HOW TO CURE A COLD.

Upon the first feeling of chill or shivering remain indoors if possible, bathe the feet in tepid water, gradually increasing the heat as long as it can be comfortably borne, drink freely of warm ginger or sage tea, to induce perspiration, and take Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam according to directions on the bottle. Hagyard's Balsam cures coughs, asthma, and bronchitis.

The Quarterly Examination of S. S. No 5 Melancthon. Taught by Mr. D. Mcauley, was held on Friday 31st ult considering the bad condition of the roads a very large number was present to witness the days proceedings after several classes had been examined intermission was proclaimed during which the ladies furnished us with an excellent report, business being again resumed some sure competitions for special prizes took place the doners Messrs C. McDonnell, Deputy Reeve Melancthon, G. W. Parsons Dundalk and Jas. Nethercut a resident of the section, another feature worthy of notice was a spelling match between the males and females which resulted in favor of the latter. The pupils showed themselves to be well up in all branches and the facility and accuracy with which the answers were given reflect great credit on them and their teacher. After the examination had been concluded the pupils furnished us with an Entertainment which would [illegible] more [illegible] distribution of [illegible] which the crowd disappeared well eased with the days proceedings.

"DON'T GIVE UP THE SHIP"

Were the memorable word's of Commodore Perry. We repeat, "Don't Give up the Ship," per, despairing invalid, but try Burdock Blood Bitters It cures others, why not you? It renovates, regulates and tones all the organs of secretion, and restore lost Vitality.

A BRAVE GIRL.

Kate Shelley, to whom the Iowa Legislature has just [illegible] gold medal and $200, is only fifteen years old. She lives near Moingona where a railroad crosses a ravine of great height. One night there was a furious storm, and the bridge was carried away. The first time the Shelleys knew of it was when they saw the head light of a locomotive dash down into the chasm. Kate [illegible] to the remnant of the bridge [illegible] great difficulty, using an improvised lantern, and the engineer's voice answered her call, but she could not do anything for him, and he was drowned. Then she remembered that an express train was almost due, and she started for the nearest station, a mile distant. A long, high bridge over the Des Moines river had to be crossed on the ties. Kate's light was blown out, and the wind was so violent that she could not stand, so she crawled across the bridge, on her hands and knees. She got to the station bedraggled and exhausted, but in time to give the warning, though she fainted immediately.

DON'T BE ALARMED.

At Bright's Disease, Diabetes, or disease of the kidneys, liver, urinary organs, as Hop Bitters will certainly and lastingly cure you, and it is the only thing that will.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE.

The most successful Remedy ever discovered, as to certain in its effects and does not blister. READ PROOF BELOW.

FROM THE ONEONTA PRESS, N.Y.

Oneonta, New York, Jan. 6th, 1881.

Early last summer Messrs J. R Kendall & Co., of Enosburgh Falls, Vt., made a contract with the publishers of the Press for a half column advertisement for one year setting forth the merits of Kendall's Spavin Cure. At the same time we secured from the firm a quantity of books, entitled Dr. Kendall's Treatise on the Horse and his Diseases, which we are giving to advance paying subscribers of the Press as a premium.

About the time the advertisement first appeared in this paper Mr. P. G. Schermerhorn, who resides near Coffers, had a spavined horse. He read the advertisement and concluded to test the efficacy of the remedy, although his friends laughed at his credulity. He bought a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure and commenced using it on the horse in accordance with the directions, and he informed us this week that it effected such a complete cure that an expert horseman, who examined the animal recently could find no trace of the spavin or the place where it had been located. Mr. Schermerhorn has since secured a copy of Kendall's Treatise of the Horse and his Diseases, which he prizes very highly and would be loth to part with at any price, provided he could not obtain another copy. So much for advertising reliable articles.

Kendall's Spavin Cure.

New Hamburg, Ont., Dec. 28th, 1881.

Mr. F. H. McCallum, Dear Sir:—The bottle of Dr. Kendall's Spavin Cure bought of you last summer gave me the utmost satisfaction and performed a wonderful cure upon a mare nineteen years old belonging to me, which was badly spavined for ten years. She was so lame that I could hardly get her to move. The lameness is entirely gone after using half a bottle of the cure, and she is like a young horse again.

Yours truly.

J. F. ROTH.

FROM A PROMINENT PHYSICIAN.

Washingtonville, Ohio, June 17th, 1880

Dr. J. B. Kendall & Co., Gents:—Reading your advertisement in Turf, Field and Farm, of Kendall's Spavin Cure, and having a valuable and speedy horse which had been lame from spavin for eighteen months, I sent to you for a bottle by express, which in six weeks removed all lameness and enlargement and a large splint from another horse and both horses are to day as sound as colts. The one bottle was worth to me one hundred dollars.

Respectfully yours,
H. A. BERTOLETT, M. D.

Kendall's Spavin Cure.
ON HUMAN FLESH.

Thousands of trials on human flesh has proved beyond a doubt that "KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE" has sufficient strength to penetrate and virtue to cure the worst cases of rheumatism, corns, bunyons, frost-bites, or any bruise, cut or lameness which are not affected in the least by ordinary liniments. It does not blister but on the contrary removes all soreness.

St. Johns, P.Q., Oct. 27th, 1881.

Dr. B. J. Kendall & Co., Gents:—About a year ago I fell in the road onto some ice and was badly hurt in the hip joint, which caused me much suffering. I tried various remedies but none gave relief, until I tried Kendall's Spavin Cure. I applied it full strength twice a day for two weeks during last October and it effected a perfect cure. I have since then been well and free from lameness. It is very valuable for man as well as beast.

Yours truly,
CHESTER K. GREEN.

Kendall's Spavin Cure.

Is sure in its effects, mild in actions as it does not blister, yet it is penetrating and powerful to reach every deep seated pain or to remove any bony growth or other enlargements, such as spavins, splints, curbs, ring bones, callous, swellings and any lameness and all enlargements of the joints or limbs or for rheumatism in man or for any purpose for which a liniment is used for man or beast It is now known to be the best liniment for man ever used, acting mild and yet certain in its effects.

Send a druggist for illustrated circular which we think gives positive proof of its virtues No remedy has ever met with such unqualified success to our knowledge, for beast as well as man.

Price $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5. All Druggists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietors, DR B J. KENDALL & CO., Enosburgh Falls, Vt.
