Every Chinese fisherman knows it. Its virtues as a restorative of hearing were discovered by a Buddhist Pr est were discovered about the year 1410. ELECTION OF REEVE.—We have been informed that Mr. Fennel, Reeve elected for Proton has put in the hands of the clerk a disclaimer, and Mr. McGregor has taken the declaration of office. There is no doubt Mr. Fennel would have served the township very satisfactorly, but seeing that there were difficulties in the way, it was certainly the wisest course to do as he has, and thus save the township the trouble and expense of a new election .- Herald. Mr. J. Munro of Proton lost a valuable horse on Sunday night last. The horse was placed in the stable at night and the following morning was missing. There is no other way for accounting for his disappearance, only by coming to the conclusion that he was stolen. Just as we go to press word reaches us that the horse has been found dead in a swamp near the place. The snow around was much beaten as if the animal had died in great pain .- Herald.

Ferguson, Esq., P. S. I. was voted to the chair, the duties of which he discharged with his usual tact and good humour. Cards and letters of apology rom several absentee speakers were read The chairman then called on the choir, and an excellent piece of music well executed was the result. The first speaker called was Mr. Meldrum, it being the anniversary of the birth of Robert Burns, the Scottish bard, the speeker took this as his subject which brought Burns sweet song off, "After Water" by the choir, and "Scots Wha Hae by Mr. Robertson. Mr. Robertson gave a very interesting and forcible address on "Opinions and Pinciples," showing how frequently Opinions are substitute or and take the place of principles; Mr. Black, teacher gave a comic recitation which kept the whole audience in a laughter for a few minutes; Rev. Mr. McLeod was the last speaker, his subject was "Rites and Coremonies" with the church showing the origin and abuse of them and how easy it was to slide into a sensuous ritual and even in many cases to believe it worship. The Buresson choir under their careful leader Mr. Geo. Binnie, rendered many choice pieces during the evening, and gave striking proof of successful and delightful singing without the aid of an instrument. This was one of the pleasantest evenings it has been our lot to enjoy in the Teameeting line. The proceedings ware brought to a close by the peredict on
