Myles' name being dropped, a second ballet was taken, the vote being-Sing 20, McNicol 19. Mr. C. R. Sing was then declared duly elected Warden for 1882. The Warden thanked the Council for the honor conferred upon him, saying he esteemed it a greater honor than to be elected to the House of Commons, as he represented the whole County of 7 , 00 people instead of one Riding. He thanked them for tie honor also on behalf of the township he represented. He did not propose to write an address, as it took up time, and he thought the sooner they got to business the better.

Mr. McNicol tenderel his congratulations to the Warden, and thanked his friends for the large vote given to On motion, a committee of five vas balloted for to strike the standing ministees for 1882, resulting in the Send it to the Standard office. If you desire vicol and Cameron The Council then adjourned till 10 o clock Weanesday Morning
