The Shelburne school trustees have decided to use the old school books and have rejected both the new series, for the time being at least, that's sensible. We consider it a piece of wholesale bungling having three sets of school books in use in the Province at the same time.

Many of the citizens of Markdale were aroused from their slumbers at midnight Tuesday night by what the majority thought was an alarm of fire which however was nothing more than a charivari party.

THE PUBLIC will no doubt be pleased to learn that Dr. Carter, formerly of this place is again coming to take Dr. Sproule's place in his absence to parliament. Dr. Carter is expected by the 1st January.

DENTISTRY.—T. F. Brown, L. D. S., of Woodstock, will be in Markdale on and after the 15th November for two weeks, filling, extracting, plate work &c satisfactory done. Charge moderate office at W. A. Brown's Jewellery Store.

EVERY TOWN and village has its own peculiarities, but never have we struck a place with as many bad boys to the square foot as Durham. They are, to all appearance, uncontrolled by either parental or legal authority, and ran the streets Sunday as well as week days, seeking to do evil. This is certainly a deplorable state of affairs. So says a traveller.

TRUE merit brings its own reward, in the case of Burdock Blood Bitters it is rapidly bringing its reward in its increased sales, as a prominent druggist recently said, "it now sells on its merits;" It is the grand specific for diseases of the blood, liver and kidneys, $5,000 bottles have been sold during the last three months. For sale by A. Turner & Co. Markdale.

EXTENSIVE SALE.—Mr. John Mercer has sold his farm, lots 109 and 110 second range east of T. & S. Road Artemesia about two miles east of Markdale and will have a credit sale on above premises next Monday the 26th inst., commencing at 12 o'clock, noon, terms 14 months credit on approved paper. Mr. Mercer has a fine stock of horses together with cattle, sheep, pigs, farm implements &c.—Geo. Noble Auctioneer.

MR. HANBURY will move to his farm, about five miles northwest of the city, some time next week. He will not be a candidate at the next municipal elections for the city. A number of settlers in the neighborhood of his farm home have expressed a wish that he should offer himself as a candidate for the reeveship of their township, and it is not unlikely he will consent. Mr. Hanbury is a pretty safe man, and may be trusted not to encourage extravagance.—Brandon Sm.

HE DIDN'T GO.—Prof. Jackson, a barber, colored, in Meaford has had considerable free advertising recently, and we think his trade must consequently largely increase. It appears he has been (owing to his complexion) an undesirable citizen to some probably white skinned, but certainly black hearted, resident of that town who have sent him letters threatening his destruction if he didn't leave the town at a certain date. That date has passed and the professor continues to lather and shave unmolested, and why not.
