Mr. W. F. Doll has sold the stabling and harness to Mr. Thomson, we hope to see him in town, some- where or near it, and fit it up.

Mr. John Stephens lost a horse at Markby. The animal worked as usual the forenoon and at noon hour took Colic and died the same day.

Mr. Wm. Sargent is going to exhibit his patent Lead Piter at the Industrial Exhibition, Toronto, and Mr. J. G. Irving his patent pump sucker.

The temperance meeting Tuesday night was very poorly attended, had it been a Nigger show there would have been a crowded house. A lodge of the sons of temperance is being organized, however.

Fast.—At Sparlings 'Eclipse Mill' on Friday last Thos. Watson, sawed and edged 14,500 shingles in 10 hours, while Willie Bailey packed them the same day. This is hard to beat we should think.

Mr. Wm. Ford who is a practical miller of Brant Co. has been visiting his brother here recently. He strongly recommends a fall wheat called the Michigan Amber, now the leading variety in Brant Co. J. W. Ford has ordered 20 bushels which will be to hand next week, the price will be about $1.50 per bushel here. Parties wishing to try a bushel or two will require to send in their order at once.

J. R. Trimble intends shipping three horses to the Toronto exhibition, for the races.

An exchange puts it thus: Tight pants are going out of fashion, but tight men never will.

The vote on the main motion for the adoption of the basis of union was taken at midnight Monday night in the General Conference at Belleville, and carried by a vote of 123 for and 38 against.

One volunteer is considered as good as two drafted. The popularity of the Standard is shown in a practical manner, by a constant stream of new, voluntary subscribers. This is a very encouraging state of affairs.

This week W. J. McFarland will show the contents of twelve cases Shawls, Blankets, Scotch Tweeds, Velvets, Laces, Scotch Caps, &c. imported direct from Manchester Eng. and Glasgow Scotland.

Our old friend Mr. E. D. Wilcox, has not forgotten Markdale, having forwarded a special exhibit from Manitoba for the Glenelg Agricultural Society which will doubtless be a prominent feature at the show.

Mr. J. B. Fuller, Portrait Artist, of Toronto, is staying a short time in this place and makes a specialty of enlarging pictures from small photographs to full life size. We have examined some of his work which speaks for itself, and shows rare ability of execution. The work is done by hand, and is of a superior order.

T. F. Brown, L. D. S., will be in Markdale for a few weeks from the 1st September. All who need dental work at moderate prices will be carefully attended to. Preservation of teeth by filling a specialty. Office at Doll & Brown's Jewellery store.

W. F. Doll left here, for New York, on Tuesday, to buy American Watches he expects to return in about 15 days with a very large assortment of Wallum, Elgin, Springfield, and other American Watches in Gold and Silver Hunting and open face. Key and stem winding, box and dust proof cases. Mr. Doll will be in Markdale seven or eight days the last of this month, before starting again for the West.

Trimble & Wright appear to have good hopes of doing an extensive fall trade, if we would judge by the immense stock just opened. There is stacks of goods and an endless variety to choose from, and we have no doubt their prices are right. Read their new advertisement in this paper and then go and inspect for yourselves.

One of the items of Maxwell news sent us last week which we published was, we are informed without foundation, there being no truth in the reports that Mr. Long is about selling, neither is the Hotel likely to change hands. The reported purchaser of the latter has not been in the Township for 3 months.

The new bridge at Lomas's creek on the town line between Artemesia and Euphrasia, is now about complete, and reflects credit on both contractors and commissioners. The job is a substantial one, which will not be in need of repairs for many a year. We have yet to see a more competent road commissioner than Mr. A. Elliott his road jobs for the past seven or eight years are sufficient proof of his ability in these matters. The contractors, Messrs. Blain & Wyvill have not to believe made decent wages on the job.

ASTONISHING.—107 chests of Tea sold by W. J. McFarland in less than 8 weeks or over 4,000 lbs. being an average of 76½ pounds daily.

Mr. Fred Young of East Garafraxa, has lost fourteen fine sheep and lambs by lightning. Some of them were torn by the fluid and so thrown in a heap promiscuously on the ground. His loss is over $100.

Some people possess more money than sense. The latest example is Wannamaker, the Philadelphia merchant, who threw away $200,000 in advertising last year and only pocketed a profit of a million in the transaction.

The case of Queen v. Archibald McClellan, of Toronto, was advanced a stage before Judge McDougall last Thursday, when an adjournment was made to secure the services of a material crown witness.

James Nelson, jr., of Euphrasia, killed a large garter snake on Monday last while harvesting, and strange but true, the snake was literally crammed full of potato Bugs. The neighbors since vow vengeance on any person who will kill a snake.

Are you insured? if not you should be; the sure way is always the best. Mr. W. L. Young is agent for the British America, Lancashire, and Fire Insurance Association of London, England. These are good strong companies, and Mr. Young is a reliable agent, and does his work in a prompt and business like manner, give him a call.

Mr. Henry Meldrum, has resigned his position as agent for the T. G. & B. Ry., at Flesherton Station, which position he has filled for ten years, to the entire satisfaction of the company and public, and credit to himself. He was the recipient of an address and present at the hands of the company.

Those famous solid leather boots, Mens, Womens, Girls, and Boys, 2,000 pairs opened and marked off at W. J. McFarland's.

Was there ever such a year for storms of one kind and another? How the winds take the matter in hand! Then in the water, then fires, and so forth. How is it all to be accounted for? It is just as well for the wisest to say they don't know, for after all this is just what it amounts to.

An entertainment will be given in the Orange Valley school house, on Friday the 14th September, under the auspices of the Artemesia Band of Hope Lodge. There will be a play acted entitled, the first glass and what it led to, together with Music, Recitation, &c., from Markdale and Flesherton amateurs. Admission 15 cents Double tickets 25 cents.

A very successful tea meeting was held in the Methodist Church, Dundalk, on Thursday last. The pastor Rev. Mr. Snowden, made an appeal for the liquidation of the Parsonage debt, $350, the whole of which was obtained. Congratulatory Addresses were afterwards delivered by the Revs. Mr. Sherrin, Forest and Cascu.

ANNoyANCE.—It is a common practice among some of our shop boys to sweep the dust and waste paper out on the street every morning, these papers are continually rolling about to the great annoyance of persons with skittish horses and are apt to cause serious damage by teams taking fright and running away. A little care would save all this annoyance.

We will in a short time send to each debtor a statement of their indebtedness whether for subscription or other account, and will expect a prompt response from each. Next week we enter upon our fourth year in the business and we are desirous of having old scores settled, we have never yet been in court either as a witness or a party, but fear we will not be able to say so long, as we have a batch of delinquents for next division Court sittings, which will be held in October.

MANHOOD

HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED

We have recently published a new edition of Dr. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical and permanent cure (without medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, &c., resulting from excesses. Price, in sealed envelope, only 6 cents, or two postage stamps. The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years' successful practice, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicines or the use of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically. This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land. Address
