NOTICE,

17HE Canada Advertising Agency, No. 29 King Street West, Toronto, W. W. BUTCHER, Manager,

A SHOCKING ACCIDENT happened the evening of the 24th inst. at London, Ontario. The Steamer Victoria 2nd, 9 ft. 9 in. was returning with an excursion party from a place called Springbank; when the boat suddenly, and without apparent cause, crumbled to pieces, pregipi Tating all on board, some 600 human | 2nd, 41 ft. beings, into the water. At the present time of writing about 150 bodies had been recovered. It was impossible to tell with any certainty how many had perished. As the suidenness and awful nature of the calamity has naturally thrown every one in the city into the wildest state of horror and confusion, and it will be some days before the people will be sufficiently calm to 4ft. 10 in. find out who are missing. It several cases whole families have perished. It is stated by some that the cause of the accident was the over-crowding of the heat. A searching investigation show t be made, and if the rumours prove true the government should interfore with a strong hand to prevent
