MARKDALE, MARCH, 29th 1883.

DEATH OF ROBT. CUNNINGHAM.

It becomes our painful duty this week to chroncle the death of Robert Cunningham. who has been in our midst for several years, being salesman in Mr. Brown's store until ployment of Trimble & Wright. He was in good progress at the High School, Owen years, and we know of some large business Markdale on Thursday, the 15th, and not Sound. feeling well went to Toronto, where his parents reside. His illness became more serious and symptoms of brain fever were last. evident, which made rapid progress and deprived him of his reason on Sunday, the 18th, in which state he continued until Friday the Brd, when death ended his sufferings. Robert was 28 years of age, was healthy, and bid gave us a call on Monday. fair for long life up to less than two weeks before Lis death. He had the good will and highest respect of all who snew him, being of an obliging and amiable disposition, and gentlemanly deportment, was, in fact, a model young man. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church in this place, was also a member of the Loyal Markdale Lodge | nipeg. of the Canadian Order of Oddfellows. The sudden and sad news of his death was a sur-Prise to all, and calls in accents more forcible than words, "Te ye also ready."

SOCIAL.

The social held at Mr. McIntyre's on Tuesday evening, on the occasion of Mrs. McIntyre leaving for the North-West, was well attended and a very pleasant time speut. The various amusements were entered into with a will and enjoyed immensely. A very pleasing circumstance of the evening depth of 10 and 15 feet. was a presentation to Mr. W. A. Mc. Dougall, he having decided to leave our midst. He has made many warm friends during his stay of nearly four auction, and either renting or selling years amongst us, and has contributed their farms with the view of going to cheerfully and with rare acceptance Manitoba. by way of recitations, songs, &c., at | Trade in the different business cenconsisted of a beautiful gold watch by the four stores in Maxwell could chain, (worth $25) and a gold pen easily be done by any one of them. and in song. Your genial temper and social qualities your removal from our midst, no doubt share with us the same feelings. We ask you and Holder, and when you from day to day consult the time-piece securely held by this chain, think of the many pleasant circumstances of your residence in Markdale and your friends here, which as a chain less perishable than that of gold binds us with links the emblem of purity. Hoping that in the a happy and prosperous future.

G. S. Bowes. (Signed) On behalf of your friends.

Mr. McDongall replied briefly in suitable terms, expressing his warm attachment to Markdale and the people of the place and regret at leaving.

FROM THE AKRON COMMERCIAL, OHIO, OF NOV. 25TH, 1882.

Readers of the Commercial can not well forget that a large space has for years been taken up by Kendall's advertisements-especially of a certain Spavin Cure. We have had dealings with Dr. Kendall for many with him for many years, and the truth is fully and faithfully proven, not only that he Spavin cure is not only all that it is recommended to be, but that the Engligh language is not capable of recommending it too highly.

Kendall's Spavin Cure will cure spavins. There are hundreds of cases in which that has been proven to our certain knowledge, but, after all, if any person confines the usefulness of his celebrated medicine to curing spavins alone, they make a big mistake. It is the best medicine known as an outward application for rheumatism in the family. It Mr. A. Chellew, cabinet maker of is good for pains and aches, swellings and lameness, and is just as safely applied to men woman and children as it is to horses. We know that there are other good liniments. but we do believe this spavin cure to be far better than any ever invented
