Four People Murdered in Their Beds—Fifty Thousand Dollars Supposed to Have Been Carried off

JACKSON, Mich., Nov. 22.—Jacob Crouch, aged 70, the wealthiest farmer in the county, his daughter and her husband Henry White, and Moses Haley, visitor, were found dead in bed this morning, evidently murdered. All had been shot through the head behind the ear. It is supposed they had been chloroformed first, as no signs of a struggle appeared. Each victim was lying as if asleep and an odor of chloroform was noticeable when the bodies were discovered. Mrs. White was also shot through the left arm. No clue has yet been discovered although tracks around the house indicated that guard was placed while the murder was being perpetrated. Crouch was a wealthy farmer living seven miles southwest of Jackson, and owner of an extensive sheep ranche in Texas. It is rumored he had just received about $50,000 from Texas in payment of sales made on the ranche. Bankers here state no money was deposited by Crouch, and it is presumed that the money was in Crouch's hands. Polly was stopping at Couch's, having just come from Texas with a large amount of money for the purpose of buying blooded stock. The theory is that he (Polly) was followed from Texas by the murderer, or murderers, for the purpose of robbery. The house was thoroughly ransacked and everything of value carried away. A young girl, an adopted daughter of the Whites, and a negro aged 18 sleeping upstairs, say they heard no firing, although the negro says he heard a thumping noise about the middle of the night. He thought it was caused by the fierce wind that was blowing. Mrs. White was expected to become a mother shortly. The murder caused intense excitement. Hundreds of people flocked to the scene. A young negro named Boles has been arrested and jailed to await the results of the coroner's inquest to-morrow. An empty cartridge box was found in his room Crouch was worth about two million dollars.

The Steamer Eclipse Lost with Nearly all the Crew.

WIARTON, Ont., Nov. 26.—The steamer Eclipse left Algoma for Port Sarnia, was caught in a gale on Wednesday night off Pine Trees harbor and is supposed to be lost with nearly all hands, as a part of the wreck and three bodies came ashore with life preservers marked Eclipse. Papers found on one of their bodies identify it as that of Capt. Wm. Bush of Sarnia. John Drew was out loose from the steamer alone on a scow, which drifted ashore at Pike bay, and he is the only known survivor. Another of the bodies is believed to be that of James Moore, the engineer, of Thessalon.

WIARTON, Nov. 27.—John Drew, the only known survivor of the steamer Eclipse, states that he was asleep when cast adrift by the steamer. He awoke to find himself alone on Lake Huron and a fearful gale raging. He heard the steamer's whistle several times and then neither saw nor heard any more. At daylight he saw land about a mile distant, and about 4 p. m. the barge went ashore at Little Pike bay, and he jumped ashore and started for Wiarton, 16 miles distant.

He does not know the names of the crew, but they numbered seven. Some fishermen were out in a boat at Pine Tree harbor and saw three bodies floating near the shore with life preservers on marked "Str. Eclipse," and what appeared to be the upper works of a steamer. On one of the bodies was a watch and $22.25. On another there was a watch and $22., and on the third $8.92. Papers found identify one as Capt. Bush of the barge Etta, and J. Moore, engineer of the Eclipse.

Osprey.

From a correspondent.

A cowardly attack was recently made on a young man named John Graham, near his fathers residence on the centre line Osprey, by three men, two of them living in Maxwell and the other in the neighborhood of Wareham. Mr. Graham is an able bodied young man and could easily manage any two of the cowards had he not been seized treacherously by one of them until he was almost kicked to death by another. Mr. Graham is recovering.

Dundalk.

From our own correspondent.

J. J. Middleton & Sons have opened a branch store in Toronto.

Nomination day draws on the names of new candidates for municipal offices are becoming numerous, but nothing reliable can be ascertained, further than reported previously.

Our police trustees are threatened with a law suit for allowing an obstruction to remain on the sidewalk, in the shape of an enclosure around the front of a new building. One of our villagers ran against it one dark night and received some severe bruises, and it is said shook the building.

Our merchants unanimously vote "business dull," indeed it could scarcely be otherwise, considering the state of the roads. Apart from the influence of the season on them, they are out of repair, the council whose term of office is just expiring have been rather remiss in their duty as road commissioners. It is to be hoped that their successors will be more attentive to this matter.

Your correspondent acquainted you of the return of Mr. Higginbotham of Inistog, from Manitoba. He took up land while there, intending to remove there in the spring. He left his son in perfect health, but had only been home a week or so, when he received a telegram informing him of his son's death in the hospital in Winnipeg. The sad event has thrown a gloom over all who knew the young man, as he was highly respected.

District Dashes.

Creemore is soon to be a Police Village.

Several stores in Shelburne are being lit with gas.

W. H. Flesher, of Flesherton, has moved to Parry Sound.

The Shelburne Free Press is materially improved recently.

Wm. Garbett, of Glenelg, sold his farm to Thos. Greenwood.

Mr. Yost, of Bentinck, lost a fine bred cow worth $200, recently.

H. J. Middaugh will likely be a candidate for mayor of Durham.

Samuel Russel, of Proton, has sold his farm to A. R. Henderson, of Toronto.

Edward Williams, of Proton, sold his farm to David Cowan, Esq., of Leeds County.

Alex. Cornett, Esq., of Leeds Co., has purchased David Ferrier's farm in Proton, for $3,000.

The grist mill at the Sauble, on the Garafraxa road, has been overhauled and is again running.

The Dundalk Herald of last week had a lengthy article on the position of township councillors, very sensible.

The North Grey teachers have decided that there are serious defects in both the authorized series of readers.

A joint stock company for the purpose of encouraging the locating of manufacturing and other desirable enterprises in Walkerton is talked of in that town.

$150,000 FIRE IN PORT PERRY.—On Saturday night a most disastrous fire occurred at Port Perry, destroying the best part of the village. Fortunately no lives were lost.

A farmer near London, named Frank Meyers, aged 85 years, left his wife with five small children and eloped with a girl of sixteen, they are supposed to have gone to San Francisco, he having purchased two tickets for that place.
