ENCOURAGING.—It is both gratifying and encouraging to know that the public fully appreciate our efforts to supply a live newsy local paper. We have been favored, since the 1st July, with 147 new subscribers, and expect by the 1st September to make it 200. This is just the manner in which we desire to have the public show their appreciation of our efforts.

THE BEST YET.—By special arrangement we are enabled to offer the Montreal Star together with the STANDARD six months for 65 cents. The Star is allowed to be the best family paper published while the STANDARD is hard to beat as a local paper, and the two are offered for about the price of one. Send in your subscription at once to this office for one or the both, you can have the Star for 30 cents or the STANDARD for 35 cents to any address, balance of year, cash in advance.

RECOVERING.—William J., son of Mr. James McNicol, of Artemesia, aged about 20, received a kick of a plow in the side over two months ago, which disabled him at the time, and he continued to grow worse, when a few weeks later he was confined to his bed, a lump gathered in the side and mortified, and at one time his life was despaired of. Dr. Christoe was in attendance, and we are pleased to learn that he is now up and around; and though several months will yet elapse before he is as rugged as before, he is in a fair way for recovery.

NEILSON BROS., of Proton Station, have erected a fine, substantial frame for a saw-mill on the ground of the one burned over a year since. They are now putting in the machinery, which is being fitted up by Moffatt Bros., of Markdale foundry. They removed a cast wheel from this foundry on Monday last which weighed 2000 lbs. Messrs. Neilson has sold the mill to one Mr. Burton, of Toronto, who expects to have it in operation about the 1st October. This will be good news for the people of Proton Station and vicinity.

RENOVATED.—Haskett Bros. (the proprietors) have overhauled the River Hotel throughout, having pulled down partitions, enlarged rooms, built an addition to the rear, and plastered and re-painted the house in the new. The work of overhauling is now nearing completion, and when finished will cost over $400, and will give the house a greatly improved appearance. They have secured a good man for the house in the person of Mr. John Colwell, who will take possession the 1st September. Mr. Colwell has had considerable experience in the hotel business and is highly spoken of. He will doubtless keep a well supplied house.
