MANHOOD
HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED

SEAL We have recently published a new edition of Dr. CULVERWELL'S CELE-BRATED ESSAY on the radical and permanent cure (without medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, &c., resulting from excesses.

Price, in sealed envelope, only 6 cents, or two postage stamps.
The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years' successful practice, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicines, or the use of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Kimberly.

The fall wheat crop has been badly injured nearly half of it will be plowed and sowed with other grain.

Owing to late rains very slow progress has been made in seeding here.

Sugar making here has been rather an unprofitable business this spring.

Our Landlord, James Thurston, gave a Maple Sugar Party, it was a grand success.

Robert Hawkins of Eugenia, has purchased the McGee farm adjoining Kimberly.

James Fawcett, of Kimberly, has had an addition to his family, a son.

The farmers here are beginning to learn something of the profit of fruit growing, and are adding to their already respectable sized orchards. Fruit growing here is but in its infancy, and promises soon to be one of the leading industries of the valley.

Priceville.

Only a small quantity of grain has been sown yet, owing to the unfavorable weather.

Mr McGowan is preparing to build a first class dam.

Our citizens were somewhat startled on Saturday morning, by hearing that Hugh Scott was found dead lying on his kitchen floor near the stove. The deceased had gained considerable notoriety by being almost continually engaged in law suits, and appearing several times before the high courts on criminal charges. It seems that on Friday last, he sold a cow, and in the evening was observed somewhat the worse of liquor, and was found by the neighbors the next morning as above stated. An inquest was held on Saturday night, on Sunday a post mortem examination. The jury will meet and give a report some day this week.
