News Notes.

OWEN SOUND, Ont., Nov. 25.—The steamer Francis Smith, which was recently reported lost with 100 passengers, arrived here yesterday in good condition.

Miss Bell, a young lady paint-maker Toronto, has been arrested at Guelph for dressing in man's attire. Perhaps Miss Bell was only wearing the pants to show the quality of her sewing.

Chicago, Nov. 26.—All the railroads but the Michigan Central have adopted the twenty-four o'clock system.

The Grand Trunk Railway Company, always on the look-out to buy what it can't grab, is about to connect its system with the Rome, Watertown & Ogdensburg, and thus secure a south shore route to Chicago. After a while, when the dog of monopoly gets a good grip, he'll give this country a shake which will make it feel sore.

A convention of railway men will shortly be held to draw up a uniform system of railroad signals. At present every road appears to have its own method of signalling.

What Constitutes a Nation?

Frequently of late Canada has been referred to as a nation.

Is Canada a nation?

What is a nation?

Is it a string of colonies joined together by Act of Parliament, but separated in every interest?

Can a nation officially speak two distinct languages?

Is the question of nationality settled when two of the colonies are fighting for a strip of disputed territory that neither cared for till the other claimed it?

What have we that is national?

Canada has a national day, when the shops and stores are shut; a Federal Parliament, where the provincial and party sore are opened.

We have nothing else national except the game of lacross and the Niagara Falls.

And half of the Niagara Falls belongs to the Yankees!—Morning News.
