AN ACROSTIC.

Look out ye farmers and threshers all
And see that you buy for Spring, Summer Bright splendid good oil. (and Fall) Don't be misled by statements bland, Insist upon having the very best brand, Now good as ever, in fact it is grand,
Everlasting wear without grit or sand.
Machines run smoothly, no jarring or noise,
And engines too in its use rejoice.
Carding also it suits, as you plainly see,
Heavy gristing cannot do without me.
In fact all machines are blessed by its use,
New or old it will save from wear and abuse.
Every man try it, we are sure it will please.
Our initials, when read, will give the cue
In looking for oil, the best and the true, Long in the market, but ever new.
Manufactured solely by McColl Bros. & Co., Toronto. No connection with any other firm.

CANING A CONSERVATIVE.

How Dr. Sproule, M. P., got even with Mr. Hugh Chisholm.
Dr. Sproule, M. P., is a grateful man,
The member for East Grey, too, is open-handed and large-hearted. And he has manifesting these traits of character in a manner which will cause his constituents in this portion of the riding a considerable amount of pleasure.
He has done honor to a gentleman to whom honor is due, and he has done it in that unostentatious manner peculiar to a true gentleman. Mr. Hugh Chisholm, of the firm of H. Chisholm & Co., Meaford, was Dr. Sproule's financial agent at the last general election, and an efficient agent, too, he proved himself to be. He carefully guarded the interest of the candidate, and did so with suavity and in the unassuming way peculiarly his own. Dr. Sproule naturally felt grateful. And as his financial agent would accept of no emolument for the very considerable trouble he had been put to, the worthy doctor cast about him for a means to express his gratitude. The result was that on Mr. Chisholm's leaving for home after attending the Conservative banquet at Markdale last week, Dr. Sproule asked him if he could make it convenient to call around to his place before he drove off. Chisholm, in the innocence of a man that is looking for no favour, did as was bid. As he was about to drive away Dr. Sproule handed him in the most beautiful gold-cane we have ever had the honor to examine. It is a perfect beauty, must be seen to be thoroughly appreciated. The gold-head, which is richly engraved on it the following inscription in the style of the engraver's art:
FROM
DR. SPROULE, M. P. to his respectful
FRIEND,
H. CHISHOLM,
Meaford.
It is unnecessary to say, Chisholm was completely astonished and gratified by surprise, and that he thoroughly appreciated the gift of the member for East Grey.
