CONVERTING THE HEATHEN Moody and Sankey's Saccess in England's Great Metropolis.

London, Dec. 23.—Moody and Sankey concluded their two weeks mission at Stepney to-day. Five immense meetings were held in their hall, and overflow meetings conducted in Stepney church and Beaumont hall. The interest excited by the mission at Stepney is remarkable, as there it has reached a lower class of the population than heretofore. Fervent and crowded inquiry meetings have been held, and thousands of people have been converted. The attendance at the churches in Stepney has been largely increased. The mission services have been partially suspended until after the holidays, and will be resumed at Clapham, whither the iron mission hall will in the meantime be removed. From Chapham the evangelists will go to Stratford. They have engagements up to July. Worald.
