EARS FOR THE MILLION

YOO CHOO'S BALSAM OF SHARK'S OIL positively Restores the Hearing, and is the Only Absolute Cure for Deafness known. This Oil is abstracted from peculiar species of small White Shark, caught in the Yellow Sea, known as CARCHARODON RONDELLETTI. Every Chinese fisherman knows it. Its virtues as a restorative of hearing were discovered by a Buddhist Priest were discovered about the year 1410. Its cures were so numerous, and many so seemingly miraculous, that the remedy was officially proclaimed over the entire Empire. Its use became so universal, that for over 300 years no Deafness has existed among the Chinese people. Sent, charges prepaid, to any address at $1.00 per bottle.

Hear what the Deaf say: It has performed a miracle in my case. I have no unearthly noises in my head, and hear much better.

I have been greatly benefited. My deafness helped a great deal—think another bottle will cure me.

Its virtues are unquestionable and its curative character absolute, as the writer can personally testify, both from experience and observation. Write at once to Haylock and Jenney, 7 Day Street, New York, enclosing $1 and you will receive by return a remedy that will enable you to hear like anybody else, and whose curative effects will be permanent. You will never regret doing so.—EDITOR OF MERCANTILE REVIEW.

Our subscribers and others will do us a favor, and assist in making the paper interesting, by sending us particulars of incidents transpiring from time to time in their vicinity. Some times people wonder why such and such a thing did not appear in the paper. Well, we don't often insert items we know nothing about.

Last Friday evening was the time intended for the skating carnival. The rink was there, the ice was there, the Chinese lanterns were there, the refreshments were there, and the proprietors and manager were there, but the maskers came not. True, four or five boys were disguised, one with a white garment better adapted for the ailer watches of the night; another gloried in a white hat, borrowed for the occasion. Then Robert marched in with the band, under his arm and gave us the "Blue Albatross Mountains." Some visitors "dead beat" their way in about nine o'clock. They said the show was no good and demanded refreshments. These were served on the "continental" plan; (not paid for on the American plan; and swallowed on the Canadian plan. But any who expected to see a good carnival got left worse than a one-armed man at a social.
