Mr. Jas. Bryan, of the Mansion House, is doing a steady and satisfactory business. His large sheds are generally well filled.

A BRUTAL quarrel between two families near Blyth, Ont., occurred on Monday last. One of the parties, Wm. Maines, died from injuries received the same day. The parties were arrested.

It is always satisfactory to have a large stock to select from, therefore you will be rewarded by dealing for Watches, Clocks, Plated ware, Wedding Rings, Specks, etc., with W. A. Brown, Jeweller, Markdale.

We all do fade as a leaf. Miss Colyer, of Griffin's Corners, who left here a few weeks ago for the States, died suddenly of heart disease. Her remains were brought home for burial.

LARDINE MACHINE OIL, is the delight of farmers, and a pleasure to all men using Machinery, it cannot be excelled, it has received the highest awards at Dominion and Provincial Exhibitions. McCall Bros. & Co., sole manufacturers, Toronto.

Mrs. McClements, whom for many years has been Post-mistress at Latona, Glenelg, died from cancer. She suffered much. But her faith was strong. She leaves a husband, whose health is poor, and a number of small children to mourn her loss.

CHATSWORTH people are exhibiting commendable enterprise in the shape of public improvements. They are in advance of any of our police villages in the matter of fire protection, and now they have about decided to erect a town hall, at a cost of $875.

MOFFAT BROS., of the Markdale foundry, have manufactured a number of plows this season, which are giving excellent satisfaction. Those in need of such an implement should see Moffat's plow. Support home enterprise and purchase your plows at home.

I INVITE inspection of my complete stock in Gold Filled and Coin Silver Cases, also Waltham, Elgin and Swiss grades of movements, fully guaranteed. Prices close. Get my quotations ere you buy and save from 1 to 3 dollars. W. A. Brown, Jeweller, Markdale.

DROWNING ACCIDENT AT DURHAM.—A case of drowning occurred a mile from Durham last Monday morning. A lad 14 years of age, named McQuarrie, while assisting in washing sheep was dragged into the stream and carried away before any assistance could be given.

ANY person wishing to secure a choice lot for a residence cannot do better than to see Mr. M. Armstrong at once. He has a number of shade trees planted on the newly surveyed streets, which will be opened to the public during this season. Terms will be made easy.

J. C. GRIFFITHS, of Owen Sound, has purchased his partners interest in the business heretofore carried on under the name of J. C. Griffiths & Co. and will hereafter carry it on alone. Mr. Griffiths is an enterprising and reliable business man and deserves the large custom which he enjoys.

MILL owners who require repairs and those who purpose building a mill should consult Moffat Bros., Markdale. They are first-class practical machinists who thoroughly understand their business, and manufacture all kinds of mill work, such as steam engines, shaftings, etc., etc.

REV. WESLEY CASSON, of Markdale, late of this place, was in town over Sunday, attending the funeral of the late Mr. Miller. He occupied the pulpit of the Methodist Church in the evening, and preached an eloquent and impressive sermon to the largest congregation we have ever seen in Parry Sound.—Parry Sound Star.

HAVE you a friend living at a distance who you know would highly appreciate the weekly visit of the STANDARD. If so why not send them a copy, we will forward it to any address the balance of the year for 60 cents. Quite a number are now sending the STANDARD to friends in this way, while there are many more who only require to take a thought, to do likewise.

On Saturday morning about half-past nine o'clock fire was discovered in the basement of the Mail building. The flames spread with lightning rapidity up the elevator shaft, and soon the roof was in flames. The brigade, however, worked well, their exertions being crippled through the lack of water pressure. The Bell Telephone Company suffered most, the city service being completely wrecked. The total damage is estimated at $20,000, fully covered by insurance.

Mr. J. Plewes has opened a flour and feed store opposite Mrs. Hollinghead's fruit store, Mill Street, where he has on hand Family flour, Bakers flour, Pastry flour, Patent flour, Graham flour, Cracked wheat, Oatmeal, Bran, Shorts, Chop feed, Oats, &c. This will be a great convenience to the citizens as we have been heretofore without a general feed store.

J. E. LAUDER & Co. have sold their wholesale liquor and grocery business and will leave in a few days for Peoria, Ill. Mr. Lauder has made many warm friends in Markdale during his short stay in the place and he, together with his better half, carry with them the best wishes of the community. Mr. Robert Benson, who purchased the business, is now in possession and will doubtless do a lively trade.

The leading merchants of Markdale have agreed unanimously on closing their stores at 7 o'clock sharp every evening, beginning from 1st May to 1st Oct. Farmers and others will kindly take notice of this and try to have their shopping done before seven so that clerks, who have to stand in stores all through the heat of a long Summer day, may have a chance of engaging in some out door exercise and enjoying the fresh air. 190-94

TWO YOUNG GENTLEMEN, brothers, from Cheltenham, England, arrived last week, having come to this part with the intention of learning to farm. The eldest is a graduate of Dublin University, while the younger has also a good education. They are very respectable and well-to-do. The younger has already secured a place with Mr. B. Wright, and the elder, who is 24 years of age, is desirous of securing one. He is now staying with Mr. Thos. Boland, where another from the same place has been for two years learning to farm with satisfactory results both to his employer and himself.

Mr. JOHN McALEAR has secured license for the new hotel in this place, to be known as the City Hotel. The house is now fitted out in good style and has new stables erected in connection therewith, so that the travelling public will find a comfortable lodging place, with every necessary attention paid to their wants. We are opposed to any increase in the number of hotels in Markdale, and also to the great liquor traffic generally, yet when we have both in our midst, we are pleased to have such men as Mr. John McAlear in the business, who will conduct it properly and efficiently.

The Late Mr. Miller.

THE LAST TRIBUTE OF RESPECT PAID TO HIS REMAINS.

(From Friday's Globe.)

PARRY SOUND, May 20.—On Saturday evening, the 17th inst., the steamer Northern Belle arrived from Collingwood with the remains of Mr. J. C. Miller, ex-M. P. P. for Muskoka and Parry Sound, who died at Colton, Southern California, on the second day of April. Early on Sunday morning the friends of the deceased began to arrive—persons of every creed and shade of politics, and from many miles distant. The Rev. Mr. Casson, of Markdale, (who was there by a special request of the deceased) conducted the ceremonies. He read the ninetieth Psalm, and addressed the large assemblage in a brief and truthful eulogy on the deceased's many traits of goodness, his free and fearless manner of recognizing right, his determined character, his pronounced principles, his appreciation of honesty and worth, and his industrious habit and active life, his persevering enterprise, his indomitable courage, his buoyant and hopeful spirit while battling with ill health and the burdens and care of business, his shrewdness and courage, which often changed what seemed to be disaster into a successful venture, his keen judgment of character, his warm and unswerving friendship, when he found a friend worthy of his confidence and esteem. He then spoke of the closing scenes of his busy life, passing away in a quiet and peaceful rest, commending his spirit to God who gave it and in hope of a glorious resurrection through Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour.

After a short prayer, at ten minutes to three p.m., the coffin was borne to the hearse, and the procession moved off to the cemetery in the following order:—The Parry Sound Brass Band, playing the Dead March. Immediately preceding the hearse where the attending physician and officiating clergyman, Dr. Bridgland, of Bracebridge, and the Rev. Mr. Casson, of Markdale; the hearse; and the pall-bearers, namely:—A. P. Cockburn, M.P., D. F. Macdonald, John T. Harvie, George Paget, Thos. R. Caton, Thomas Myers,

J. S. Rogerson, Frank Strain. Next came the chief mourners, including Mr. J. B. Miller, only son of the deceased; Mr. S. B. Purvis and Mr. John Purvis, nephews of the deceased; also Mr. W. H. Pratt. Following the chief mourners came about two hundred of the Parry Sound Lumber Company's employees; immediately after them the Reeves and Corporations of the townships of McDougall, Foley, McKellar and Humphrey; then followed the friends, visitors, and delegates from all parts of the district.

MARKDALE Steam Woollen Mill.

The undersigned would respectfully return, thanks to their many customers and friends for the very liberal support accorded to them during the past, and would solicit a continuance of the same, as we are now ready to attend to all work intrusted to our care in CUSTOM CARDING, FULLING and WEAVING in first-class style. As we have put on new cards, and made other improvements, we will endeavor to do as good work in the future, if not better, than we have ever done in the past.

Customers wishing to have their wool carded, spun and made into blankets or flannel, on cotton warp, can have their orders attended to by leaving their wool as early as possible.

Please remember the place, Mill Street, west of the Railway Station.
