EUGENIA.

From a Correspondent.

The annual tea meting in connec tion with the Union Sabbath School was held in the Orange Hall, Eugenia, on Friday evening, the 16th inst. The programme, as usual, consisted of Dialogues, recitations, Vocal and delivered by a number of local celeberites. The Superintendent of Salem Sabbath School adressed the child ren in a few select and well chosen Scriptural promises, followed by the Rev. Mr. Madden the resident C. M Minister, who gave an excellent and instructive adress. The receipts at the Door amounted to nearly $23 This speaks in itsself the interest taken in the Sabbath School work in Eugenia. We beleive this is the largest sum taken during the whole season, out of the many entertainment which have been given. It may be asked, how is so much interest taken in the Sabbath School; simply because it is conducted on purely union principals, and any attempts to introduce Sectarian Schools have had very sudden deaths. Now that relegions instruction is nearly Tabooed in our common Schools, let us support our Sabbath School. Now is the seoson when you may expect to be asked, how much sugar have you made? Sugar Bush, work is now the order of the day. Is it any use to tell you that we expect to have spring. Quite a number of cattle are dying. and no one seems to know the nature of the ailment.

To the Editor of the STANDARD. Sir,—I think it not out of place to let the outside world (away from Hopeville) know of the intense excitequiet village of Hopeville. About one sale, the following property: year ago a Mormon, or "latter-day saint" Elder, by the name of Mcseries of meetings, he procured some Glenele, containing by admeasurement 50 converts, and on Monday last the screen more or less. The following improvesame person appeared according to ments are said to be on the premises:-40 notice publicly made, in Scarlett's Hall in this village, and is still carryon a series of meetings, with the prospect of drawing more members to his speak of his great ability as a speaker, and some are talking of trying to procure bim as the next candidate for the Proton Reeveship; for his able tongue and cleverness in quoting the scriptures, causes all who attack him to be put hors de combat. On Monday night the meeting was rather noisey, but Tuesday night there was a full house and good order. He was taken to task by a Mr. Bush a Millerite who hailed from London, Ont., but after some sharp firing and some unpleas ant and unseemly expressions, Mr. Bush was fiairly "Bushed," and had to secumb to the Latter-day Saint: but by the able arguments of the Latterday saint and the Millerite, there appeared a poor chance for the poor plain Episcopalian, Presbyterian, or Methodist. Wednesday night the house was thinner, not so many of the respectable community attended : but a few young men and boys from
