KEEP your feet dry.

OUR wood is out—d'ye hear.

GRAIN is now coming in freely.

MR. AND MRS. R. H. BYERS left this week for Rochester.

ABOUT four inches of snow this Thursday morning.

COMPLETE outfits for auctioneers, at the STANDARD Office.

BLANK notes, receipts and all such forms for sale at the STANDARD Office.

LAST night was halloweve; dear-oh dear how things are mixed up this morning.

MR. HULL has erected this week his carriage house in connection with the livery.

OUR railway station has been this week improved by a new floor and the walls calcimined.

TRIMBLE & WRIGHT are crowded to their utmost capacity to attend to the wants of their numerous customers.

MR. J. R. ANDERSON had his residence veneered with brick recently, which gives it a comfortable appearance.

MR. N. CAMPBELL, Flesherton, has painted his residence and otherwise very greatly improved the house and surroundings.

LOST on Oct. 13th, near Markdale, a silver watch, finder will be liberally rewarded by leaving it at the STANDARD office.

MR. J. R. TRIMBLE, of the firm of Trimble & Wright, is in Toronto this week attending the trade sales. Look out for Big bargains.

ALL business places will be closed on Thanksgiving day except the photo gallery. New improvements for that day, be sure you call and see them.

NEXT Thursday being a public holiday the STANDARD will be published a day early. Our correspondents will please make a note of this and send in the news a day early.

We have made arrangements with the World Publishing Co. whereby we are enabled to club that newsy and independent daily paper with the STANDARD for $3.50 cash.

TO SELL OR TRADE.—A large cow rising 5 years, farrow, will sell or trade for a good cow in calf Joseph Henderson, Lot North 1/2 5, con. 7 Euphrasia, about six miles from Markdale.

MR. O. W. SMITH, we are informed, has purchased eight hundred acres of pine and cedar lands on the Indian Peninsula where he intends to commence operations in a few days.

A SAMPLE of spring wheat from the N. W. T. can be seen at the STANDARD office which was sent us by G. L. Dolds, of Wolseley, formerly of Glenelg. The quality of grain is good.

At a meeting of the trustees last night one Mr. Norris was engaged as head teacher at a salary of $350. The present female teachers were re-engaged.

THANKSGIVING DAY.—The second Thursday in November, being the 8th will be set apart as a day of thanksgiving for the people of Canada, to give public expression of their gratitude for numberless benefits received.

JOHN McDUFFIE returned last Tuesday from the Ontario and Quebec Railway, where he has been overseer of a gang during the past Summer. He leaves for Port Arthur on Saturday.

Wood is very scarce just now in Markdale, some of our citizens who have a supply say they will likely cause an explosion in somebody's stove if they do not desist visiting wood piles at night.

The addition to the Markdale house is about completed and will add materially to the convenience of the place. The lower portion will be used as kitchen and woodshed while the upper story is intended for bed rooms.

MR. MUTRIE, advertises his farm for sale in this paper. It is located two and a half miles from Markdale and is a very good farm. We hope Mr. M. will change his mind and decide to remain, we do not like to lose such respected enterprising and well-to-do residents.

Big rush of busines at Reynolds' since they got their fall goods in. Our stock is complete in every department and all our goods are of the latest fashion and at prices that beat the best on record. Call and see us; no trouble to show goods. C. Reynolds & Son.

An auction sale of farm stock and implements will take place at Edward Sargen's near Berkeley on Monday the 12th November. There is six horses and a large quantity of other stock implements &c in the bill for sale. Twelve months credit, see bills for full particulars. Geo. Noble Auctioneer.

NEWSPAPER subscriptions are always paid in advance; that is to say, if the subscriber does not do it the publisher is obliged to, as the paper dealers, the compositors, the type makers, ink makers, scissor grinder, the pencil sharpener, the pressman, the landlord, and others will not wait for their pay until the year expires.

MR. WHYTE, the new General Manager of the T. G. & B. Railway, who is also Manager of the C. V. R. and O. & Q. Railways passed up on the morning train Wednesday. Mr. Whyte is a thoroughly practical man and wishes to become personally acquainted with the business men along the line, and for this purpose he met a number of our leading men at the station yesterday.

SHAMEFUL.—A broken or loose board in the sidewalk is a very dangerous thing and may sometimes cause very serious results, but when it comes to leaving open cellar approaches on or immediately adjoining the street, it is altogether an action not to be excused in any one. Such is the case at the North side of McFarland's building, where only the other night a person falling into it miraculously escaped being killed. The place should be fixed securely at once.

W. Hogg, Flesherton Station, announces the arrival of his new fall goods, intending purchasers would do well to examine them. He also advertises his water power saw mill at Little Falls, with those blocks of timber lands on which it is situated for sale or to let. The creek from Cullen's lake, with numerous additional springs, runs through this land on a rapid down grade, making several excellent mill sites on the property. The mill is driven under 80 feet head of water.

Loak, preserve us, Sandy, what in a this worl is the matter wi ye, noo add sake yer puffin an blawing as tho ye had the heaves, or was broken winded, weel Jock I'll just tell ye I've come in frae the south line o' Glenelg 7 lang miles a' the way on my fot jest to get a 10 or 20 lbs o' that tea o' Trimble & Wrights, we've been out of for twa or three days and the guid wife is just as cross as twa sticks, I tell ye its the best tea I ever used since I crossed the sault water.

THE Agents Herald is a four column sixteen page monthly journal, published in Philadelphia, by L. Lum Smith, at 50 cents per year or 5 cts for a single copy. It is a valuable paper for publishers because it exposes fraudulent advertisers; it is valuable to advertisers showing up publishers whose bonafide circulation is in many instances not half what they represent; it is valuable to agents because all kinds of reliable articles are advertised for sale through its columns and agents wanted; it is valuable to the public warning them of the thousand and one frauds that are being advertised from time to time in large papers.

Dundalk.

Grain is beginning to come in, but there is very little wheat marketed yet, and on the whole business is rather quiet.

MR. Whyte, the new manager of the T. G. & B. R., held an interview with the leading business men of the village, at the station on Wednesday last.

MR. T. Hanbury has sold part of his beautiful park lot to Mr. J. J. Middleton, and another portion to Mr. T. Hall. Both gentlemen intend erecting tasty residences during the coming season.

MR. J. Stinson, of the vicinity of Markdale had a narrow escape, when removing the scaffolding from McCullough, new hotel. He fell from a considerable height. He did not receive any serious injury.

Chatsworth.

From a correspondent.

Grain is coming in slowly.

Wes. Roberts has left to take a situation in Mount Forest.

MR. Matthews, the hotel keeper's father, is removing to Dakota.

MR. Thos. Stephenson was banqueted at Campbell's hotel on the eve of his departure for Mount Forest.

Quite a number of cases were disposed of at the division court, last Thursday, a large number were in attendance.

The young men of this place purpose celebrating Thanksgiving Day by a squirrel hunt, the losing party paying for the supper. Messrs. Young and Hebertson are captains.

Williamstord Station.

From a correspondent.

Our enterprising merchant has his grain house up, having raised the frame on Monday. It is a strong substantial structure and will be pushed to completion with all possible speed.

DR. Cameron, of Owen Sound, grand master of the C. O. O. F., and Mr. McMurchy, of the same place, deputy district grand master, visited our lodge on Tuesday evening last, results satisfactory.

Maxwell.

MR. Joseph Kerton moved last week to Avening village, where, it is said, he is going into tavern keeping.

MR. Wm. Hamlin's family moved last week to Beaverton to join their head, who is in the mercantile business.

MR. Stinson's store has the appearance of taste and cleanliness, and friend Sharp, the manager knows how to keep it so.
