

FLESHERTON STATION.
(From our own correspondent.)
P. Munshaw is now proprietor of the bus between this place and the station. He carries the mail and has a comfortable rig; has also opened a livery.....Mr. Varty, (brickmaker,) has erected a fine brick residence which will soon be completed. His child, which had its arm broken a short time ago, is doing well....W. H. Flesher, (painter,) has built a dwelling. McKeohine, (cabinet maker,) and B. Clark, (blacksmith,) have both erected brick residence.

FLESHERTON STATION.
(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)
Mr. Doupe is doing a nice business in general merchandise, and sells very reasonable....B. Cook, blacksmith, has removed into his new brick residence and Thos. Addison, implement agent, into Cook's former dwelling....Geo. Moorehouse, miller, has erected a dwelling this fall and is moving in.....Robert Morrow has purchased a lot, built a house, and now resides in our town.....Wm. McMillan will remove to our city next week.....A. Hannah moved to Flesherton this week.....James McMillan will open out in Cook's new brick store in a few days, where he will pay cash for all kinds of farm produce.

WILLIAMSFORD.
(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)
C. Price has a good part of his large building veneered with brick.....G. N. Pereira has his machinery running and is now manufacturing furniture. ....Extensive improvements will take place in M. Smith's flour mill as soon as his millwright arrives, ....C. Price wants a few good house carpenters for about six weeks.

OSPREY NOTES.
(From our own Correspondent.)
MAXWELL.—The proprietor of the new Drug Store at Maxwell was fined $20 by the Liquor Inspector for selling intoxicating drinks for others than medical purposes. The Maxwell hotel keeper was fined a similar amount for selling on Sabbath, and the public are well pleased.....Maxwell's popular merchant is married. He shall have a good time, at least "as long as the moon endures."

FEVERSHAM.—The anniversary of the Gunpowder Plot was celebrated at Feversham on Monday, Nov. 6th. A large number sat down to an excellent supper prepared by Robert McGirr, at his own hotel, after which the members of the different lodges assembled in the Presbyterian Church where a very agreeable time was spent. Music was furnished in a manner that would reflect credit on professional singers by Misses A. McKinnor, L. McGirr and T. Grey. The chief speeches of the evening were given by Rev. Mr. Dowell, of Maxwell, and Rev. Mr. Chisholm, of McIntyre. After the former gentlemen had delivered a very humorous address, the latter in a most vigorous and impressive manner, pointed out that Romanism in all stages of its existence opposed the diversion of conscientiousness, with which safe popular freedom was essentially united.....A poor widow living in the neighbourhood of this place had 40 or 50 bushels of oats stolen from her granary on last Saturday night. It is said that the thieves are known, and unless they replace the stolen property or equivalent inside of two weeks they may prepare for a protracted stay in Kingston.

McINTYRE.—Here everything is lovely. The two stores are doing a rushing business, so also is our new harness maker, whose work is superior to any thing ever seen in this country.....Neil McLean is enlarging and plastering his hall.
MAXWELL.—Mr. Ira H. Perigoe is doing a rushing business; two and three auction sales every week..... Messrs John Heron and Joseph Clinton returned from Manitoba last week. ....Twenty dollars is all the hotel man made it cost the druggist at Maxwell for selling liquor in an illegal manner, then the game changed and twenty dollars was all the drug store man made the hotel keeper pay for a similar offence.
