HORSE TRAINING.—A horse trainer, Mr. D. M. Bristol, of Michigan, was in town last Thursday, and gave familiar talk upon his methods and au exhibition of their effects upon his own horse, to an admiring crowd. certainly was most interesting to see the intelligent animal turn to right and left at a motion of the whip or of the head of the "professor" in the cutter behind -stop, back, or trot smartly forward and all without lines, bridle. orlit. Mr. Bristol seems to touch the right chord in advocating all training by kindness, tempered with firmness, without any of the irritating rope fastenings or mouth rending safety bits so often used.

MANHOOD HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED

We have recently published a new SEAL edition of Dr. CULVERWELL'S CELE-BEATED ESSAY on the radical and permanent cure (without medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, &c., resulting from excesses.

Price, in sealed envelope, only 6 cents, or two postage stamps.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years' successful practice, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicines or the use of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land. Address
