REMEMBER the extensive auction sale of town lots on Saturday, 2nd in Markdale. This is a rare chance to procure a choice plot for a residence, the location is a most desirable one, the terms easy and another such chance may not be available until prices have greatly advanced.

MR. W. MASON had just received a large and extra good stock of wood material for carriages and wagons for the coming season when the late fire consumed his shop and threw him out of business. He has since sold his stock to our enterprising townsmen Mr. D. J. Shanahan and has also accepted a situation with Mr. S.

ANOTHER AUCTIONEER.—Mr. Joseph Manarey of Euphrasia has taken out license for the County of Grey and has wielded the hammer with success at several sales, and has a number more on hand. Those who require the services of such will be promptly attended to by writing him at Hark-away P. O. or by leaving their order at this office.

WE direct the attention of our readers to the card of Dr. Carter in this paper. Having returned to Markdale where he will follow his profession, will doubtless receive a large practice. His business will be entirely separate and independant from that of Dr. Sproule, as many have the idea he is in partnership with the latter, this notice is necessary.

interesting and valuable volume. Mr.

THAT SNOW PLOW.—We are informed that Mr. O. Jull is that inventor of the new snow plow, and the Captain Leslie has joined him in getting up a company to manufacture them.
The patent has already been secured, both in Canada and the States.
Experienced railway men in Toronto, who examined the model, pronounce a favorable verdict, and there is every probability of its proving a success.— Orangeville Advertiser.

THE acquittal of Conductor Barber will be approved of by all just men.
To have made him the scapegoat of a corporation which keeps down expenses by overworking its employees and stinting them in pay would have been a great injustice. It is upon the company that the greatest blow should fall, for when greedy monopoly causes the death of a man it should be compelled to support and educate his family.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—The ladies

Secretary, Mrs. T. Hill. Directors, Mrs. Bowes, Mrs. Hull, Mrs. McKenna and Mrs. McNea. It was decided to hold the annual Bazaar and concert on the 24th May. A social will be given soon, of which due notice will be given.
