Ask your store keep for them and take no other.

"You can do anything if you have patience," said an old uncle, who had made a fortune, to his nephew, who had nearly spent one. "Water may be carried in a sieve, if you only wait.' "How long?" asked the penitent spendthrift. "Till it freezes," was the cold reply.

Home Influence.-The future of IRISH LAKE Pic-Nic.—The annual our country depends upon the youth of the land. While education, then, in the usual sense of the word, should be highly valued, as the same time our people should not forget the most important education from home influence, and home discipline.

> ACCIDENT.—One day last week while P. Ducolon and Robt. Sproule were driving, a front wheel suddenly broke down throwing both parties out and also throwing the horse, the three were considerably shaken up and more or less wounded, but they are all recovering except the buggy wheel which is still in a critical condition.

LEAP YEAR .- You talk about this being leap year but read the following: Mrs. Margaret Finlayson, a widow lady from Balshrire Scotland, arrived in Walkerton last Saturday afternoon direct from the old sod. At ten in the evening she was married to Mr. Alex. Bonniman, sr., of Brant, a man whom she had never previously seen. Business."

THAT Canada is rising in general favor abroad can no longer be doubt ed. Its fame is now spreading. A leading American, Professor L. IT RAINED FISH. - During the heavy thunder shower about two weeks ago a fish fell with the rain in Bowlers' brick yard, near this viltage. It was about ten inches long and of a silver color. Wesley Bowler had his hands on it and determined to further the scaly fish slipped from his grasp a few feet distant where it is, probably still living.

C. O. O. F, Excursion.—The Owen "CANADIAN PACIFIC Sound excursion to this place on Thursday last was almost a total failure in point of number. The reason we understand being a division among themselves as to whether they would excurt by rail or by boat. Those who did come however were highly pleased with their day's recreation, and also the way their brethren and others entertained them while in Markdale. The day was most beautiful and a very enjoyable time was spent.

The magical power over pain that Hagyard's Yellow Oil possesses, outrivals the marvels of ancient times. It acts in a natural manner to subdue inflammation; cures Kheumatism, Croup, Deafness, Sore Throat, and painful injuries.
