Visconent in sertion..... you six to ten lines, first insertion .. Fach subsequent insertion ..... lines, first insertion per line Mil.et. The aumber of lines to be reckoned by the Carrot. Mangel carge accordingly All transitory advertisegents must be in the office of publication by velock on the Thursday morning preceed Wurzel C. W. RUTLEDGE, Proprietor.

PROFESSIONAL & BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

Drs. Sproule & Armstrong, Physicians, Surgeon-, Accoucheur Malleal Hall: residence at

Legal. JOHN B. MCHILLAN, TTORNEY AND SOLICITOR, IS NOW res iv for attending to all kinds of law Office at Kav's Hotel.

Frost & Frost. THE AND ATTORNEYS-AT w Sol citors in Chancery, Convey Own Sound, have reanmed at Pleaberton. Office open every Thursday, as

J. W. FROST, LL. B. WAGGONS, J. "ASSON. DARRISTOR, MASTER AND DEP. REG Sig Chang Se Notary Public, Conveyan VINEY TO LEND AT SIX PER CENT Offices Owen Sound, in Vicker's Block d's Store, on Friday and Saturday every

Creasor& Morrison. PARISISTERS, SOLICITORS, CONVEY Organis in Owen Sound, Dufferin Block, wer W. F. Welfe's Store and in MARKDALE. et W. J. McFarland's Store on Thursday Meat supplied wholesale and

Funds to lend on reasonable terms. John CRE SOR. Q. C. - DUNCAN MO TISON Mark Jale, March 15, 1882. Miscellancoas.

Wim. Brown, farkdale and vicinity, for the TARGER OF MARRIAGE LICENSES, &c Commissioner in B. R. &c. saveyancing in all its branches promptly sended to and carefully executed. N. B. - Money to Lend on Real Estate se-> Mexander Brown. SSUED of Marriage Licenses, Fire and Land Sales, Punctually atand charges made very moderate.

E. M. Galbraith . TOTIONEUR AND GENERAL LAND at Williamsford Station. Auction emmi-son. Rates moderate and Sewing Machines; also of Ore. we utal Trees, Vines. Agriculat laple ments, and Machinery of all kinds Williamsford, Jan. 27. 1881.

J. G. Sing. FAMILIAND AND PROVINCIAL LAND Danveyor, Draughtsman and Valuator. eductional Markdale. Having purchased some al Land Surveyor Charles Rankin's are stock of original Field Notes, Plans. orts, Instructions, &c., of all his Surveys ters by latter, or left with G. J. BLYTH. walks with promptly attended to. T. . DAVIS, DULDER & CONTRACTOR, (Stone and s eason is still on the track and is still stared to de all Linds of stone and brick

Sessience corner of Brown and Sproule | Village Lots

fotels. REVERE HOTEL, MARKEDALE.

> MHS popular Aletel has had a large adtion ables to it, tooroughly refitted Term. $1.00 per day. EEING IS BELIEVING.

SPROULE, - Proprietor.

GENTLEMEN .-If you want a first-clas-Buggie or Wagon

MCKENNA & MASON'S MARKDALE.

ley can supply you with anything from a Lumber Wagon Extension Top Phæton. To buy from them is to SAVE MONEY! they are both practical workmen, and employ none but ACTICAL WORKMEN They guarantee their work and to none for Lightness of Draught and Superiority of Finish.

nothing but First-class White Oak Wagons, and thrice Extra Second Growth Hickory for light work, deimmenseamount of work turned McKenna & Mason's shop is sufficient fold of the wide reputation they enjoy for doing good work. BEST IS THE CHEAPEST IN THE END

Your cheap work we positively will attention given to Re-Trimming epainting all classes of Carriage Work.

$66 s week in your own town. Action guaranteed (or No Pay) in *ORSESHOEING Cordially invites all those who are lovers of

to do so is to be

J. L. BROWNE,

66666

ASKIN

SHROUDS,

Over the Standard Office, Markdale.

MARKDALE,

Has opened out a First-Class

Furniture

UNDERTKING ESTABLISHMENT

And therefore has supplied a want long felt especially in the Undertaking Line.

and all

for hire at moderate rates.

From the Common to the

CASKETS,

MARKDALE, ONT.,

WHOLE No. 90

Wm. Lucas & Co., BANKERS,

VOL.2 .-- No. 38.

Money Loaned N large or small amounts, at all times, on NTEREST AT 6 PER CENT. Allowed on Sayings Deposits.

Drafts issued and Collections made on all points, at lowest rates. WM. LUCAS.

To come AT ONCE and give him a trial, for All poor and cheap work despised by F. F. TEEPLE'S

MODERATE PRICES, Is his motto.

DUNDALK, ONT. All the Popular Styles made by The subscriber is prepared to supply the public with

DEMOCRATS,

BUGGIES, SLEIGHS, CUTTERS, BOB-SLEIGHS Together with all kinds of repairs in wood iron on short notice, at reasonable rates. F. F. TEEPLE. Dundalk, Sept. 2nd. 1881.

DUNDALK Market

retail, _____ Orders called for and meat deliver ed to any part of the town.

Shop on Main Street. P. S .- Farmers having fat cattle or sheep to dispose of would do well to let me know, as I will pay cash for COFFINS,

W. T. RUNDLE,

Dundalk, Jan., 1882. Every Working Day, supplied on the shortes notice. A Splendid Hearse FURNITURE

By Thomas Smith, Orde's filled for Tomb Stones. Markdale, July 21, 1881.

Boarders Wanted. THE subscriber having rented the brick building opposite Doctor Sproule's new

LICENSED AUCTIONEER

For the County of Grey.

A number of Choice Farms for sale. also

Markdale P.O.

Notice.

I hereby fordid all parties trusting or harbouring my wife. FLORA BAXTER, as she cause, and I will not be responsible for any

T. B. Gilliland,

PROV'NC'L LAND SURVEY'R,

J EUGENIA P.O.

A PUBLIC MEETING should town and village in the Dominion, consider what should be done

prevent the hair from turning Gray recommend Cingalese Hair Renewer bottle. For sale by all Druggists.

called of the citizens of every

WILLIAM II, BAXTER.

debts contracted by her.

Glenelg, May 6, 1882.

Bost and Latest Styles, in everything in the line. residence is prepared to take reveral board Call and sen for yourselves. ers. Good toems and good meals at reason

ROBT. ASKIN. J. W. LEAVEN. Markdale. March 9th. GEORGE NOBLE, VSURANCE AND LAND AGENT Union Carriage Works

AGENT for the following reliable Companies : CITIZENS', of Montreal, AGRICULTURAL, of Watertown, and TRADE & COMMERCE, (Mutual) of Toronto.

Auction Sales conducted in Town or Counry on Shortest Notice. Charges moderate. Bills, Blank Notes, and Stamps provided. GEO. NOBLE. In the Lateat and Best Improved MARKDALE, May 20th, 1881. Style, and firished with English Varnish. Wateres, Stem winders $3.50. White metal Hunting Case $3. Imitation gold $6. Solid gold $12 Cheapest and heat for your own use or speculative purposes. Valueble case and respective. THOMPSON & CR. 32 Seesand. New York

Joseph Gibson, Painting & Trimming Rigs PLAIN & ORNAWENTAL will receive prompt attention. PIANTER BR. WEITEWASHING-CALSOMINING in Shades and Colors.

All Repairs executed in the shortest Vil work guaranteed. Charges moderate. possible time consistent with good workmanship.

Markdale, Dec. 2nd, 1881.

GOOD WORK A SPECIALITY. Remember the Shop, opposite the Cheapside D. J. SHANAHAN, Proprietor

WANTED 5,000 CORUS HEMLOCK BARK. THE Undersigned will pay for all such Bark, delivered and piled on line of T., Orders left at the Standard Office, G. & B. Railway, $3.25 per cord, measured Markdale will receive prompt attention. and paid for at point of delivery. For par-86 100. | ticulars and contracts, apply to D. L. VAN VLOCK, P. O. Address, 215 Jarvis st. Toronto. March 23, 1882

QUEEN ST, MARKDALE, -and falling out. If this important | Wishes to thank the Ladies of Markdale and question received their earnest con- vicinity for the Patronage of the past year, sideration they would unanimously and begs to announce to them her intention decide that science had at last disdecide that science had at last dis- BRAIDING, and EMBROIDERY, Making all covered something that would answer kinds of UNDERCLOTHES, CHILDREN'S this purpose—and furthermore would CLOTHEN, &c. Ladies wishing Hair-work done wil as being this something for restoring do well to bring it in before the 24th

the hair to its natural color, and pre- June, as I cannot execute orders for it vent its falling out. 50 cents per after that dates BRAIDING PATTERNS for sale che > kept constantly on hand, and of the freshest variety and best brands.

DECEMBE

GOOD PHOTOS Teas Coffees. Sugars, Raisins, Currants, &c.,

LIQUORS can supply a quality that will defy comp

tition in Markdale

IN PRICES

Give me a Call.

WILSON BENSON. Markdale, Icc. 1st, 1881.

Wholesale and Retail

DEEF, PORK OR MUTTON SUPPLIED. from a single pound to a whole careass, at the lowest market prices. FISH & FOWL IN THEIR SEASON

Farmers having Fat Cattie, Sheep, or

Pigs to dispose of will do well to call at No 3 Burns' Block, opposite the new Union

Markdale, Oct. 25th, 1881 FURNISHINGS, EUCENIA Grist, Saw and Lath Mills And severing life's most sacred social tie.

Thy cherished ideal to the heart most dear.

Having made equensive improvements in | Full many a heart among thy social peers, my Grist Mill I feel confident I can give In deepest sympathy thy sorrow share; good satisfaction.

GOOD FLOUR ALWAYS ON HAND. Chopping one Every Day.

Custom Sawing and Bills Filled on th LUMBER AND LATH ALWAYS ON HAND.

Cherry, Butternut, White Ash, Black Ash, Basswood, Pine and Hemlock Logs wanted. Which casts its shadow o'er thy social sphere; M. AKITT, Eugenia. A GENT'S WANTED. -Big pay.-Light Work. Steady Employment.

Samples free. Address, M. L. BYRN, 46 Naussau stree New York. WARNING!

There is great danger of taking cold from wet feet. If you

All work manufactured from Guard Against Sickness! FIRST CLASS MATERIAL

Keep your feet dry and warm by procuring your BOOTS

KAY & THOMAS.

Satisfaction Guaranteed. Medicated Cork Soles, all sizes, kept en hand. Remember the place opposite the new STAYDARD

THOS. MATHEWS. Let those who doubt the existence of a God, Ascribe thy life to chance or changeless fate

MARKDALE. EVERYTHING IN OUR LINE KEPT ON HAND OR MADE TO ORDER ON SHORT

NOTICE. IN CONNECTION.

MARKDALE A constant supply of Lowest Living Prices. Orders solicited, and deliv- long may thy hand the British sceptre bear;

TERMS, STRICTLY CASH

ered free to all parts of the Long o'er the realm may peace her pini neath the magic of thy gentle care. Farmers having fat stock dispose of, will please leave And when at last thy work on earth is don And other hands assume the rems below

FRED. SARIEAN I. And glory diadem adorn thy brow.

On very small things hinge very lady Cecil Clive. stables next morning to saddle his sense, Cecil, hold your tongue! favorite mare, Kathleen, he found out of this howling wilderness of rear-

Bacape was impossible; they were and advanced with extended hand and his sweetest smile. 'Ah, Mr. O'Donnell, you fled in gloriously before ms yesterday—not like an O'Donnell, by-the-bye, to fly even from gratitude. No-don't look so alarmed-nobody is going to thank you. You saved my daughter's life at the imminent risk of your own--a trifle, not worth mentioning. Cecil, my dear, come and shake hands with your hero of yesterday-ah, I beg

IVI and a thorough-bred, both for service | pardon! I promised to call no names. Mr. Redmond O'Donnell, Lady Cecil at his farm. 4-mile North-west of Markdale. Terms: for Grade 50c., for thorough-bred | Clive. 'liquid light' looked up into his, a little gray gloyed hand was given, a lit-den, perhaps; but then this young man was an Irishman.

Whose virtuous life adorns the British throne, Whilerent by griesthy tender heart hath been, Think not, thou hast been left to weep alone. We were an improvident race, perhaps, but when they took our lands

When death with all resistless power came and our country from us, we let the Thy cherished idol to thy heart most dear, Transplanted to a fairer clime on high.

While we in hambler wal is have brought our And pled thy cause before the Lord in prayer

And of life's bitter cu has drank a part; Hath felt the anguish of thy falling tears, And shared the sadness of thy widow That one great sorrow of thy peaceful reign

Full many a soul who kin Ired sorrow bears,

Neuralgia, Sciatica, Lumbago

Backashe, Soreness of the Chest,

Cout, Quinsy, Sore Throat, Swell-ings and Sprains, Burns and

Sealds, General Bodily

Tooth, Ear and Hoadache, Frosted

Feet and Ears, and all other

Pains and Aches.

No Preparation on earth equals St. Jacobs Oct. as a says, sure, simple and cheap External Remedy A trial entails but the comparatively trifling outlay of 50 Cents, and every one suffering with pain can have cheap and positive proof of its

SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS AND DEALERS

IN MEDICINE.

A. VOGELER & CO.,

Bull Notice.

R. B. COLEMAN has two Bulls, a grade

The Poet's Corner

OUR QUEEN.

Ode to Her Majesty.

BY W. M. CLARK.

vered Victoria. Most beloved Queen

Directions in Eleven Languages.

$1 00, cash in both cases.

With all the ills that follow in its train, But prove there's no abiding city here. She was sixteen, he had saved her life, When first the tidings of thy lofty call, At early dawning reach'd thy youthful ear;

First regal act before his throne to fall, And offer up thy charge to God in prayer. When in the twilight of the morning shade, That fervent consecrative prayer arose;

Then Britain's corner stone was firmly laid Secure beyond the reach of envious foes. And while o'er Europe revolution sweeps, And monarchs from their lofty seats descend;

Thy throne's foundation still secure He And wider still thy empire's bounds extend. Until thy reign in humble trust begun,

So round the world asserts its gentle sway; That o'er thy widening realm the rolling sun His beams diffuse throughout revolving day. Obedient millions weit for thy command,

Old ocean's isles in thee their sovereign While haughty India bows to k'ss thy hand, And lays her sceptre at thy royal feet.

When power satanic nerves the mu-derous And base attempt upon thy life is made; Around thy path any guardian angels stand. And spread their pinions o'er thy sacre

Ascribe thy life to chance or changeless fate; Our God, who parts the sea by Moses' rod. Our God, who did the universe create. Whose watchful eye observes the sparrov

Whose hand lirects the rolling orbs of ligh By Whom thy very hairs are numbered all, Diverts the deadly bullet in its flight. Thou art immortal till thy work is done, Thou hast from Him a mission to fulfil;

Still guards thy sacred life from every ill. By native virtues meekly brought in play; Thy noble life on memory's mount hath

A monument that will not soon decay. That name rever'd before the world sha The tender mother, gentle, loving wife; Not only Queen, but woman true and grav New lustre sheding on our social life.

Long may the crown of Britain grace thy my; 'suppose we do? It's a very over the princ, wie eyes on that fairpictty place, I'm sure, and if we are est face. his are urinking in the p or it surely will not take much to dearest mel ay, sileut, happy. They keep us here. While I have you and rarely found much to say to one an-Therese and my books and piano, I other when papa was present; they am content to stay here for ever.'

Content to stay here! Yes, and live the business now. There was munic, A horse minus a shee changed the on potatoes like the natives, and con- and silence, and bliss; and at ten whole course of Redmond O'Donnell's vert the skins into clothing, to go o'clock it was all over, and time for life. He neither went to the moun- barefooted and wear striped linsey him to go. tains nor the moon, Le staye lat home, knee, talk with a melifluous north of hand shyly and wis fall, at parting. and saw the Earl of Ruysland and the Ireland accout, and end by marrying and went up to her rotal. The earl It happened thus: Going to the fellow Mickey. If you can't talk 'l'o-morrow,' he same with a smile.

before him; and by birth and training, the child blushing at? In a year or fear, of longing. He did not despair by race and nature, the lad was a gen- two you'll be old enough, and Tregen- -he was young and sanguine, and tleman. He took off his cap, and the course you know it has been an under- she loved him; has not looks, smiles, young mountaineer bowed to the ear.'s stood thing these many years that and blushes, a thousand and one daughter like a prince. Lord Ruys- you were to marry him when you things pen and ink never can tell, asgrew up. He is perfectly ready to sured him of it?

I will try and compromise with my taken up, pictures token down, tack-

And then two large soft eyes of when it is over we will marry you tle, soft, low voice murmured something-and his doom was sealed. Sud-

He flung open the hingeless, wholly lockiess door, and led the way, with some half-smiling apology for the tumbled-down state of O'Donnell's 'Ah, O Donnell-how di? Come dear boy, Eincorely vors, 'Don't blame us, Lord Ruysland,' in. Bea expecting you. Very busy, the young man said, 'but blame your you see-must excuse me. Cecil will own countrymen and confiscation. entertain you - give him some music, my dear.' And then my lord went little they left go to rack and rain. When a man loses a hundred thouhow bright the smile of girlish pleasand pounds or so, it doesn't seem sure with which welcomed him. seein worth his while to hoard very he like music ?- was he fond carefully the dosen or so of shillings Moore's melodies?' Would she please remaining. Lady Cecil, will you take go on with that she was singing ?' It this seat? We cau give you a fine was. 'She is far from the land where view, at least, from our windows, if her young hero sleeps,' and the tender we can give you nothing else.' They remained nearly an hour. sweetness of the beautiful song.

The young seigneur of this ruined castle conducted them to the gatesand stood, cap in hand, watching them depart. And so, with the sunshine on his handsome, tanned face, on his uncovered, tall heal, Lady Cecil bore away the image of Redmond O'Don-You know this story before I tell it.

ri king his own, and like a true woman, she adored bravery almost above all other things in man. She pitied him unspeakably, so proud, so poor, so noble of birth and ancestry, a descendant of kings, and a pauper. He had an eye like an eagle, a tender voice, and a smile bright as the sunshine. It was love at first sight; and the Earl might have known it very well if he had given the subject one thought. But he did not. He was too absorbed in his own concerns have much solicitude about his daughter's affaires du cœur. Lady Cecil had pitied Redmond O'Donnell for being a pauper, without in the least reaming she was one herself. Through no fancy of the country through no desire to ameliorate the condition of the inhabitants, had my lord come to Ireland. Grim poverty had driven him hither, and was likely to keep him here for some time to

His life had been one long round of extravagance. Now he was over head and ears in debt. Clive Court was mortgeged past all redemption and he fled to Ireland. There was that little hunting-box of his among the Ulster hills-Torryglen; he could have that made habitable, and go there, and rough it until the storm Papa, said Cecil, you have a great deai of influence, and many friends in England-could you do nothing for this Mr. O'Donnell! He seems so dreadfully poor, papa.' The earl shrugged his shoulders and laughed A cornish baronet Sir Arthur Tregen-'My little, unsophisticated Ce.il! great deal of influence and many na? friends! My dear, I have not influence enough to keep myself out of ma .. I am proud of you! Have you the Bankrupt Court, nor friends en- | -has she-I mean do you think your | dogs in brankdale would be ample for ough to enable me to stay in England. affection is returned? Oh! Don't the security of the village; neither Do you think I would come to this blush and look modest-it isn't the fot-passengers nor equistrians are. confounded, half civilized land, if I most unlikely thing on earth. Do ree from the molest of the snappish could stay away? Poor, indeed! you think Cedi returns your verv-Thy name to each true British heart Your Mr. O'Donnell isn't half as poor ah! 'pon my life-ardent devotion?' dale. as I am, for at least I suppose he isn't very deeply in debt." His daughter looked at him in sheer surprise. 'And you are poor, papa ?. supplemented and very strongly too. a strict enforcement of the laws relatcomprehend it, shook her head, and for the adm rable and honourable fluidson steamers. gave it up. 'I always thought you manner in which you have seted, and were rich, papa-L always thought you shall have your reward. Cecil English peers had more money than shall wait for you if she wishes they knew what to do with. How No. don't thank me yet; hear me out. can we be poor -with servapts, and some way with my confounded creditors and the Jews. Poor, indeed By Jove ! we may live and die in this in the day. Not a word, however, Irish exite, for what I see, the earl to Lady Cecil. said with a sort of groan.

'Vary well, papa,' she said, dream- the songs be lived best. He lequed lad got past the talking stage, and Good Heavens! listen to her! one word and two or three looks did woolsey gowns reaching below the The last night! She gave him her Lancy Laffe: ty. I suppose, or the other gave min a friendly cl sp. 'until to morrow, Redmond, my lad,

'No, no,' the earl said. 'We'll get good night and an re rour.' The November wind was howling her in need of the blacksmith's ser- ing rivers, and wild young chieftains wildly the ugh the moonlight-fleoded vices. Lanty led her off, and return- and tumble down castles as speedily earth and sky. He did not see this ing to the house, the young O'Donnell as we can. I have one hope left, and cold splendonr : he saw nothing,

Redm and went over to the piano

thus commenced her earl love of away.

'You will go out to India, I sup-

'India?' he sail; 'no. No O'Donflag -I will not be the first. Years ago, Lady Cecil -two hundred and left us homeless and outlaws. The

oat. that none of his race should ever fight for the British invaders, and none of them ever have. I shall seek service under a foreign flag-it doesn't matter which, so that it is not that of christian and unforgiving, but in her heart of hearts the liked it ali. and wished, with Desdemona, that Heaven

His impecunious state filled his mind to the exclusion of everything else, and then Cecil had been so well brought up, etc. The child must walk and ride, and must have a com-gar-literally a beggar-and of course

might as well fix his foolish affections on one of Her Majesty's daughters as to the true state of affairs by O'Don-

The Earl was suddenly awakened

The Earl kept a grave face, and

'My lad, said he, you are a gentle-

'He did not like to say-but he hop-

'Oh, of course you do,' the earl been silent so long, be silent yet a dd-I'd try it. I tell you I bid I should force her affection asked if Cecil had not already tol1 him she was engaged-engaged to upon that of the Earl of Ruysland.

panion. Young O'Donnell was a beg-

Lord Ruysland saw nothing-was Lady Cecil pouted-said it was un-your nation, Lady Cecil.'

had made her such a man.

O'Donnell of the day swore a terrible more-all this country you see belong.

pose, she said; there always sceirs to be fighting there for those who came face to face with his English in you, my dear.' thought of nothing now but lovely What a night that was-what a 'Yes; in your marriage, What's long tossing Light of joy, of hope, of fulfil the compact, and certainly you In the evening of the following day will be. You have been brought up he went to the cottage to obtain the in a way to understand this. Tregen- | Earl's reply. He knocked at the door, na is rich, monstrously rich, and won't it was opened by grave. gentle nauly see his father in-law up a tree. I Mr. Gregory. Mr. Gregory in Lat give you my word he is my last hope and greate a, and every where litter, -your marriage with him, I mean. and dust, and c nf in. Carpets

AT W. F. DOLL'S.

Haw Goods in every Line

and Wedding Rings, &c., &c. Alov

TOLINS, ITALIAN STRINGS, &c.

That evening she sang for him all for Maradal , F sant in and Lundalh

Markdale, Feb. 28, 1882, creditors, I say, and when things are ing cases every and exodus scraightened out a bit wa'll go back | evidently. to England. You shall be presented The Earl and his daughter had at court, and will make, I rather faucy, fled. Two notes were handed to a sensation. We will let you enjoy Redmond. yourself for your first season, and My dear Boy, "I spoke to Cec l after you comfortably to Sir Arthur Tregenna.' left. It is as I leared-you have de-And Lady Cocil listened with droop - ceived yourself. Her promise binds ing cyclids. It seemed to her all her: she has no wish nor inclination right-French girls married in this to break it. And she has had no idea adicious way, all the trouble of love- of the state of your fielings. She making and that nonceuse being taken joins ine in tunning it best for all off their hands by kindly parents and parties she should go at once-another meeting could be but em arrass-Young O'Donnell called in the ing to both. We'd real regress, and best wishes for your a care. I am, my

The inclo-ure was in the slim, Italing tracery of Laty Cecil - strangely cold and heartless word : back to his papers - bills, duns, ac-'Mon But. I am mexpressibly distressed.

Papa has told me ad. What he has said to yas is true. My prom segiven must bok pt. It is best that i should go. Farewell! My eternal gratifiede and friendsl. p are your.

Only that -so cold, hollow, heartyoung voice was full of the pathos and less, false. The golden suusi me, the trees, the After the singing they entered into | violet heath, turn al back for a moment before his eyes. He c municd conversation upon O'Donnell's history. Cecil enjoyed it all, admired him and | the letter up in his hand, a . . . alked

TO BE CONTINUED.

Facts and Fancles.

on Sept. 6 at Moscow.

The disabled l'erusian has acrived nell ever fought under the English at Montreal. The Czar of Russia will be erowned > Fires started by the miners are raging in the mountains near Ottawa. The first sod of the Selkirk and Rockwood Junction Railway was turn-

There is no sure kure for Lazyness. -but I have known a sekond wife hurry it sum. Arrangements for the fusion of the Railways are being rapid v pushed If you cant trust a man for the full as unsuspicious as though he amount, let him skip; this trieing to were not a 'battered London rake' git an average on honesty, haz alwaz and a thorough man of the world been a failure.

irand Trunk and Great Westers

The owner of a steamer has been fined heavily at Worcester, Mass., for overloading his vessel, causing her to capsize with loss of life. Two large ocean steamers are reported caught fast in the ice and driven over on the coast between Cape Ray and Cape Aguille. It is strange haw much better some nell who asked the Earl that he might people can hear with their eyes shut. be allowed to hope for Lady Cecil's | Some Maradale man some to enjoy a sermon best in this manner. The truth always pave in the end, tis said. This is probably the reason why there is so little train told at the beginning of so many pusinges trans-About one tenth of the number of Warn'd by the terrible Manitoulin disaster, U.S. Sec. Folger has ordered You poor? Poor! she tried to Well, my lad, you deserve something ing to the use of dangerous burning curs which infest the streets of Mark-

Breathes there a man with soul so dead Who never to himself hath sai . -I'll sell the hat from off my head,

I'il go without my daily bread, I'il let my children g unfed, I'd starve the dog till be is degel,

I'll work in coust, it feer and droad, I'll sell my house and rent a shed, I'd sell my clothing, ev'ry shrow, My hands of churity I'll sprea!, even't a farthing in the world-you Helf an hour after the earl sough Up an i down the stree's I'd trend. I'll ue fer pane to I more is fled. Down avanues for aid I'll tread But what I'll pay up every red-nd other Frames, and Frame Low Prices, Call and ged by your old friend. BULMER.

Corn, &cc. that we have a full line of SEEDS. ledicines, Perfumery. paps, Fancy Goods, emicals. Tobacco.

dical Hall. il Cake just received LE

BATTONS,

FRAMES Shingles, mptly Filled.

hopes by close attention to e keep a full Stock of BER.

Shore.

UNDRESSED, ney Turning

McNEA.

your Photographs of 37-tf

ipher, Flesherion i finlarging as heretofore. C PIXINGS.

ARDED

Mills.

ill please to call and PETERSON.

and Shoes, Groed every

1882. Yours

> THOUSE TION. full and well or Produce.

Factory eration. A C n les for Sale