 A trip to the farm of Finlay MacRae, Esq., Reeve of Glenelg, on Monday last, found that gentlemen in the midst of his farm labors with half a dozen farm hands about him and nearly as many carpenters, all plying their labors under the able supervision of Finlay himself. The farm comprising in all about four hundred acres, lies about four miles in from Griffin's Corners on the northern confines of Glenelg, and is a most desirable property. It fell on Mr. MacRae's hands somewhat unexpectedly, and determined to make the best of it, he moved out there about three weeks ago with Mrs. MacRae and family. Since which time he has been pushing matters with characteristic energy. The farm combines what few others do—admirable adaptability at once for grain-growing and stock raising, into the latter of which Mr. MacRae intends to go extensively. Every thing is push and bustle, carried on, however, with great regularity; and buildings and outhouses are being run up with the rapidity of a western city, Mrs. MacRae, as always hospitable and entertaining, is if possible more so than ever on the farm, and no one can visit there and come away without feeling a desire to "call again" on the first opportunity.—Chatsworth Cor. Advertiser.

THE LINES ON THE LOSS OF THE ASIA.
 BY NICHOLAS ROSS.
 (Published by request.)
 To people all, come listen to
 A narrative of woe;
 'Twill cause your breath to heave a sigh,
 'Twill cause your tears to flow;
 Your sympathy you will extend
 To those who have of late
 Been called to mourn the loss of friends,
 And their heart-rending fate.
 'Twas in September, beauteous month,
 In eighteen eighty-two,
 The Asia steamed from Collingwood,
 Manned by a harry crew;
 Some eighty passengers she took,
 Oh, what a precious freight;
 The worth of all those noble souls,
 Say, who can estimate?
 She clave the dark blue waves in twain,
 And like a bird set free,
 Glad to be loosed, she hastened on
 Towards her destiny,
 French River was her destined port,
 But Ah, the storm did rivee;
 She sank to tell a mournful tale
 That words cannot describe.
 Say, who is held responsible,
 And who should bear the blame?
 It this was done through carelessness,
 Then, 'tis a burning shame,
 Shall those who hold the public's trust,
 And good thereby derives,
 Grow heedless of that trust, and thus
 Endanger human lives.
 Ah, little did they dream, indeed,
 Who paced along her deck,
 That 'ere the sun would rise again,
 She'd be a total wreck;
 That rich and poor, all side by side
 Engulphed beneath the wave,
 Should in the cruel arms of death,
 Sleep in one common grave.
 That soon, full soon above the roar
 Of the destructive surge,
 The raging winds would stoop to sigh
 And chant their funeral dirge,
 That for their sakes the bitter tear
 Of agony would flow
 Adown the cheeks of loving friends,
 Crushed by their weight of woe.
 That widowed wives and orphaned babes
 Looked on the forms of some,
 Who to their homes and fond embrace,
 Ah! never more would come.
 Who shall depict the mournful scene,
 The horror and the strife,
 The dread confusion that took place,
 The struggle after life?
 No doubt a prayer that God may save,
 Escapes the lips of some,
 (While others stand in mute despair,
 All motionless and dumb.)
 I seem to hear their piercing cries,
 For mercy they implore;
 Ah! some have taught their lips to pray,
 Who never prayed before.
 And surely God did not despise,
 The souls who sought His peace.
 He gave them hope he gave them strength
 He gave them dying grace.
 God speaks to us, shall we be warned,
 Or shall we still delay?
 O, let us turn and seek and find
 His mercy while we may.

WHAT IS THE REASON?
 What is the reason that TRIMBLE & WRIGHT sell the best boots and shoes for the money, in Markdale?
 What is the reason that TRIMBLE & WRIGHT'S stock are selling so fast?
 What is the reason that TRIMBLE & WRIGHT are doing such a business in ready made and ordered clothing?
 What is the reason that TRIMBLE & WRIGHT sell more tea than any other house in this section of country?
 What is the reason that TRIMBLE & WRIGHT'S store is continually crowded with customers and that all go away well pleased?
 What is the reason of such a rush amongst the ladies after TRIMBLE & WRIGHT'S dress goods?
 What is the reason that TRIMBLE & WRIGHT are taking the lead in each and every branch of their vast business?
 The answer to these queries is both short and simple, because they make it a point to give better value for your money than you can get else where, because they keep a complete stock of just what the people want, because they buy for cash and sell for cash, and are thus able to get and give the very best bargains, and because these facts have become known to the people, and because the people know enough to go where they can deal the best. And if there should be one who is inclined to doubt the truthfulness of these facts we would respectfully request that you call and see for yourself.
 Yours Respectfully,
 TRIMBLE & WRIGHT.

EARS FOR THE MILLION
FOO CHOO'S BALSAM OF SHARK'S OIL positively Restores the Hearing, and is the Only Absolute Cure for Deafness known. This Oil is abstracted from peculiar species of small White Shark, caught in the Yellow Sea, known as CARCHARODON RONDELETTI. Every Chinese fisherman knows it. Its virtues as a restorative of hearing were discovered by a Buddhist Priest, were discovered about the year 1410. Its cures were so numerous, and many so seemingly miraculous, that the remedy was officially proclaimed over the entire Empire. Its use became so universal, that for over 300 years no Deafness has existed among the Chinese people. Sent, charges prepaid, to any address at $1.00 per bottle.
Hear what the Deaf say:
 It has performed a miracle in my case. I have no unearthly noises in my head, and hear much better. I have been greatly benefited. My deafness helped a great deal—think another bottle will cure me. Its virtues are unquestionable and its curative character absolute, as the writer can personally testify, both from experience and observation. Write at once to Haylock and Jenney, 7 Dey Street, New York, enclosing $1 and you will receive by return a remedy that will enable you to hear like anybody else, and whose curative effects will be permanent. You will never regret doing so.—Editor of MERCANTILE REVIEW.
