Vegetine Five Doctors Did Not Cure.

Clinton Street. Toronto, Ont., Sept 13, 1879. Mr. H. R. Stevens:

Dear Sir,-I hereby certify that I have been sick for three years, unable to get any relief whatever. I have been under the care of five of the best physicians, each one giving my illness a different name. The first said General Debility; the second, Female Debility and impoverished blood; the third, Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia; the fourth said I was in Consumption; the fifth said, Neuralgia on the lungs, and was certain I would never enjoy lungs, and was certain I would never enjoy good health, so I concluded to give up doctors and commenced taking Patent Medicines. At this time I was very weak. I had pain in my side, back and chest, slept very little, and the food I ate caused me pain. I was a burden to myself and friends. I was persuaded to try Vegetine. A friend gave me a bottle to try, not thinking it would do me any good, as I had no hope of ever getting any better. After using the first bottle my head was better, and I could sleep better. The next two my appetite came, and I was able to enjoy my food. I have now taken five bottles. I have a good appetite and sleep well, have no pain, and am able to do most of my own work. I pronounce your Medicine far ahead of any other, add can cheerfully cine far ahead of any other, add can cheerfully recommend it to any one in need of such a medicine. Yours respectfully, MRS. E. ALLEN.

I feel satisfied it is a cure for Yours respectfully, M. ALLEN,
