Five dollars saved by ordering your

A four-year-old son of Mr. James Elliott, of Artemesia, met with a very painful accident on Monday, (9th). The little fellow was near a cutting box, which was in motion.
By some means his hand got caught by the cog wheels, and bruised between the wheels and the iron casings completely severing the first, third and fourth fingers from his hand; the second finger may possibly be saved.
Mrs. J. L. Browne, of Markdale, died at her father's residence, Egremont, on Wednesday, 4th inst. Mrs. B. had made many warm friends in Markdale during the short time she lived here. Her disease was inflammatory rheumatism followed by dropsy which has tormented her to a premature grave. She died, as she lived, rejoicing in a present Saviour.
We extend to Mr. Browne our sincere sympathy in his present bereavement.
The great sale of $7,542.95 worth of goods, purchased at 47 1/2 cents on the dollar, is going on at W. J.
McFarland's.
BROKEN LEG.—Mr. Malcolm Ques-ad of Osprey, had the misfortune to get his leg broken while returning from Cellingwood Exhibition. The accident occurred between Nottawa and Duntroon, and the man was conveyed to his mother's residence in Nottawasaga, where he is slowly recovering.

Take our advice and don't purchase a dollar's worth of goods without first looking through McFarland's immense stock.
THE CATTLE FAIR.—The fair last Saturday was a decided improvement on any former one. It was, however, only the third regular fair held in this place. There were some 75 head of cattle on the grounds at ten o'clock, over 40 of which changed hands at fair prices. The market last week at Toronto was exceedingly flat, owing to the supply exceeding the demand, and as a consequence buyers were careless. It is hoped there will be a few outside buyers secured to attend the next fair.
We overheard one lady remarking to another, "you need not go into Mc-Farland's store if you are in a hurry, as his store is always crowded with customers." Come, Mc, get some more clerks.
Mr. James Carter, Lot 6, con. 12, Glennel, will have an extensive credit auction sale of stock, implements, and household effects on Tuesday, the 24th Oct., commencing at ten o'clock. Mr.
Carter has sold his farm and will sell his chattles without reserve. Having a large stock of young cattle and sheep the sale will no doubt be largely attended. Hugh McKay, Auctioneer.
Mr. Hill, tailor, is turning out first class work. Leave your order with him if you want a nobby fitting suit.
Rooms over McFarland's store.
Mr. Robert Kinnier, Lot 19, con. 6, Osprey, has leased his farm and has favoured Mr. Perigo, Co. auctioneer, with instructions to sell by public auction, on the premises, his entire stock, implements and household effects, without reserve, on the 24th of October. Sale to commence at 12 o'clock, noon. Terms, 12 months credit on approved paper for all sums over $5.
130 chests fine Japan Tea to arrive in five days, direct from place of growth, for W. J. McFarland.
DUNDALK, Oct., 1892.
MESSRS. TRIMBLE & WRIGHT, GENTLEMEN.—We received the two chests of tea in good order (116 lbs. nett at 28 cents per lb.) and after giving it a fair trial we have much pleasure in stating that it is better than any 50c. tea that we have hitherto purchased, and we can recommend it to any person as a good flavored strong tea, and more than value for the money. We have given a number of our neighbors samples of it, and each of them express their intention of procuring a chest of it.
Yours respectfully,
JOHN & WM. ARCHESON, Farmers.
We noticed in looking over the prize list of the provincial exhibition held at Kingston that Mr. John Ford, (Mount Royal Farm), Artemesia, was awarded the prize for East Grey for the best managed farm. The prize consisted of a bronze medal. We have since had the pleasure of seeing the medal, which has engraved thereon "Best managed farm in East Grey, John Ford, Artemesia, 1892." The above farm consists of 100 acres, and is situated 3 1/2 miles from Markdale. The place is comparatively new, having been cleared up chiefly during the last fifteen years; every department however displays taste and good management. The fields are well laid out, the soil well tilled, and free from weeds and thistles by thorough culture and rotation of crops. The buildings are laid out with due regard to economy and convenience and their surrounding kept neat and trim.
The stock show good breeding and proper care. "A place for everything and every-ing in its proper place" is Mr. Ford's motto.
