ISING Millet Carrot Mangel Corn, &c.

MFE3SIONAL & BUSINESS eneral that we have a full line of tent Medicines, Perfumery let Soaps, Fancy Goods, residence at Chemicals. nd Tobacco.

10HY C. M. MIII, T. A.V.

Frost & Frost.

comes & dorrison.

Miscellaurons.

Mexander Brown.

te. 78. Gainlibarrentin .

J. 48. 91112.

REVERS HOTEL,

510 12 11.

A DATEN

CHASCHICITOR, IS NOW

en all kin is of law

W. Fr ST. II.

and Sa ur lay every

Medical Hall. ated Oil Cake just received

ALK SHOE

CE

into Penndalk.

IVING DAILY

A 116-111. Lip Boots, call and get them. ed, a pecialty. All Custom Work sap for each. Also the DIZIANN the aml power. THOS. HANBURY. 1 3 m

Prices.

SHOES

AVE MONEY! Toronto Fouse."

Vm BROWN

Proprietor

EET,

ae,

Shest Price in Cash!

AINDS OF LUMBER KEPT

one but good timber wanted G. S. BROWN & SON.

description executed with 4 despatch at the Office of

VOL. 2 .-- No. 34.

MARKDALE, ONT., MAY 4, 1882.

Wm. Lucas & Co., BANKERS,

Money Loaned

INTEREST AT 6 PER CENT. Allowed on Savings Deposits.

Drafts issued and Collections made on WM LUCAS. Spieember 23, 1880.

F. F. TEEPLE'S

DUNDALK, ONT. The subscriber is prepared to supply the

WAGGONS, DEMOCRATS, BUGGIES,

CUTTERS. BOB SLEIGHS, F. F. TEEPLE. Dundalk, Sept. 2nd. 1 v.1.

TAILUR, pared to fill all orders on the shortest possible

---LATEST-

Fashion RECEIVED REGULARLY.

Remember the Place NEXT DOOR TO NELSON'S STORE,

MAIN STREET.

DUNDALK Meat Market!

Meat supplied wholesale and Orders called for and meat deliverad to any part of the town. Ship on Main Street.

P. S .- Farm is having lat cattle sheep to dispose of would do well to let me know, as I will pay cash for W. T. RUNDLE

Dundalk, Jan., 1882. NOTICE.

TAKE WARNING.

All persons inde ted to the undersigned either by note or book account are requested to pay the same, on or betwee the 1st day of May, otherwise some will be placed in suit for col-WM. NELSON Glasg w House. Dun alk. April 13th, 1882.

FOR SALE.

One Mare, 5 years old. One Mare. 4 years old. One Horse, 4 years old. One Colt. 3 vears old. Also a quantity of Seel Peas, flail

WM. BROWN. Markdale April 19, '82.

Every Working Day. By Thomas Smith. (1228).

Orde's filled for Tomb Stones. Markdaie, July 21, 1881.

$66 a week in your own town

So outfit free. No risk.

Everything new. Capital

N.B.—All animals charged for and no make great pay. Reader, if you want a business at which you can make great pay all the HALLETT & Ce , Portland, Maine.

Boarders Wanted. THE subscriber having rented the brick I building opposite Doctor Sproule's new G. & B. Railway, $3.25 per cord, measu residence is prepared to take reveral board and paid for at point of delivery. For parers. Good rooms and good meals at reason ticulars and contracts, apply to ers. Good rooms and good meals at reason

J. W. LEAVEN.

GOOD PHOTOS

Suited as they never were Before 13 All poor and cheap work despised

-AND-

Is his motto. All the Popular Styles made by > J. L. BROWNE, Over the Standard Office, Markdale.

ASKIN MARKEDALE.

UNDERTKING ESTABLISHMENT. And therefore has supplied a want long fel especially in the Undertaking Line. COFFINS, and all supplied on the shortes notice.

A Splendid Hearse

for hire at moderate rates. FURNITURE

From the Common to the Best and Latest Styles, in everything in the line.

ROBT. ASKIN. can compete with the bost houses in Mark-

In the Lateat and Best Improved

Painting & Trimming Rigs

will receive prompt attention.

possible time

------GOOD WORK A SPECIALITY. GUARANTEE SATISFACTION

Remember the Shop, opposite the Cheapside | Call and Inspect Four Work ! on hand before purchasing elsewhere.

HORSESHOEI NG and General Jobbing in every line. SHOP-On Mill Street opposite to tant courtesy.

Spronle's Lotel.

There is great danger of taking cold from wet feet. If you Guard Against Sickness

Keep your feet dry and warm BOOTSI

Satisfaction Guaranteed. Me

Bursting forth like beautious way fone' ol by God's almighty fingers, Now ami l angel bands transplanted Blooming in a Heavenly clime.

Though you've felt affliction's rod Weep, oh, weep not as the hopeless For your dear ones are with God. He who "suffered little children". Pressed them kindly to bis breast; Smiles upon your little children, Entered into heavenly rest. Little Lizzie's left your bosoms, Fled a mother's fonde nbrace ; Safe within the arms of Jesus, Lisping God's redeeming grace, Morn, and dreary night and noonday Grief and loneliness oppress, Your fond circle has been broken Naught on earth can e'er redress.

Every hour is quickly morning, Sands of time wil soon be run. Grant that you in Heaven may mee: them When your earthly race is run. Gently flow's lifes ruffled river Wasting all towards the sea; Sometimes bads are nipped in opening Others may maturer be.

Did you pray the Heavenly lather Viewing oft her slumbering lie For a choice, and heavenly blassings? God has hearkened to your cry. Is not this a glorious answer Blessed answer to your thoughts. Freed from all our earthly sorrows Happy, happy is her lot.

You in love, no doubt, were wishing, She would grow to life sublime; Pictured out a happy future, Hoped that fortune's sun would shine, Far too pure, and much too precious God had thought her. e'er he called, To endure the earthly hardship, Of a cold ungenial world.

Now your anxious thoughts will enter, Not on worldly fleeting things. God has drawn your hearts to Heaven, Where the glad hosannah rings, God by this severe bereavement, Testifies his gracious love, Binds your mearts more closely to him,

Through the furnace of affliction, God has called on you to go, "Whom he loveth," "He afflicteth," In this billowy world below God can pour the oil of comfort On the spirit wounded sore God can soothe the weray mourner Fits your souls for heaven above.

Look on him for ever-more.

PART II. CHAPTER VI. Continued.

SOMETHING VERY STRANGE.

cursions grow to be ceaseless bores. Lady Cecil said all this in the slowest, softest, laziest, tone of voice. She morning robe, her bronze hair, loose and dress. The carriages will be here it.' in half an honr. The picnic is inevitable, and you were one of the first to organize it. Well, if I must, I must, I suppose. It is so fine this morning, that I am night, and come nome drenched. Half an hour did you say, Ginerva-I shall be ready.

Frankland's arrival, and a very ani- word, and I'll join you. mated week it had been. Lady Danesting spot for miles around.

What did Sir Arthur think of Lady

Would he propose, or would he, alone. She was pretty, and fresh and been shot. bright, and knew it free from vanity; Lady Cecel, he cried, it's going t she was consions of her own great rain.' Patter! one great drop, the queer world. beauty, as she was proud of her old size of a pea, fell splash on Lady Cename, but personal conceit she felt cil's startled upturned face. not Reassured by Sir Arthur's manner, she let herself grow friendly, and Lady Cecil's pink parasol. Oh, such for the shelter your roof has afford and Blood Mixture, as each package of blood, he reeled from the saddle, Arthur-a fair field and no favor !

Sir Arthur smiled.

name was O'Donnell.

looked at her but she was gazing at the summer sky. 'And he knew you,' he said. 'Yes,' Lady Cecil's tones ha changed a little ; but she turned now and the brown eyes met the gray ones quite calm!y. 'Yes, I did once know a Redmond O'Donnell-six years ago, I think-in Ireland. He mentioned knowing me, did he?' 'By the merest chance, in one day came across very handsome conv "Marmion," with your name on the fly-leaf. You had lent it to him it appeared and it never had been returned.' save people's lives,' said Cecil, laugh- says, as well as she can for her throb in England?' his once princely house." Lady Cecil said nothing, but that her hand with a kindly cordiality she had never shown before 'He grows on one,' she said, to her cousin. 'I begin to like him.' Ginevra shrugged her shoulder. 'So much the better, dear, for all concerned. Thirty thousand a year is a powerful inducement, I must confess; though he doson't grow on me. He's a prig-who glowers one out of countenance with his great eyes, and who can neither dance nor play croquet. I hate clumsy men. The sole mn, owl eyes Lady Dangerfield spoke of irritated her beyond measure by the way in which they watched her animated flirtation with Major Frankland. A flirting married woman was an anomaly he could in no wise understand.

He and Lady Cecil had grown friends. They were a great deal together, and the noble brow of my Earl of Ruysland began to clear. Cecil knew what she was about, of open, and they stood face to face with course; she wasn't going to fall at his a tall, gaunt, grim old woman. feet the instant he arrived; if he her chaiming face to plead his cause, permit this lady to enter?' his charming fortune to plead his. there could be no doubt as to the is-

Sir Arthur, Lady Cecil, the earl, and a young lady in apple-green muslin went together in the barcuche. And your pic-nic is inevitable, I Lady Dangerfield drove Major Franked with the boiling seaside sun, and back; the only married lady of the eyes. call rleasure. You mean well Gine- party being the baronet's wite, who vra, but your ceaseless pleasure ex- played cicerone ! Sir Peter did not go. It was an intensely hot day. Not a breath of air stirred. 'I knew we would grill to death - silence fell. mortals ! get up instantly and be off and we may survive this, but I doubt

'Don't be so plaintive, Queenie, her father interposed; 'you'll survive? It's warm,' Sir Arthur remarked, looking at the fair hily face beside him; dy. he do scream unearthly. That certain we will have a storm before and there's not a tree, not a shrub was him. even, to ward it off. Suppose we go in search of verdure shade. 'Yes; go by all mean, Queenie, A week had passed since the after- murmured the earl; and when you noon of Sir Arthur's and Major have found that oasis send me back ven has a most lugubrious voice. owed up in charges upon them.

Sir Arthur proffered his arm-Lady gerfield never grew weary in well-doing | Cecil took it. Ginevra and the major There had been long excursions to with the rector's daughter had put off ruins, visits to gipsy encampment, to sea m a little boat; Squire Tal awn billiards, boating parties, croquet | bot was making himself agréeable to and drives and gallops to every inter- the young lady in apple green muslin;

the rest had paired off. It was not unpleasant being alone Cecil, the greatest flirt of the season. with Sir Arthur. In company, as a No one could have told; not the rule he had nothing whatever to help me redd up. Ye will have young lady, certainly, his manner to say; But alone with an appreciawas calm, friendly, and genial, but tive listener, he could talk well-on dow as ye came in? far removed from her experience of all subjects. He spoke of things high We did catch a climpse of a face Faucies. When you lose a needle on ove-making. Not her father, watch- above the reach of most of men she for a second at one of the upper win the floor, the quickest way to find it ing him, furtively, impatiently; he had met, and Lady Cecil being a young dows. I suppose you are rarely in is to get the nusband or the hired girl bore himself towards her with the dis | lady of very fair intellect, appreciated | truded upon here as we intrude upon |

They had gone on now for nearly a after another week or so, say, 'Good- mile. He was telling her of a frightbye, Lady Cecil, in the same cool. ful gorilla hunt he had once had in looked dreamily before her-I mind Mary-Who had that little lamb grave, unsmiling way in which he Africa, and just at the moment when just once afore a young couple got Had Teeth as white as snow : now said good morning and good the climax was reached, when the ketched in the rain just as ye did, and She always brashed them twice a day gorilla came in sight, and Lady Ce- came here for shelter. That was six Cecil liked it, and liked him all the cil's eyes and lips were apart, and years ago-and there's been many better for letting her so tranquilly breathless, he stopped as if he had

see a tal chimirey, and where tuere,

Ly as make f it. Lady Ceci we Certainly I can run, answered La the drops are coming. Now, theu, Sir And then, with a clear, merry laugh !

season gathered up her flowing, flunsy saved you?' Lady Cecil breathlessly skirts, bowing her bright head, sped away like a deer before the sterm. Sir nuisance 72 years, Arthur ran, too; one may be ever so dignified and yet scamper for their The gallant Englishman was an lives before a thunder storm. Inshman. A very tiger to fight. His Lady Cecil laughed, and Sir Arthur laughed' and faster, faster, faster fell As he pronounced the name he the draps' and 20 years of ordinary acquaintance could not Lave brought them so near tog ther as at that hour. On and ou' faster and yet faster, the rain pursuing them like an avenging fury, a great peal of thunder, booming above their heads. Blacker and bigger that great cloud grows; patter, patter, falls the rain; it will be down in torrents directly. The tell chimney is reached, and it proves to be a dral, Eng., is too large to go by rail, house! Sir Arthur flings wide the gate, and they skurry into the garden, thickly sheltered by fir trees, and panse at last, wet, panting breathless ly. laughing, and looking into each other's flashed faces. "I knew I could beat you, Sir Thos Cochrane was foried in an at-'Captain O'Donnell seems fated to Arthur, is the first thing Lady Cecil tempt to clope with a maid, but with a ing: 'he saved mine from drowning. bing heart beats. 'Oh, what a race Did he tell you? No? That is like And my poor parasol, and my lovely his reticence. Are you aware he is hat-spoiled! I can't see anything to laugh at, Sir Arthur-it was a beauty 'No : I am net surprised though though you mayn't have had sout A fine fellow-a worthy descendant of enough to appreciate it. And my a Court of Revision, on the drainage slippers-see!

It was a most dismal and greusome night at parting she gave Sir Arthur | place, 'Good gracious ! said Ludy Cecil what a flash; and oh - Hravens! Sir Arthur, did you see that?"

He followed her eye-to the front windows of the house-just in time to catch a glimpse of a woman's face as she pulled some one hastily away from the panes.

'Do you know her?' he repeated. 'It-it is-it is-Miss Herncastie?

she shuddered and drew closer to 'Suppose we go up to the house and investigate. house. Crash went Sir Artuur's thun- great jubilation, but in Ontario it is der on the panels. The door vielded to that tremendous knock and flew

'I beg your pardon, ma'am,' the were a true knight he would be willing | baronet said; 'I didn'; mean to force to woo and win so fair a lady. With an entrance in this way, Will you

'As you've bust the door open already, I suppose you may, retorted the

She pointed to a couple of wooden cal rs, then went out of the room, and upstairs. And then there came from down those stairs a long, low, wailing suppose, Lady Dangerfield; and one land in her pony phæton. The rest cry, so wild, so unearthly, that Lady must go and grill alive, and yawn all of the young ladies followed in a bar- Cecil, caught hold of the baronet's is truffles a Perigord, and his aim in

'Did you hear that!' she gasped. Yes, Sir Arthur had heard it. He was lying on a sofa, in a loose, white Lady Cecil remarked; but where is Let us leave this horrid house and the use of warning Ginevra when she and that harsh looking old woman, During service at an English church is bent upon anything? The three exclaimed Lady Cecil. 'I believe the in England-not Canada, we know You laziest, you most indolent of children survived the Fiery Furnace, place is uncanny. I prefer the rain. better here—the organist, in view of ' I must insist upon your remaining 10 minutes longer, when the storm > cry-like someone in great pain.' hope my raven didn't frighten the la- the loyal musician.

was too much for their credulity. Sir Arthur smiled. 'It did startle us a little. Your ra-

What place is this?' ' Bracken Hollow.' Lady Cecil started. ' Aye your ladyship, a main lonesom

Do you live in this lonely place by young woman from the town comes you that now.

seen her, mayhap, at the upper win-you just now?' 'Ay, rarely, rarely. I mind once.' -she rocked herself to and fro and sad and heavy changes since then. The following is the common sense He was rare an' handsome that day, treatment for a horse out of condition

I think we may venture forth now. strong tonic powder. These are both

'A fine gentleman and free with his with their gay rosettes, delightful for face, and it's a proud face, but there's

Some spineded Grans for sale sheep at W. ru tranteed at W. F. Doil's visible in North Africa"

A big stir is going on in Durham

The T. G. & B. are building a new bridge near foronto.

The new bell for St. Paul's cathea special carriage takes it by road.

ADVERTISING IS to business what food is to existence. It should be regular, adequate and varied.

nealy-married woman he was success-The Proton council will meet

A young man named Alez. Barry of Renfrew, accidentally shot himself entering the lung. No hope is enter-

'That woman ! do you know her ?' responsibility is the psychological possibility of the efficiences sers of the pe But Lady Cecil stood like one struck nal code. ' We should think so. What's your opinion?

mouthing face she drew away. Ugu! G.W. The line is clear now, said he, and we intend to keep it so. The English shareholders in the G. W. are unaurmous in favour of fusion > looked upon as a huge monopoly. Mr Whyte, Ass. Superimendent of An American inventor proposes to utilise the water power at Niagare Falls for generating electricity for lighting cities 400 or 500 miles an album, says his tavourite name for a woman is Louise, his favourite diskday, and get one's complexion destroy- ounche, with two cavaliers on horse- arm and looked at him with terrified life not to do anything to Lurt the feelings of another.

The Princess of Wales' favourite held her nand and listened a heavy name is Dagmar, her favourite dish is the recent attempt on the Queen's will have ceased. That was a strange life commenced to play the national anthem. The yicar stopped him, and The old woman re entering, sail, 'I before all the congregation dismissed

A Markdale boy came home from

The following is suggested as an improvement upon one of last week's to take off shoes and walk about. It

TIMELY WARNING Now is the season for sudden colds haughty eyes always sheds most tears, with Hagyard's Pectoral Balsum, it nary complaints leading to consum

All's the world a stage. And all the mer and women merely players.

Fotal sclipse of the sun, May 17 .-

Eggs are 50 cents a loz. at Portage the haughty, handsome belle of the la Prairie.

And over the township printing.

Mr. Lindsay, Sleswick, possesses a cow that recentiv gave birth to twin The Reeve of Osprey is being overhauled by the Flesherton Alvance.

ful the next day. again on Thursday 11th May next, as assessment of draining : section No. 2.

in the back with a r v lva , the ball cained of his recovery. A contemporary says that "criminal

Mr. Hondrie, President T. G. & B. 'It is Giuevra's governess. . And says this line is not in any way mixed that other tace—that awful, gibbering up with the fusion of the G.T and the

They fled through the rain to the with G. T. R. In Montreal there is

G. T. says, It is quite likely the G.T. will secure the T.G. & B.

The Prince of Wales, in writing in door slammed shove, then perfect Yorkshire pudding, and her aim in life to ming her own business.

Men who recently went from King-She glanced at them to see if this ston to work on the Ouderdonk contract complain that they are deceived, that the wages, though high, are swalschool very much excited and told his father that he believed all human beings descended from aprs, which made the old man so mad that he replied Not quite, your ladyship; alone augriy: "That may be the case with most of the time, but odd days a you, but it ain't with me. I can tell > will sharpen them up, With "TEABERRY" You know.

and she-oh, it's a queer world-a (in fact all horses require like treatment this time of year) a good Purg-Lady Cecil, the rain has ceased - ing Ball following by a course of Good-day to you, madame, and thanks to be had in Zock's Tonic Compound contains a throughly good purging He laid a soverign in her skinny ball and over a pound of strong Tonic Powder. Ask your druggist about it. A. Turner and Co. Special Agent arkdale. March 9th.

To come AT ONCE and give him a trial, for

MODERATE PRICES,

line opened out & First-Class

CASKETS, SHROUDS,

Alwak manufactured from

Style, and fir ished with English Varnish.

All Repairs executed in the shortest consistent with good workmanship.

D. J. SHANAHAN, Proprietor. Markdale, Dec. 2nd, 1881.

TO FARMERS & BREEDERS

Having purchased the Short Horn Yearling Bull, PRINCE ROYAL, No. 225. Vol. 7, Canada Short Horn Stock Register, got by KELSO, (664, Vol 6)
Denn EYELA by BRITISH PRINCE

St. Imitation gold $6. Solid gold $12. Changest and best for your own one or speculative purposes. Valur to call the prince of the property of the purpose of the property (2799) grand tam LADY CHAR-LOTTE, by GLADSTONE (1481) taken at $4.50 each for season at his stables Lot 118, north east Toronto Road, Artemesia.

gr. g. dam Mar a by Duke of Arkell

A limited number of Cows will be

D. L. VAN VLOCK, P. O. Address, 215 Jarvis st, Toronto.

Neuralgia, Sciatica, Lumbago,

Backache, Sereness of the Chest Gout, Quinsy, Sore Throat, Swellings and Sprains, Burns and Scalds, General Bodily Tooth, Ear and Headache, Frostee Feet and Ears, and all other

No Preparation on earth equals Sr. Jacobs One as a safe, sure, simple and cheap External Remedy A trial entails but the comparatively triffing outlay of 50 Cents, and every one suffering with pain can have cheap and positive proof of its Directions in Eleven Languages. SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS AND DEALERS IN MEDICINE. A. VOGELER & CO.,

Baltimore, Md., U. B. A.

Pains and Aches.

BENSON las on hand and for sale a first-class arti

FRESH

CONSISTING OF Teas Coffees.

Sugars, Raisins,

Currants, &c.,

variety and best brands.

PRICES

I can supply a quality that will defy competition in Markdale.

Give me a Call. WILSON BENSON Markdale. I'cc. 1st, 1881.

McKENNA & MASON

MARKDALE. As the season of the year is approaching

Block Bobs, Democrats, Square Box, Portland, Swell Body.

Long Sleighs.

Knee-Bobs,

and Double-seated Cutter OF ALL KINDS AND STYLES. As we use nothing but first-class material

CAPEFUL ATTENTION GIVEN TO

en hand. Remember the place