MARKDALE, Oct. 5TH, 1882.

EAST GREY FALL EXHIBITION

The above exhibition was held at Flesherton on the 28th and 29th September. The weather during the two days on which was held was lovely and everything seemed to tend towards making it a success. horse ring was the centre of attraction, and the speeding much enjoyed. The various sections were well filled with entries, and the animals shown were a credit to the exhibitors as well as to the district. The exhibit of stallions was large. Cattle-the number of thoroughbreds was not yery large, yet some fine specimens were shown. They were exhibited under the register of the Herd Book of 1882. H. D. Irwin of, Artemesia, and R. Black, of Proton, showed one and two year old Durham bulls respectively, both very promising animals. J. R. Trimble, of Markdale contributed a very fine cow, as also did R. Lever, of Artemesia. Trimble & Baskerville, of Artemesia, showed only Ayrshire entered, a bull calf. There was a herd of Devons on the ground, the property of Robt. Oliver, Artemesia. This is the first time that this breed has been shown at the fair, and they attracted very general attention. Of grades there was a large number, many of them remarkably fine animals. Buchannan; Sweedish Turnips, J. Ford, W.

large, embracing not only the long woolled ton, H. Mathewson; Table Turnips, J. Farris Cotswolds, Leicesters, and Lincolns, but J. Milnor; Long Blood Beets, J. Cameron, J. also meritorious specimens in the fine wool. Thompson; any other kind Beets, J. Milnor, led Oxford and Southdowns. Of the latter J. Thompson; Field Carrots, J. Thompson. varieties Jamieson and Fee, of Collingwood, W. Buchannan; Early Horn Carrots, W. were the largest exhibitors. W. Buchannan Buchannan, E. Rutledge; Parsnips, R. H. and H. D. Irwin, of Artemesia, also exhibit. Stinson, J. Cameron; Onions, from black In the coarse-woolled kinds Wm. and Ed. seed, J. Hickling, J. Beecroft; Potato Onions Fawcett, of Euphrasia; Jas. McMorris, of Osprey, and Wm. Shepherdson, of Collingwood, were the principal exhibitors. Swine-the number in this class was very small, but were fine specimens. Poultry was very fairly represented.

largest we have witnessed at a county show and, without doubt, the best quality. Spring wheat very good, but the number of entries were small. Barley and oats were also a good sample, but little of them.

Roots were fairly represented, there being a large number of entries, especially of potatoes, othe roots were medium.

Fruit was well up, though the season has been rather unfavorable.

The finest display of carriages that has seen at this one. There is a great improve- chell; grape, J. Graham, J. Hearl. ment in this line, which fact speaks well for the prosperity of the county; for if there were no demand for such the manufacturers would not risk so much capital and pay so much attention to that line of business.

The domestic manufactures and ladies work was scarcely up to former years in regard to the number of entries, yet the quality was good. Mr. Bulmer had a fine display of photographs. and taking into consideration the exceeding- been in use this sector the concerts will lowing prize list which we give below:

WRECK OF THE "ASIA.

Owan Sound, Oct. 2.—The tug Ann Long arrived here at midnight last evening, having on board the following bodies lost on the illfated steamer Asia: - John McDougall, or Owen Sound, who was purser; E. Sparks, of Ottawa; Jackson supposed to be a farmer from near Listowel; Mrs. Kirk, from Clover Hill; Sheppard and one unknown supposed to be Silas Benard. Two unknown bodies were picked up by the steamer Africa, and three by the steam barge Enterprise, near Lonely Island, and sent here by the tug. Captain Noble, of the tug Ann Long, reports that a large number of bodies are floating around near where these were picked up, and could be easily recovered if a tug with appliances for the purpose were despatched at

THE PURSER'S FUNERAL. The remains of Mr. J. McDougall, purser of the wrecked steamer Asia, were interred this afternoon at four o'clock.

THE REASON HE WROTE IT. "I write this," says Mr. Nelson de Pew, of Napiersville, Quebec, Canala," to say that, 108 after suffering six years with rheumatismaccompanied with the most intense pain with which any one could be afflicted-I have been completely cured by the use of St. Jacobs Oil. I thus write because I consider it my duty so to do, and because I wish to publish to suffering humanity the wonderful efficacy of the Great German Remedy. When I remember that during six years in which I was bedridden with this awful disease, I tried all kinds of remedies, and expended a very large amount of money with doctors of all schools, feeling of gratitude at my marvelous recovery impresses me to give the widest publicity to
