SERIOUS ACCIDENT TO AN OLD RESIDENT.—It was with profound regret that the news was received here on Monday that James Patterson, sr., of Blantyre, had on the day previous nearly lost his life, while starting home from Church in Euphrasia. It appears that Mr. Patterson was backing up the team, Mrs. Jas. Paterson jr., being in the wagon at the time, when in some way the wagon upset throwing Mr. Patterson out upon the whiffletrees. The horses then commenced kicking and every kick took effect on the head and body of the old gentleman. When rescued he was found to be insensible. He was speedily removed to his home and Dr. Maclean sent for. His wounds were properly attended to, but it seemed doubtful whether the patient would survive, but he rested better that night than was expected. As soon as the state of the wounds would permit it was found that he had received severe injuries on the abdomen, and that several of his ribs were separated from the cartilage, if not broken. His head is a mass of bruises. The Doctor, however, entertains hopes of Mr. Patterson's ultimate recovery. Mr. Patterson jr., was bruised on the side, but not so seriously.—Monitor.
