any rate until we can devise some method | which the ship had been sent for your relief," would not be considered a the general state of the may. very reasonable command to lay on any man not being so satisfactory as the who was troubled with the attentions of a could desire, and Hober complant vampire, nor would it be thought a case for | want of influence at the same very strong "coercive" measures if in spite | majesty suddenly declared: of all warnings and advice to the contrary, mushir, and I hope that the pa the unfortunate victim were to work him- | will henceforth fill will enable in self into a state of considerab'e nervous ex- profit by your great experence. citement. It might be hard on the vampire ther than the sailing ship, upon which steam perhaps, but still, most people would be in- would have made Hohart either clined to try a more or less rough application marine, or placed him by at that end of the question, even though civilian minister with the rank a the unfortunate animal should be deprived er-in-chief : but the influence of a fall balf of its supper or "income," as foreigners in Turkey proved in this case it would be. It is sad, of course the end, and Hassan Pachs, the if a labouring man has to go without his sident of the council under line The last paidle wheel steamer built for dinner more or less frequently, to live in SQUALOR AND NAKEDNESS.

this world is a great mystery, man's ber tage fly upward," but we can't explain it, and we it o mes to be a question between the more flowing fuliness of the Irish landlord's purse, Steamers of greater and greater size will be then at all hazards the "rights" of property and see his children growing up to a heritag

have been dearly the I aked you fold me you dolden's."

A ramenian Christians bear to settle the control of the spaces of the settle bear the process of the spaces of the weakest of the heaters can themselves at a great rate large spaces, they visit the he of the place, get a corgress someway or other by way of up and down the platform in a DR. PURDY, IAN, SURGEON, ACCOUCH. on the shoulder, smile in Broth _Millers's building, over Robin Frost & Frost.

one minute, on subjects that

Ail this is most inevitably fite

"impressions," but whether the healthiest description, there's

The Sultan and Hobart

Thursday night, the accident he ed in the morning, and his mie

navy. The rank of mushiras

Tarkey ; it is the pachalit d as it was called when those per-

(From the Manchester Gauss

TERS. AND ATTORNEYS-A" Religitors in Chancery, Convey Owen Sound, have resumed at Office open every Thursday, as J. W. FROST, LL. B. silly stories, boo-hooings and bear Crown Attorney. mes Masson. think the mselves converted by RB and ATTORNEY-AT-LAY dose of hotch-potch, to lose Lot in Chancery, Owen Sound. out on the Lord's side. Afer are troubled with very suson ames Lamon. are generally worked upon and EY-AT-LAW, SOLICITOR IN

, Notary Public, &c. ed at lowest rates on personal ete. Lands bought and sold. ler introduced free of commisacers & Land Agents Wm. Brown. MARRIAGE LICENSES, &c., ioner in B. R. &c. ing in all its branches promptly d carefully executed.

ey to Lend on Real Estate se Sept. 17, 1880. W. L. Smith. AGENT AND DEARER IN Stock, Williamsford Station.

xander Brown. Marriage Licenses, Fire and of dragging it out, and as the must always be the active Age Conveyancer and Licensed of Elijah and the false prophets ville, Bept. 17, 1880.

worthy if we remember rightly principal and interest repay.

er of desirable Improved Farms J. G. Sing. AND PROVINCIAL LAND r. Draughtsman and Valuator be promptly attended to. Dentistry.

as required upon the mouth

on the last Wednesday in en he will be prepared to per-

It was thought at first that TARKDALE. ar Hotel has had a large adand attentive ostler. First-

$1.00 per day. 17-ly

L'ROPRIETORS

VILLE, Ont. Ac. The Bar and larder

ATKINSON, Proprietor.

COMPER FOR THE

ENIA P. O.

please address, Rev. E. A. 1-tf | et., Williamsburgh, N. Y.

ADVERTISING

DIRECTORY.

Medical.

proule & Carter.

faction guarante Brown and Spre

RUTLEDGE, Proprietor. miration of thou warranted to pu cattle, always procured at his Drug Store, Mar Surgeons, Accoucheurs Estimates for plication. Satis dence-Queen St

Markdale, Sept

Sheep

diseases lurking

at Law, - Owen Sound. TARMERS he Cattle to sell. age to leave there r as the undersigned and will positively

Sept. 17th, 1880 R. M. A UCTIONEER Ageht, Wiilia Sales attended in Pianos, Organs, an Fruit and Ornamer tural Implements, Wlliamsford, Jar

> Money IN large or small a

Allowed on good endorsed

PDrafts issued all points, at lowest

EGETABLE SICILIAN

San been in co ear by the pt for over twenty ever invented for ING GRAY HAIR YOUTHFUL COLO LIFE.

glands without sta skin. It will incr thicken the growt hair, prevent its b AVERT BALDY It cures Itching.

tions and Dandru HAIR DRESSING desirable, giving th silken softness wh admire. It keeps clean, sweet and h

PREPAR P. HALL & CO., Sold by all Dezler SPECIAL

Watches. Stem winders $2.50. of your own use or speculati LOST MANHOOD A victim of youthful impru ture Decay, Nervous Debility having tried in vain every kn to his fellow-sufferers, addre 43 Chatham St., N. Y. Mothers! Mothers Are you disturbed at nig the best the market af your rest by a sick chi ag and attentive Hostler's crying with the excruciation teeth! If so, go at once a MRS. WINSLOW'S SOO It will relieve the poor litt ately—depend upon it; the about it. There is not a who has ever used it, who once that it will regulate give rest to the mother, an to the child, operating like E R feetly safe to use in all cas the oldest and best femal > where at 25 cents a bottle. The advertiser, having b cured of that dread disease to his fellow sufferers the n

nurses in the United Sta

a simple remedy, is anxious lowest rates of interest, in directions for prepairing an ers. Agent for Farmers' which they will find a sun All business matters SUMPTION, ASTEMA, BRONCH Parties wishing the P