GENERAL & OTHER NOTICES.

Do you feel miserable, tired, half-sick, no appetite and out of sorts generally? Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters is just the medicine you want, a few doses will at once relieve you. Go to your Druggist and get a bottle, price 50 cents. At A. T. Farnsworth's, C. Special Agents, Markdale.

The storm of Sunday night has done a vast amount of damage to crops and buildings throughout Ontario. The standing grain has been badly laid, and a number of barns and houses have been destroyed by lightning.

East Grey Agricultural Society will hold their Fall show, on the 6th and 7th of October in Flesherton.

ARE YOU GOING TO TRAVEL?

Don't forget a supply of that Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. It is a superior remedy for sea sickness, and a positive cure for all bowel complaints induced by bad water, change of diet, or of climate. Whether at home or abroad, it should be kept at hand in case of emergency.

Mr. Peter Harris, of Ephraim, brought us in a bunch of Timothy hay, which he pulled out of a field of six acres measuring 5 feet 6 inches. Mr. H. tells us that the yield will be over an average and is very uniform throughout.

No Hospital Needed.—No palatial hospital needed for Hop Bitters patients, for large salaried attendants, or to tell what Hop Bitters will do for you, as they tell their own story by their certain and absolute cures at home.—New York Independent.

On Wednesday, Aug. 3rd, a meeting of the Presbytery will be held in the Presbyterian Church at McIntyre's Corners, at 10.30 a. m. At 2 p. m., of the same day the ordination and induction of the Rev. Mr. Chisholm will take place. The congregation will be large. The congregation purpose holding a social in the evening.

KILL BY LIGHTNING.—A cow belonging to Mr. Silas Phillips, of the township of Osprey, was struck by lightning and killed on last Saturday.—Apeace.

A special meeting of the Presbyterian Congregation of Markdale and Flesherton, on Monday next, August the 1st at 2 p. m., for the purpose of modernizing in a "call" to a minister of said Congregation.

NATURE MAKES NO MISTAKES.

Nature's own remedy for bowel complaints, cholera morbus, cholera, cramps, vomiting, sea sickness, cholera infantum, diarrhoea, dysentery, and all diseases of a like nature belonging to the summer season, is Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, which can be obtained of all dealers in medicine.

The "American Agriculturist" for August is to hand. Its contents are varied, useful and entertaining. It is a work that should be in the hands of every Farmer, Gardener and Florist. Price $1.50 per annum. Subscriptions taken at this office, where specimen numbers may be seen.

One half of Brooklyn is tickled with joy because it has been proven that Gutteren belongs to Beecher's church and not to Talmage's, and the other half of the city is gloomy for the same reason.

We have had considerable rain the past few days which will be of great benefit to the root crops. The hay, barley, and fall wheat, which is being harvested in many parts of Ontario, will, we fear be somewhat damaged.

Too Many Lovers.—Sunday night there was considerable disturbance on Cannon street. Two men were smitten with the charms of one female, and got into an altercation as to who should be the lady home. One of them, a bus-driver for one of the leading hotels, became very angry, and used rather strong language, and the affair culminated in his arrest, and he saw his rival walk off with the girl.—Spectator.

The Duke of Athol, who is at present on a visit to Manitoba and the Northwest, is stated to have said at Winnipeg the other day, that he should return to Scotland a sadder and a wiser man; that since he had seen the Canadian Northwest, he did see how it was possible for British tenants to compete with the people of Canada, and he saw nothing for it but a reduction of rents all round.—Score one Canada.

ALTHOUGH we have not got a brick yard in our village, yet, nevertheless, so high are building operations, that men do not seem to be had to enable the contractors to complete their contracts on time.

We learn that Mr. Gould has let a contract for six dwelling houses. This will supply a want long felt to certain extent. For the past year many families have been prevented from coming to our village from the fact that dwelling houses were not obtainable. Although buildings are going up in all directions, it is next to impossible to get a house to rent, for the reason they are beset six months ahead; and yet some people have the hardihood to say that Markdale is not progressing.

A. MCINTYRE.

THE TEN Insurance Commandments.

1. Thou shalt insure thy real and personal estate and a 4 that thou hast against fire, for—
Defending thyself from misfortune until old age; Thy happiness shall equal thy wisdom.
2. Thou shalt not insure more than thou dost possess, for insurance is a business wherein thou canst make money. This is simply thy duty in order to preserve what thou hast acquired.
Preserve that which thou shalt acquire; Whose is prudent guardeth his goods.
3. Thou shalt not insure less than thou dost possess—for that thou dost not insure, will not be paid in case of loss.
Though poverty is not a vice, To lose all is not a pleasure.
4. Thou shalt not make excessive declarations of value respecting thy property in case of fire; but thou shalt state truly that which belongs to thee, that thou mayest not have a lawsuit or gain a bad reputation.
As we make our bed so must we lie.
5. Thou shalt also exhort thy neighbors, thy friends, and thy relations to insure themselves, that they may escape loss, and that poverty through a loss by fire be not laid to thy charge.
That which comes by the fite goes by the drum.
6. Thou shalt not backbite, nor hinder thy neighbor from making off these insurances, for those who are so imprudent as not to insure are those who are most visited with losses; so no pityeth their condition.
Those that are beaten pay the fine.
7. Thou shalt not search for evasion to get rid of the expense of insurance, for it is low in proportion to thy position; thou canst put by as much as the value of the bottles of drinkest, and thou wilt then have sufficient for all thy insurance.
The pitcher that goes often to the well must in the end be filled.
8. Thou shalt regard the expense of insurance like the expense of thy meat and drink; and as thou canst not do without these, because thou hast hunger and thirst thou shalt not more hesitate about insurance, because it will give thee security, repose, consolation, and aid.
In thirst and misfortune A year in recovery is a pleasure.
9. Thou shalt be careful when thou insurest that thou selectest a reliable and safe company and that the agent is an honest one, because in so doing in case of a loss the money shall not be paid for naught, and if thou lose thy property and not get thy insurance thou wilt be poorer than a church rat.
If thou faltest into poverty People will care but little for thee.
10. Thou shalt do all thy insurance with Robert Davis, the Conveyancer and Land and Insurance Agent at Flesherton, for—
He represents only the best companies, and He guards well his patrons' interests.

ROBT. DAVIS,
Conveyancer, Commissioner in E. R., Real Estate, Loan, and Estate Agent, Flesherston Branch Office, Rutledge's Hotel, Markdale, every Thursday.
