tent, as to practically prove a cover for the British advance nearly all around Tel-el-Kebir. The British infantry followed the cavalry well, and were soon behind them over the works. The effect of the retreat of Arabi's massed regiments, and of their close pursuit by the British cavalry and infantry, was a perfect panic and who deserted their posts and fled. As soon as the English passed in force over the works, and were fairly in possession of Tel-el-Kebir, the forces of Arabi which have been defending the place started off in full retreat. So complete had been General Wolseley's preparations that the English cavalry, which had been ordered to follow up such a retreat if it occurred, started in good pursuit keeping close to the Egyptians, and fairly decimating them as they fled. Forty guns were captured. The place was found to be far less strongly fortified than had been supposed.

PORT SAID, Sept. 15.

THE BRITISH AT CAIRO.

Port Said advices state that the English advance guard have arrived at Cairo. All the personages of rank concerned in rebellion have made submission.

ARABI A PRISONER.

An Alexandria despatch, dated 5.20 p.m., says Arabi and Toulba Pasha arrived at Cairo last night, and are both virtually prisoners.

ARABI STONED.

The first news of the battle that reached Cairo reported a great Egyptian victory, and when subsequently it was announced that Arabi was on the way to Cairo, it was rumoured that bore with him Admiral Seymour's head. The people of Cario had never heard of General Wolseley, and imagined Admiral Seymour commanded the British. When Arabi appeared along the regulars stoned him

We notice that Mr. Chas. Grant of Thornbury, has taken, at the In and the gold medal for grain. Goo for East Grey.

A severe wind storm passed this place yesterday (Thursday), doing considerable damage. One of the gable ends of the new Presbyteria church in course of erection was blow down. The roof not being on and the brick work having no support was the cause of the damage. A bird flew through the window of Mr. Mallory's shop, breaking the glass and terrifying the inmates. A large window was blown in at the photograph gallery.

An Englishman yesterday surrendered himself to the Brockville police and confessed to having murdered three men in England five years ago. He related the circumstances of the crimes with great minuteness, and appeared to be perfectly sane. Whether his story is authentic cannot be ascertained until the authorities in London are communicated with.
