

The STANDARD office is noted for being prompt in filling orders for job printing, which has been the means of greatly increasing its custom. We are in receipt of many letters of thanks and good wishes from outlying points for neatness in design and despatch in forwarding orders. Our business is increasing rapidly in fine work, which we made a specialty, having added recently to our already large assortment of material of fashionable type, besides having one of the most rapid and perfect running job presses manufactured. We are prepared to execute all kinds of work in Pamphlets, Circulars, Letter Heads, Note Blanks, Receipts, Business Cards, Funeral Cards, Posters, Hand Bills, Dodgers, Printed Envelopes, &c., &c. Orders by mail will receive prompt attention. Address all letters to

Oh, Yes! Oh, Yes!!

The Ontario elections are now over. The storm has passed. The excitement is cooling down, and we trust the right men are in the right place. And amid all the discussion on the Boundary Award, the Streams Bill and many other things, it is pleasing to note that there is one point on which men of all shades of opinion, and all women, too, are fully agreed, viz: That the place to buy Tea is at Trimble & Wright's, Markdale, where the rush after their notorious 28c Tea still continues. No pains or expense will be spared in order to supply the ever increasing demand. We cannot procure space to give anything like a full list, but would beg to refer the public to the following gentlemen as a few of our more distant customers who have purchased by the chest:

A. Munshaw, Flesherton; T. M. Wilson, Flesherton; S. Wauchob, Flesherton; Joseph Legard, Flesherton; R. M. Purdy, Eugenia; Edward O'Brien, Eugenia; John Beacroft, Eugenia; McD. well Bros., Dundalk; Nelson Bros., Dundalk; John Acheson, Dundalk; Wm. Achison, Dundalk; James Bell, Singhampton; Edward Lisle, Singhampton; W. McAlear, Flesherton Station; W. Patersen, Flesherton Station; Jos. Allison, Maxwell; John Radley, Sr., Maxwell; S. McCallum, Vandeleur; Mrs. J. Allen, B. rkeley; Robert Walker, Berkeley; Wm. Love, Berkeley; S. Halliday, Tp. Clark, Durham Co.; M. Johnson, Tp. Clark, Durham Co.; while at home the purchase of chests and quantities from five lbs. to 25 twenty-five lbs. are named legion. Don't fail to try it.

Our stock in every department is always kept full. An endless variety to choose from, which in quality cannot be beat, and at prices that simply defy competition.

Correspondence.

NOTICE.—We wish it distinctly understood that we do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions expressed by our correspondents to the Editor of the STANDARD.

SIR.—In the STANDARD of Feb. 1st there is an article by "Farmer," which by the way is a move in the right direction for I think that a free and friendly discussion in the local paper of matters pertaining to Agriculture would be of profit to all. There was a suggestion by "Farmer" with a regard to holding township shows all on the same day that I think is defective, in a place like Markdale where the show is largely made up from other townships it would be a small affair if confined to our own township, now instead of curtailing and making the thing smaller I would like to see it increase and become larger. Suppose the friends of Agriculture within a circuit of five miles around Markdale would come forward and join the society so as to warrant the directors to get up a good prize list and extend the show to two days. I think it would be a decided improvement, besides the village would be largely benefited by the same. Hoping to hear the views of more of the Farmers, and thanking you for the above space,

I remain
FARMER No. 2.

SURPRISE PARTY.

On the 19th January the officers and children of Epping Sunday School and other friends surprised Mr. R. H. Stirson, their former Superintendent, by taking possession of his new home and presenting him with a handsome family bible, purchased from Mr. Harkness, Meaford. After refreshments Mr. Richard Ball was called to the chair, when the following address and presentation took place:

ADDRESS.

To Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Stirson and Family.

DEAR FRIENDS,—As circumstances which could not be avoided cause your separation from among us, and especially from the Sabbath school in which you took such an energetic part. Such circumstances occur occasionally, and in many cases deep regret is caused, so it falls to our lot to regret your departure from among us, and fully appreciating your valuable services rendered us during your stay among us, we are therefore desirous of expressing to you in a tangible form the highest regard in which you were held by us, both as a friend and superintendent in the Sabbath school. We therefore take leave to present to you and Mrs. Stirson this gift as a slight expression of our regard for you and not on account of its intrinsic value, and may you and your family be the possessors of the rich treasures contained therein. And we trust that the same efforts that have crowned your success during your stay among us may ever attend you in the future, and may the Giver of all good guide you and your family into all spiritual blessings.

Signed by
CASSIE BLACK,
JOSEPHINE BALL,
R. KILLOUGH,
PHOEBE GILRAY.

REPLY.

Mr. Chairman and Friends.

It affords me the greatest pleasure to bid you all a hearty welcome to my new home. I am sure that your presence here to-night is a surprise to me, and the valuable present you have presented me and my partner with is more of a surprise to us, as I feel that it is quite unmerited by me. If I done anything in the Sunday school I only done it as my duty to those dear children and to God. I love the Sabbath school, and believe it is the nursery of the church, and as Christ has given us all a work to do I am convinced that the Sunday school is my place. I spent many pleasant hours at Epping school, and although you so often placed me at the head of the school I always felt that there were others of more ability that ought to have been there instead of me. I always found the people of Epping courteous, kind and the best of neighbors, and when going away from there I felt it like leaving home, and when I visit there again I know that I am welcome. The valuable book of the Word of God that you have given to-night I shall always prize, as it will bring to mind this and many other pleasant times we have spent together. May we, by the grace of God, be able to walk in the light of its truths, and may you all be enabled to accept the salvation of Christ so freely and fully provided for us. And, dear children, there is nothing that will give me more pleasure than to hear that one after another has given their heart to the Saviour. Wishing you all long life and prosperity and an abundant entrance into the kingdom. May we all meet in the kingdom above where parting is no more.

MILWAUKEE HOTEL FIRE.

THE LESSEE OF THE BAR-ROOM INDICTED FOR ARSON.

MILWAUKEE, Feb. 26.—The grand jury have indicted Schiller, the former lessee of the bar-room of the Newhall house, for arson. The indictment charges the prisoner with wilfully, maliciously, and feloniously setting fire to and burning the Newhall house on the night of January 10th, causing the death of a number of persons. Counsel insisted upon his immediate arraignment, and schiller was taken to court this afternoon almost unobserved. He pleaded not guilty, and was re-committed in default of $10,000 bail. The grand jury are still considering the responsibility of the owner and manager of the hotel. It is believed indictments for manslaughter will be returned against Nash, Antisdel, and the night clerk, Delaney.

The mail train was five hours late yesterday, just when people were most anxious to have it on time.

Mr. Wm. Lucas, (Banker,) returned yesterday from Leamton.

The Sunday evening service in the Methodist Church, Markdale, will commence for the time to come at 6.30 instead of 7 as heretofore.

Mrs. Wyvill's sale, Euphrasia, today, 1st.

THE BROKEN CHAIN.

LINES ON THE DEATH OF WILLIE, ONLY CHILD OF HENRY AND ELIZA JANE REID.

A family chain of precious links
In peace and beauty grew,
'Til round each loved heart there twined
A sweet affection true.
The parents in a tender way
Their offspring tried to raise,
B' precept kind, from day to day,
Unto their master's praise.

Through trials of trouble, toil and care
They trusted in the Lord,
Until a boy, both kind and fair,
Appeared around their board,
But what is this can break the chain
And bear the child away,
And fill the loving hearts with pain
So happy till to-day?

Grim Death appeared in sable dress,
And will no more pass by;
The parents feel, with breaking hearts,
Their precious boy must die.
And as the early morning dawned
A billow o'er the deep
Rolled by and bore his soul away
To Jesus, there to sleep.

'Tis in the gloomy grave he lies,
The casket that they loved,
Look up, dear friends, beyond the skies,
Your Willie shines above.
For early in his infant days
He passed away to God,
And but his precious form must lie
Beneath the graveyard soil.

And though the links may one by one
Be severed from the chain,
If faithful till you're called away
You may unite again.
Yes, in the glorious world above
He waits for you to come,
And faith would bid you grieve no more
But meet him safe at home.

—By a Friend.
