NEWSPAPER LAW.

1. Any person who takes a newspaper regularly from the post office, whether directed to his name or another's, or whether he has signed for it, is responsible for the payment.
2. If a person orders his paper discontinued he is liable to pay all arrears, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made, and then collect the whole amount, if the paper is taken out of the office or not.
3. If subscribers refuse or neglect to take their papers, or if new papers from the office to which they are directed, they are held responsible until they have settled their bills.
4. The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the post office, or removing and leaving them uncollected, is PRIMA FACIE evidence of intentional fraud.

PRINCE LEOPOLD DEAD.

The Queen's Youngest and Most Studious Son.
WHO WISHED TO BE APPOINTED GOVERNOR-GENERAL OF CANADA.

LONDON, March 28.—Prince Leopold, the youngest son of Queen Victoria, died suddenly at Cannes this morning.
The Queen is profoundly affected by the death of the prince, who died in a fit as he was starting for Darmstadt to attend the wedding of his niece, Princess Victoria of Hesse.
The residence of the Prince of Wales is besieged by people calling to express condolence.
The body of the Duke of Albany will be embalmed and brought to England the end of next week to be buried at Frogmore. The cause of the Duke's death was effusion of blood into the stomach and lungs. There were no unusual premonitions, but the symptoms have long been threatening.
The Queen, receiving the ex-Empress Eugenie, clasped her in her arms and was evidently much consoled by her sympathy. Telegrams of condolence are arriving from all parts of the world.
When the Queen first heard of the Duke's death, she was seized with a paroxysm of weeping. The Duke fell on the steps of the clubhouse at 6.30 on Thursday evening. He was well enough afterwards to write a dispatch to the Duchess, stating that he had fallen, and possibly would not be able to leave for England to-day. The Duke struck on his head when he fell.
The escort will start with the body on Tuesday morning.
OTTAWA, March 28.—In consequence of the death of H. R. H. the Duke of Albany, the afternoon party and dinner at Government House on Saturday, March 29, for which invitations have been issued, will not take place.
The Union Jack floated at half-mast from the parliament buildings and other public places in the city after the news was heard here to-day.
GUELPH, March 28.—The flags were flying at half-mast from the city hall and the public and private buildings as a mark of respect to the memory of the late Prince Leopold.
[Prince Leopold was born April 7, 1853, and was married March 13, 1879, to Princess Louise of Prussia.
He was of a quiet and studious disposition, and of an artistic turn of mind, taking a great deal of interest in scientific matters. His health has never been good, and his death will be a matter of surprise to few. Just before the appointment of Lord Lansdowne as Governor General of Canada it was rumored that Prince Leopold would be appointed to the position.
This statement, of course, excited much interest. Investigation showed that the Prince had himself suggested that he be appointed to the position, but the proposition was not favorably received by the British Government which replied in a courteous manner giving reasons for refusal.]
