NORTH WEST. 'The following we clip from a communica tion in the Advance, from Mr. R. Gordon, of Flesherton, who is on a trip to the North

After enjoying the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Cullen (whose kindness I never shall forget) for a few days, we returned to Regina-our friend placing his comfortable rig at our disposal, and kindly driving us to the city.

On Monday evening, June 4th, I started on my homeward trip, arriving next morning at Wolseley where our old time friends, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Dodds, gave us a hearty welcome. They have settled down in one of the best localities of the Qu'Appelle district. and this rising town has a better appearance as regards surroundings than Regina. The the reason is because all the farms surround ing Wolseley, being of a superior quality well watered, and all taken up and improved by actual settlers, and nearly every half section having a neat cottage, even quite close to the town, gives it a home-like appearance in a strong contrast with Regina where the farm houses are miles out, giving the courtry a desolate appearance. Wolseley is dertined to be one of the liveliest places on the line, and our friend Dodds will be found in a comfortable and well stocked general store, doing a splendid business. He has the run of the place, and and also does the bulk of the trade of the Primitive Methodist , colony located about 30 miles North of this place, and composed of upwards of 150 families. We paid a visit to the Dodds homestead yesterday, and I find that our friend has not been unmindful to himself with regard to providing a pleasant home when he retires, from public life—he being the leading man of that place, having lately been commissioned a J. P. He is also issuer of Marriage Licen ses and only requires a good supply of the gentle sex from Ontario to make youthful pioneers of this locality happy. The immediate vicinity of the town is chiefly settled by emigrants from Nova Scotia, who are of energetic and pushing habits; and my im pression is that in the near future this settlement will be one of the richest on the line of the C. P. R.
