DEAD.—The body of Mr. John McIlroy was found lying in a field on Mr. Smith's farm a short distance from the town yesterday morning. McIntyre was a resident of Arthur Township, residing near Mount Forest, and had taken a short cut through the fields to reach home on his way to the town where he had been on Tuesday. Nothing more is known than that he had been under the influence of liquor the unfortunate man laid down on the wet ground and died from exposure. Mt. Forest Convent.

Many tried to shave himself. His razor proved the nave, so he went to Smith the Barber and had a decent shave.

Little drops of printers' ink. A little type "displayed." Make our merchants bosses and all the big parade. Little bits of stinkiness. Make our printers' ink—make the man of business, and see his credit sink.

 In Windsor, Ont., on Monday evening, a bloody affray took place in the street between five drunken desperadoes from Detroit and a couple of police officers, backed up by a dozen citizens. Knives were used freely, and finally revolvers drawn. A Windsor constable was fatally injured, and half a dozen of those assisting him more or less hurt, one colored man probably fatally also. Three of the roughts were captured and locked up.
 We are pleased to see our village police commence operations so early in the season, they having already repaired some of our sidewalks and we hope they will continue until all are in good repair, and also complete the sidewalk to the station, this is a portion in which every citizen is more or less interested, and while each has to bear a portion of expense they will doubtless desire to have the use of this very important section as early in the season as possible.
 OFF THE TRACK.—The afternoon train on the G. T. R. while proceeding from Mount Forest to Durham on Friday, met with an accident when near Holstein by which the baggage car was thrown from the track and the passenger coach damaged although it did not leave the track. A cow was the cause of the mishap. A number of Mount Foresters were on the train at the time, among the number Mr. Thos. Swan, Mrs. Millward and the Misses Roberts. It is needless to say they were considerably shaken up. Mr. Roberts, of the Queens', sent up a team and brought his daughters and the other Mount Forest passengers home.

AN ACROSTIC.
 Look out ye farmers and threshers all
 And see that you buy for Spring, Summer
 Right splendid good oil. (and Fall
 Don't be misled by statements bland,
 Insist upon having the very best brand,
 Now good as ever, in fact it is grand,
 Everlasting wear without grit or sand,
 Machines run smoothly, no jarring or noise,
 And engines too in its use rejoice.
 Carding also it suits, as you plainly see,
 Heavy gristing cannot do without me.
 In fact all machines are blessed by its use,
 New or old it will save from wear and abuse,
 Every man try it, we are sure it will please,
 Our initials, when read, will give the cue
 In looking for oil, the best and the true,
 Long in the market, but ever new.
