MARKDALE JUNE 19, 1884.

A Clean Sheet.

The Methodist Church of Markdale, have wound up the business of the past conference year, and report a clean sheet in every particular. The minister's salary is paid in full; this of course is nothing new, as they do it every year, but then there was a debt hanging over the church and parsonage for a number of years, both of which are now entirely wiped out. The parsonage property comprises half an acre on Mark Street, which is a most handsome location and a valuable property with a comfortable brick dwelling thereon, while the church premises which corners that of the parsonage also contains half an acre, fronting on Toronto Street, and is a very handsome and valuable property. There is a probability, should the harvest be a bountiful one, of a fine brick church being erected in 1885. Too much credit and thanks cannot be given the ladies of the congregation for their untiring and successful efforts in assisting to bring about this very desirable state of affairs.

Correspondence.

NOTICE.—We wish it distinctly understood that we do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions expressed by our correspondents.

Vandeur.

To the Editor of the STANDARD.

SIR,—I have read with pleasure the "Parable" in last week's STANDARD, now I do not presume to act as judge for the public, but as this is not the first time the ADVANCE has taken upon itself to say what is, or is not fit for public reading, and as it has also refused the public the privilege of reading, that they may judge for themselves. I would just like to remark that I think it quite probable that the "blasphemy" was some place in the vicinity of the ADVANCE office when that parable met its besetting sin, and also, I think it sometimes beholds through a (smoked) glass darkly, as the last time I saw it, it was "sucking vehemently" at the other end of an immense pipe.

LIBERTY.

Flesherton.

From our own correspondent.

W. H. Flesher, Esq., son of W. K. Flesher, Esq., ex M. P., who moved from here some month ago to reside in Parry Sound, has returned to this village and taken up his abode here. Mr. Flesher is an active useful citizen we welcome to our midst again.

A large number of people from the village and vicinity availed themselves of the pleasure of the cheap trip to Toronto last week being the excursion under the auspices of the Flesherton Methodist Sabbath School. The day was all that could be desired, and although many returned well tired the general expression was, we had a good time.

Mrs. Fred Gee of Flesherton station departed this life last Thursday evening, her remains which were entered in the Flesherton cemetery last Saturday was followed to the grave by a very large number of sorrowing friends, being one of the largest funerals we have seen in this part of the country.

A little boy, son of Mr. Jas. Ludlow, met with a sad accident a few days ago, by falling from a horse and breaking his arm above the wrist.

Mr. Barnhouse of this place lost a valuable cow a few days ago, being choked with a potatoe.

The Presbyterian church here will be opened on Sunday the 29th, by Rev. Mr. Smith of Toronto. A tea-meeting will be held, and a lecture given by the above gentleman, on the evening of the 1st of July, Dominion Day in the town hall. Mr. Smith gave a lecture here on the occasion of the laying of the corner stone of this church, which was an intellectual treat and very highly appreciated, and there is no doubt there will be a large attendance at the opening and tea-meeting.

Dundalk.

From our own correspondent.

The captain of the Salvation Army was here last week, and made arrangements to attract the devil on the Dundalk forest, some time this week.

Mr. Chas. McConnell is again in luck, having on Sunday last trapped a large bear, weighing 295 lbs., and measuring 23 inches around the upper part of the fore leg.

Very little stir here concerning the Scott Act. If the scheme was well worked up in this section, a large majority would be polled in its favor, but as yet no move has been made in the matter by anyone. Temperance people here are doubtless awaiting the action of the committee at headquarters. We understand that Flesherton is the central point of engagements for Proton, Osprey and Artemesia.

Mr. Kiryan, formerly of Markdale, died here on Saturday last. His remains were taken on the 11.20 train going north to be interred in the family burying ground.

A false alarm of fire on Monday night aroused the majority of our citizens from their sleep.

Dundalk and Shelburne cricketers played a match here on Thursday last by careless fielding the Dundalk club lost the game by two runs.

Dundalk lacrosse club went to Shelburne on Tuesday last to play a match there. Of course our boys will be the victors.
