ERTON.

le Clothine, ND SHOES,

POINT POSSIBLE, der to do so. nd Under THIRTY DAYS

thing of First-Class Value.

OR CREDIT. er sale, a large quantity of and other varieties of Spring mothy and Clover Seed; also I to sew clean seed, you will make bod article. arge quanties of NURE, est Cash Price laid down r nett each at Bottom Prices.

ntimate that my PORTATIO ING DAILY,

penédout and show

d Stocks ever brought into e in the past, and soliciting and

J. SPROU

absoquent insertion ins, first insertion per line All transitory advertise-

W. RUTLEDGE, Proprietor. YONAL & BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

sproule & Carter. Medical Hall; residence distore, Markdale. Money to loan

chas. R. Wilkes, est Law, - Owen Sound Willers's building, over Rebin-Frost & Frost, Office open every Thursday, as J. W. FROST, LL. B.

James Masson, erin Chancery, Owen Sound.

raduate of Ontario Veterinary Colle e, med at lowest rates on personal 35-3m. ller introduced free of commis GNERAL AGENT AND DEAFER IN DUNDALK.

Wm. Brown, loney to Leud on Real Estate se-

George Corbet, Jr., LOAN AND GENERAL AGENT interest. Principal payable at the Money to Loan at low umof years, and interest half yearin principal and interest repaynumber of desirable Improved Farms J. G. Sing, directions, &c., of all his Surveys hin the last fifty-five years, I am

. James J. White,

GROCERIES & PROVISIONS lost satisfactory manner, and upon | Keeps constantly on hand everything usua hotels. VERE HOTEL, MARKDALE.

Which for quality and Lowness of Price CANNOT BE SURPASSED. dation f commercial travel-

I MEAN BUSINESS, AND WILL - PROPRIETORS.

TARKDALE, MAY 20, 1881.

ne advantage in having the very best mad Parties in want of a carriage or Impleme will do well to give me a call, as there a

But now if I look up, I greet Them figures done in paints

I'd go a long way not to meet Saints, if such folks be saints."

Ah, John, they didn't teach high art

When you were put to school; But how do you like the singing part — Come, that's a better rule?"

"Why, sir, they're thinking far too mu

That's more what I call praise.

"We used to sing it—such a crowd— Maybe the notes weren't true;

But now grandson—pert young lad— He says he's got much higher;

You thinks a deal about that thing

Says he, 'You're not to sing, grandda You'll interrupt the choir."

But I can't see why you can't sing

Without your bedgown, Jim.'

"New chancel's mighty fine, but ne's

Can we make out, who knows

For carving gilt and scroll;

Do to a poor lost soul?

No use to such as me;

You only talk of She!

What's gone with the Commandments

What have you done with those?

"You're all for pretty tiles and bricks,

What good could them tall candlestick

"Sir, there's a many things restored

"We used to pray the prayers, and then
The parson prayed from heart;
Now, you all seem to think 'Amen'
The most important part.

"But, sir, I scarcely like telling you

How it sounds when you intones

"Machine what grinds the bones!

Your decorations, copes and stoles, He didn't need such aid;

He cared too much for our poor souls

To think how his gown was made.

The rich and poor came far and near,

With tears in eyes he stood;

Than twenty sermons could.

The church would overflow;

It's getting full again I hear-

In Lendon town one day,

But not for prayer, I say.

In spirit and in truth.

I will when it's restored :

But now, sir, I don't dare to go,

Because I fears the Lord."

Folks come to see the Show,

All very well for a play, maybe,

'Now it's most like the play I see

Can please the Lord, forsooth?

He said-we were to worship Him

"Do you think, sir, such a queerish whim

So that's why I don't come, you know;

DER.

CESSFULLY POURED INTO A MOULD.

[From the N. Y. Times.]

metal in the thinnest part is 12 inches

three more belts, each 6 inches

I've seen him pleading with us thus,

Somehow those tears preached more to us

We had a minister once, sir-

'Twas long before you came-man that was a minister,

Not only in the name.

"Well, John, what is it like? Speak tru

We want to hear about the Lord,

Maybe we sang a bit too loud,

The choir, says I to him;

Because our hearts sang too.

How tunes go now-a-days; Give me the old hundredth psalm and suc

FLESHERTON. Is prepared to fill all orders promptly.

Cutting done while customers are waiting. A Good Fit Guaranteed. The Latest Fashion Plates always on hand to choose

Remember the place opposite Richard Flesherton, March 9th, 1881.

MARKDALE,

Cabinet Makers, UPHOLSTERERS

a full stock of Furniture ALWAYS ON HAND. FURNITURE MADE TO ORDER LUMBER WANTED. GRANT & CHELLEW

Markdale, Dec. 23, 1880.

VV customers his sincere thanks for their hem that he is prepared to supply their very liberal patronage during the 15 years he has been in the Harness Business in Markance of the same, feeling confident that he can give Entire Satisfaction. Everything usually kept in a FIRST - CLAS HARNESS ESTABLISHMENT. always on hand, and sold a: moderate rates. None but good workman employed and the best of materials used. Markdale, Nav, 18, 1880

TAILORING C. A. OWEN,

TTAVING rented the Tailoring Department over McFarland's store, wishes thick, and the flanges at the top and to inform the public of Markdale and surrounding country, that he is prepared to FILL ALL ORDERS

Promptly and Tastily! rom flange, and between these two Done while Customers are waiting

HE LATEST FASHION PLATES

Always on hand to chose from.

LOW RATES. Remember the Place,

Over McFarland's Store. Markdale, Nov. 25. 1880.

ingly. The Court will open at 10 s, m.

For them as likes the look: They always made me think of G And all His tender care.

sweatening article, pennyroyal, etc. sawdust padding which the young Repeat every half hour, or as often as woman had tied to a lean shank to one or two days they will be entirely The eager anxious and solicitous

I have been called to cases where heap wiser. they have been fully broken out, and in this way entirely cured in twentyfour hours. I have had thirty cases on hand at a time, and never lost a case in my life. But now I am old and about to give up my business, and early hour this morning which result-I see by the papers the town is infected ed in the terrible death of a father with the epidemic I wish to do all the and son. David Reese and family good I can. It is so simple. You lo resided at about three miles from this not need to call a doctor. A good place. Between 1 and 2 o'clock this nurse can attend to them. If by open- morning their house was discovered ing the pores of the skin and sweating to be on fire. The sleeping apartyou can let off the poison, which is an | ments were filled with smoke and the animalcule, or animal in the blood, occupants were awakened with great the cure is complete. the skin, retaining the poison, or liv. and while they were inside, the Miss Coghlan," interupted James. all will try it and they will soon convinced."

CONFIDENTIAL.

The other morning when Mr. Jones entered his family drug store to have a prescription put up he found a new clerk in attendance. Mr. Jones has considerable curiosity, and while he waited he began :

"Been here long?" "Only two days." "Going to stay?" "I think so. "Old clerk gone for good?" "Come from New York?"

"No. I came from St. Louis." "Didn't like the town, I suppose?" "Oh, fairly." "Well, not much better.' "Druggist related to you?"

"Going to marry his daughter?" "Haven't thought of it." CASTING A MONSTER CYLIN room and said : What is declared to be the largest Morgan Iron Works of John Roach & Son, at the foot of East Ninth Street. It is 18 feet long, 9 feet 2 inches in diameter, and required for its casting 45 tons, or 90,000 pounds. of gun-It is intended to accommodate a piston stroke of 14 feet. The Jones went out feeling his left ear and looking into vacancy, and his sore throat got well without the help of the bottom are 2% inches thick by 5% inches wide. Under the top flange the cylinder has a belt 16 inches wide, another 6 inches wide above the hot-LAUGHTER IN CHURCH. The Shrewsbury Chronicle says "On Sunday last, an announcemen which caused some amusement to the congregation, was made in a churc which is situated in the northwesterl suburb, and outside the boundary o the borough. The clergyman had just After exercising sufficiently they regiven out, among other announcements, that in the afternoon a chrischurch before 8 p.m., when the clerk gregation by solemnly adding, that Several others who didn't know what frightened the girl?" those who had not got them could be the service at sixpence each. It trans-Easter services hence the grotesque men departed much sadder and a

ROASTED TO DEATH

An accident occurred here at an difficulty. The family escaped from The same is equally good in fevers the burning building at the risk of of all kinds, hard colds and coughs. their lives. Mr. Reese and his son I take the ground that all diseases are then made an effort to save some caused by a stoppage of the pores of necessary clothing, when suddenly warm bath is good. But you apply heard, and then all was over. Mrs. the oil to the skin and it keeps the Reese also narrowly escaped with her pores open for a long time and gives life, but was terrible burned about the enemy a chance to get out. I hope her hands and feet while fighting her way out of the fiames. Hundreds neighbors soon flocked to the scene of the terrible disaster, and when the flames had got down the bodies the victims were removed from the askes. The cause of the fire is

PROPOSED REVISION OF THE PSALMS IN METRE.

At the meeting of the Synod of Toronto and Kingston of the Presby-Brock Street Church, Kingston, re- night. presenting that the General Assemlooking to providing a new version of the Psalms in metre, as the present referred to the synod in 1879; but it her mother's room was not considered until 1880, when There was a brief rest until the it was laid on the table for the year. clerk had finished his labors, and then Rev. Andrew Wilson, of Brock Street | dear. She will be up by-and-by; an han been adopted by the United which case I shall give up the drug good one, and he would be glad to see deep sigh. basiness altogether and go sailing a it adopted. After some discussion the overture was laid on the table.

Cleveland railroad station amused the dismissed her. passengers. It was evident, says a local reporter, that they were slowly consuming by a terrible burning of the unquenchable flame of young love. They wandered to and fro along the entire length of the stafion, the one arm of the swain encircling the waist of Mrs. Swain and the other bearing their luggage, a three-pound Saratega. paired to the waiting-room, and there whiled away the remaining time before tening service would be held, and that the arrival of the train by billing, cooparents desiring to have their children | ing, caressing and kissing, until even He was politely told by the man with last night doing those absurd rites. the wife that he was lacking sense. love is, were also unable to suppress their merriment. As excess of feeling. no matter of what kind, will turn or the faucet to the fountain of tears, this man had announced that he intended young couple wept copiously. At last mond's scream of terror." the train arrived and the loving pair No doubt the passengers ol her. It was a keen delight to supon. The ballet dancer, more dead than alive, was dragged into a drugstore, where an eager and anxious logs. Mr. Quarles to the sexton's house, with strong soda water, warm, then with strong soda water, warm, then crowd of men examined her legs. Then immediately bathe freely with oil from beef marrow or their fears were allayed, however of the vestry into which the gentlemen when the discovery was made that then bore Glorvina, placed her the canine had only destroyed the Eva's directions flat on the floor, sprinkled her face with water, wh they get worrisome or wakeful, and in give it roundness and attractiveness. length Gloryma opened her eyes with a deep sigh, and gazed round with bewildeered look.

> "Where am 1?" she askel. "Quite safe under the church roof replied James gently. "Oh"-sitting up and pushing the hair from her forehead-"I have

"Yes dear you fainted," said Eva tenderly. "Are you better?" "Much better-quite well," the girl, making an effort to which Mr. Surridge assisted "What an absurl illness! I never inted before in my life." "Did you see anything dear Glora, Glorvina started, shuddered voilently, and turned still whiter than she had been before.

ing animals in the blood, and all you building fell in with a crash upon "We had better get Miss Desmond have to do at first is to open the doors of the system and let them out, or drive them out. All people know a death. One loud, terrible cry was posal, accepted the tutor's srm, and puzzled, turned to the honse, Mrs. Coghlan was frightened when Glorvina, deathly pale, was led into the drawing room, and at once hush ing all inquires she took her up to her room, The others stood round fire, puzzled and bewildered James noticed that Captain Leicester was still by Eva's side, soothing her alarm with very lover-like devotion. "I can't imagine what Glorvina ha seen," said Lucy Walker. "Some been something supernatural to have started her." But no one knew. Mrs. Ccghlan terian Church in Canada on Wed- returned to say that Glorvina was ! nesday an overture was read from better, and would not appear that "And indeed," she added, "it bly should be overtured to take action | time all you foolish young people went to bed also, for it is past one.

To Eva it was a relief to say good "Mamma, where is Glorvina?"

he beckoned Mr. Jones into the back | Church Kingston, said the revision | Eva, ask her no questions to-night." Eya promised, though she was a "You look like a person who can Presbyterian Church of America and very martryr to curiosity, and, returnbe depended on, and I'll tell you in by the Presbyterian Church in Ire- ing to her cousin's room, waited pat- it would be impossible to break them confidence why I came here. I liked land. There were many obsolete iently till Glorvina very pale and ex-St. Louis, and I had good wager, but terms used in the revision in use in hausted, appeared; then she made I happened to kill three or four per- Canada. To say nothing of errors in haste to undress her and get her into what is declared to be the largest sons by putting up wrong prescriptranslation. There was also lack of bed; and by that time Mrs, Coghlan tions, and I thought a change of lovariety in metre, giving no opportant appeared with a glass of wine-and the end window of the last change cation would relieve my sorrow. This tunity of singing many tunes with water, which she insituted on Glorvina is on the square, you know, and no- which the people were familiar. He drinking. The girl meekly obeyed thing is to be said unless I lay out two believed the revision in use by the her, and then, sinking wearily back or three of your leading citizens, in North American Church was a very on her pillow, closed her eyes with a at once, Eva," commanded her mothwhile, Good-night de ar." And, you go to papa in the study?" asked even made into store-rooms, they are Teddy at histutor's door, before James so damp; but you can see them if you was dressed the next morning. "I will go directly," was the re-

CHAPTER. VII.

"Good morning, Mr. Surridge," said. "You found Glorvina, I hear

"Nothing," replied the tutor.

"No," he said : "she heard it also. on the train received their money's The fact is, my dear fellow, she has worth of amusement during the ride. been dreadfully alarmed. A figure HEROIC RESCUE. On Monday after floating hair. a death like-face, and street the other bay, reading signs noon, a fishing roat from Big Island blood-stained white robe, and told her through the tutor's frame as he claps- the party were rather late. The with her head rest g upon his breast; host to the town where he would take drove off all together in the old and that frightened you ?" asked her cou-

"No questions now, if you please, the party considerably mystified and thing horrible, I am sure. She is so during his absence in, a guest-chamber

"Got a better offer here, I presume?" | version, owing to faults in metre, could | night to the guests, and she ran off not well be used in the churches. to see how Glorvina was; but she did This overture was submitted to the not, to her surprise, find her in he Presbytery of Kingston, and by them | chamber. She hastened at once to "She is with yourfather in the study

ed to be placed at an immense height up. The old most had been filled in at the north-west corner, and its "Let her sleep. Go to your room great depth made the window ligher er. "I will sit with Glory a little have been. A newly-married couple at the kissing her daughter, Mrs. Coghlan

"If you please Mr. Surridge, will

py; and the young clergyman, hurry- from that day he resolved to turn the ing his toilet, was in two or three min | upper north rooms to account; and utes in Mr. Coghlan's study, and he Mr, Coghlan's absence gave him the found that gentleman with a very har | desired oppornity.

Didyou see anything that might have

"Nor hear anything." "Yes, I heard a most painful wa or cry-I suppose it saw Miss Des Mr. Coghlan shook his head.

leave the Priory again until you return Mr. Coghlan assented; and after heir farewells had been said, they seldom-usedfamily ccach. O'Brien and Captain Leicester both offered their services to the Squire in taking care of the ladies during lus absence. "Thank you both," he said cheerily. 'I shall be obliged if you will keep an eye on them; but they are quite safe with my friend Surridge." The tutor saw Mr. Coghlan safely off by the coach, and then went about his own purchases. They were of a rather singular description. He went to an ironmonger'r and inquired if his order sent by post had been executed. Yes, balf a dozen staples were ready. When should the tradesman send to fix them? His customer-who was absolutely un known personally to him-would take them himself. He would also take a supply of nails, screws and a screw-driver sent to the Shamrock Inn The order was duly executed for him, and the family coach thus laden carried the tutor back to the Priory. He ordered the footman to take the packages to his own room, and then joined the family. He was glad to see that Miss Desmond was with them e but it was a very pale Glorvina who' rose and gave him her hand

Then he had to relate how Mr. Coghan had gone off, and how the town looked; he also produced a newspaper and the last new book, which had been one of his thoughtful purchase for Mrs. Coghlan and the ladies. Nor had he forgotten a puzzle for Teddy and a doll for Norah. The tutor, at Mr. Coghlan's request had moving to, and was to remain on the west side of the house which commanded the great stair-case' and from which also he could see all overthe great centre inner court. When moved his books and ward. robe, assisted by Teddy, the boy had persuaded him to go and look at the "haunted rooms," as they called them -on the north side. They were gloomy, lacking sun, and the furniture was old and mouth-eaten. The rooms opened into each other, with havy massiven oaken doors. Ode windows did not look out upon the inner court as the south bed-room did, but upon

"They are awful dull rooms, ain't they ?" said Teddy. "Norah and I very seldom play here, though we have never seen gosts. "What heavy doors !" observed the tutor, "Butthey are without fast mings open, I should thik." The boy did not answer him : in -it had two-and, opening the lattice gazed out and downward. It appear-by twenty feet than it would otherwise "Are the rooms below them used?" "Oh, no, sir!" said the boy. "They are just like prisons, with great bars of iron at the window. They have not been used since Lord Edward's time, Murphy says. They can't be

The tutor declined the offer : but

The morning after the gentlmam's departure, James Surridge rose at day-break: and before breakfast had conveyed his yesterday's purchases of tolts, bars, screws, and nails to the haunted rooms. His idea was to make the apartments by these fastenings useful as a fortress, should the house at any time be attacted by the rebels. who would then have nine doors to burst open before they could reach the tamily in the last room, affording an amount of delay which might bring

When Teddy started off, after his lessons, to play with Norah, the tutor

Advertisements without specific will be published till forbid and the Thursday morning preceed.

Medical. ans, Surgeon , Accoucheur

DR. PURDY, IN SURGEON, ACCOUCH.

p. Macmillan. WIREDALE and DURHAM.) MEY-AT-LAW, SOLICITOR IN

ISTERS AND ATTORNEYS-AT Solicitors in Chancery, Convey Own Sound, have resumed at nancers & Land Agents. OF MARRIAGE LICENSES, &c.

Sept. 17, 1880. Hexander Brown,

INION AND PROVINCIAL LAND tock of original Field Notes, Plans, ling Hills, Plans and Specification

tently I can and wills ossible Prices

GRAIN

ferms $1.06 per day. 17-ly YAL HOTEL. MEAFORD, Ont.

ERCIAL HOTEL.

letter, or left with G. J. BLYTH will be promptly attended to. Dentistry.

th, when he will be prepared to perperations required upon the mouth

PROULE, - Proprietor. popular Hotel has had a large adon added to it, thoroughly refitted, abling and attentive ostler. First-strictly private, and treated as such EUGENIA P. O.

RICEVILLE, Ont.

T. E. DVIS. Builder & CONTRACTOR, (Stone and will do well to give me a call, a prick). Plastering and Country Jobs. none in the market which will enter the contract of th cialty. Estimates on all work, free. Satisfaction guaranteed. Residence corner of Brown and Sproule Streets, Maskball.

December 31, 1840. R. M. Galbraith, A UCTIONFER AND GENERAL LAND A Agent, Williamsford Station. Auction Sales attended in all parts of the County. Goods sold on Commission. Rates moderate Pianos, Organs, and Sewing Machines; also Fruit and Ornamental Trees, Vines. Agricultural Implements, and Machinery of all kinds

Wlliamsford, Jan. 27, 1981.

Wm. Lucas BANKERS, MARKDALE

TN large or small amounts, at all times, on I good endorsed notes, or on collateral INTEREST AT 6 PER CENT.

Allowed on Savings Deposits.

Money Loaned

Drafts issued and Collections made on all points, at lowest rates. WM. LUÇAS & Co.

VETERWARY.

Veterinary Surgeon

Calls by Mail or Telegraph promply attended to. RESIDENCE, DUNDALE W. L. Smith, Nursey Stock, Williamsford Station.

Sept. 17, 1890,

F.Z.NIXON.

Meat for All

. Sarjent's. W.B. The subscriber returns thanks to the inhabitants of MARKDALE nd vicinity for their liberal patronage durthe past five years, and begs to remind wants in his line as CHEAP as any one north of Toronto. Fresh and Corned Meats

SAUSAGE & POULTRY always kept in their Season. Shop on Mill sreett, opposite delivered promptly on receipt of orders.

the "Revere Hotel." Cash paid for Fat Cattle and Sheep Again thanking you for past favors he rusts by faithful attention to your wants to merit a continuance of your support. Notice.-Farmers having fat sheep or cattle to dispose of will leave their address at W. B. SARJEANT. Markdale, Sept, 17th 1880. China TEA Store

R. ASKIN

General dealer in

Next to Haskett's Hardware Store. to such an establishment He would draw special attention to his Teas, Tobaccos & Sugars puffing is no part of my desire, I merely Court of Revision. ask intending purchasers to give me a call and be convinced that TOWNSHIP OF PROTON

A Good Chance.

The thickness of the metal at the belts is 21 inches. A nozzle for the upper steam-chest is cast on the cylinder, with an opening 141 by 63 inches, the metal on the top of this and on the sides and bottom 11 inches. The casting of this massive piece of work was done in a mould constructed of brick, lined with loam, the outside being covered with heavy iron plates christened must bring them to the clerk in the fruit stand smiled. to prevent the matrix from bursting the flooring of the iron works. It reonired the metal 8 hours and 20 minutes to melt, and the 90,000 pounds The Court of Revision for the Township of were then transferred by the labor of flanges, belts, and other parts of the pired that the clerk thought the clergythe matrix. Over half the mould was to adopt a new hymn book at the Sell Lower than the Lowest, as I have purchased for cash, and have had a good discount allowed, I am in a position to good discount allowed. I am in a position to good discount allowed, I am in a position to good discount allowed, I am in a position to good discount allowed. I am in a position to good discount allowed in the court of Revision to the

And old couple were walking down