We notice that Mr. T. Hall, of the Dundalk Herald, has been successful in the Ladies' Journal competition, having received an elegant silver tea service, of six pieces, valued at $110. It isn't every local editor that can sport a silver tea set, and if it was left to the profits of the trade very few could afford it.

A TEAM, with a load of pressed hay, took fright at the steamboat whistle in Meaford on Monday, the 26th May, just before the Wharton excursion party left the wharf, and ran at a furious rate through the crowd, running over about a dozen, many of whom were more or less injured. Several were wounded but none fatally.

KEPT THEM OUT.—Two men, not 1,000 miles from Markdale were planting potatoes this week; they had seed in a barrel, and were afraid the cows on the road would enter the gateway, which was open, and demolish the contents of the barrel, so they set the barrel in the gateway and kept them out. It is needless to say the cows had a feed of potatoes.

SMOKE.—On Tuesday morning about 3 o'clock the inmates of the Revere hotel were awakened by a dense smoke and on rushing down stairs fire was discovered in the partition between the bar and dining room, it was soon however got under control. The fire appears to have originated in two places in the cellar and looks like the work of a would-be incendiary. The damage was trifling.
