MANHOOD
HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED
We have recently published a new SEAL edition of Dr. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical and permanent cure (without medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, &c., resulting from excesses.
Price, in sealed envelope, only 6 cents, or two postage stamps.
The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years' successful practice, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicines or the use of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure so simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.
This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

(From a Correspondent.)

The snow is disappearing fast and the roads are in a very bad condition. Business brisk since the railway has been opened after its prolonged snow blockade. An immense quantity of freight having accumulated there is now a heavy business done in moving the same.

Mr. Horn, the new proprietor of the McAllister house, will take possession on the 15th inst.

Mr. John Markle, manager of the Middaugh House, is going to the Northwest shortly. Quite a number have gone, and more to follow, to the Northwest from this vicinity.

HOTEL CHANGE.—Twice McAllister has been very nearly concluding a bargain with Mr. R. H. Horn for his well known hotel property. The purchase has now been finally made and while everyone will regret the loss of an energetic citizen like Mr. McAllister who has made a host of friends since he has been at the business, we can confidently recommend Mr. Horn to the public as a well principled, honorable man.—Chronicle.

KICKED BY HORSE.—On Tuesday evening last Mr. James Watson, of Normandy, was kicked by one of his horses. Several of his ribs were parted from the spine, but under the care of Dr. Gun it is hoped he will soon recover.—Review.
