By its searching and cleansing qualities it purges out the foul corruptions which contaminate the blood and cause derangement and decay. It stimulates and enlivens the vital functions, promotes energy and strength, restores and preserves health, and infuses new life and vigor throughout the whole system. No sufferer from any disease which arises from impurity of the blood need despair who will give AYER'S SARSAPARILLA a fair trial. It is folly to experiment with the numerous low-priced mixtures, of cheap materials, and without medicinal virtues, offered as blood-purifiers, while disease becomes more firmly seated. Aver's Sarsaparilla is a acquired. medicine of such concentrated curative power, that it is by far the best, cheapest, and most reliable blood-purifier known. Physicians know its composition, and pre-scribe it. It has been widely used for forty years, and has won the unqualified confi dence of millions whom it has benefited.

THE TEN

Commandments.

1. Thou shalt insure thy real and personal estate and all that thou hast against fire, for-Defending thyself from misfortune until old age, Thy happeness shall equal thy wisdom 2. Thou shalt not insure more than thou dost possess, for insurance is a business wherein thou canst not make money.

his is simply thy duty in order to preserve what thou hast

Whose is prudent guardeth his goods. 3. Thou shalt not insure less than thou lost possess-for what thou dost not insure, will not be paid in case of loss. Though poverty is not a vice To lose all is not a pleasure. 4. Thou shalt not make excessive declarations of value respecting thy property in case of fire; but thou shall state truly that which belongs to thee, that

Lou mayest not have a lawsuit or gain a bad reputation

Preserve that which thou shalt acquire,

As we make our bed so must we lie. 5. Thou shalt also exhort thy neighbors, thy friends, and thy relations to nsure themselves, that they may escape loss, and that poverty through a loss by fire be not laid to thy charge.

That which comes by the flute goes by the drum.

6. Thou shalt not backslide, nor hinder thy neighbor from making all these insurances, for those who are so improvident as not to insure are those who are most visited with losses; no one pities their condition. Those that are beaten pay the fine. 7. Thou shalt not search for evasion to get rid of the expense of insurance, for it is low in proportion to thy position; thou canst put by as much as the value of the bottles of wine thou drinkest, and then wilt then have suffi-

The pitcher that goes often to the well must in the end be filled.

8. Thou shalt regard the expense of insurance like the expense of thy meat and drink; and as thou canst not do without these, because thou hast hunger and thisrt thou shalt not more hesitate about insurance, because it will give thee security, repose, consolation, and aid.

In thirst and misfortune A pear in reserve is a pleasure. 9. Thou shall be careful when thou inscrest that thou selectest a reliable and safe company and that the agent is an honest one, because in so doing in case of a loss thy money shall not have been paid for nought, and if thou lose thy property and not get thy insurance thouwill be poorer than a church rat.

People will care but little for thee.

10. Thou shalt do all thy insurance with Robert Davis, the Conveyancer and Land and Insurance Agent at Flesherton, for-He represents only the best companies, and He guards well his patrons' interests. ROBT. DAVIS.
