A desput h from Portland, Mich., says: - On the 14th inst. S. W. Mc-(icrry, of Oxid) came here on information that his daughter, not yet fourteen years old, was to be married to a tather dissolute young man. The bans were published some time ago in the Catholic Church, and the wedding was to have taken place on the 15th. The father found his daughter at the dressmaker's, took her by force and drove with her to Muir. The disappointed groom and friends telegraphed to cortain parties in Muir to stop McGerry, and followed after in hot pursuit. McGerry was met by a mob, who were too many for him : so he telegraphed here for 24 men, and 15 cr 20 have gone to his relief, armed for a fight. At last feport McGer-Ty had his daughter in a hotel at Mnir and was guarding the door with a re-The priest was here this morning to perform the ceremony .-He did not know that the marriages of girls under sixteen years were for bidden, and on being so informed de clared he would not perform the cere money for any consideration. number of prominent men are taking part in the trouble.

eases, which we are giving to advance paying subscribers of the Press as a premium. About the time the adve tisement first appeared ir this paper Mr. P. G. Schermerhorn. who resides near Colliers, had a spavined horse. He read the advertisement and concluded to test the efficacy of the remedy, although his friends laughed at his credulty. He bought a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure and commenced using it on the horse in accordance with the directions, and he informed us this week that it effected such a complete cure that an expert horseman, who examined the animal recently could find no trace of the spavin or the place where it had been located Mr. Schermerhorn has since secured a copy of Kengall's Treatise of the Horse and his Diseases, which he prizes very highly and would be loth to part with at any price. vided he could not obtain another copy. much for advertising reliable articles.
