SAW MILL AND TIMBER LAND FOR SALE OR TO LET

In the Township of Artemesia, County of Grey, 4 miles from Flesherton Station, on the Canadian Pacific Railway. The mill is situated at Little Falls, in a block of about 400 acres timber land, with other timber land surrounding. The building is substantially built on stone foundation. The machinery is all good and driven with great power by a 23 inch Lefell wheel, under 36 ft. head of water. There are one large circular saw for cutting logs, 2 small circulars for sawing lath and broom handles, 1 guage lathe for turning broom handles, etc., 1 shingle machine with jointer and packer complete. The water power is excellent, the stream being very regular. There are several other good mill sites on the property. The land in the valley is considered the best in the country. The place would make an excellent stock farm when the timber is taken off.

This offers a good opportunity for a practical, energetic man to go into this kind of business, as the place will be sold or let on liberal terms.

The bush is so convenient to the mill logs can be trucked in summer time. Immediate possession given.

A GOOD MOTTO.
 Waste not your substance in riotous living which feeds impure blood and clogs the system with disease. Open the channels of health, purify the blood, and regulate all the organs with Burdock Blood Bitters.

The Steamer Alberta leaves Owen Sound this week for her last trip to Port Arthur for the season.

DANGER IN THE AIR.
 In the chilling winds, the damp atmosphere, and suddenly checked perspiration, colds are lurking. Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam cures colds, coughs, asthma and bronchitis, and all complaints tending towards consumption.

Mt. Forest had a fire last week. There has been 88,000,000 feet of lumber shipped from Montreal to Brazil this season.

DEPEND UPON IT.
 You can depend upon Hagyard's Yellow Oil as a pain reliever in rheumatism, neuralgia and all painful and inflammatory complaint. It not only relieves but cures.

A boy named Sanderson fell into an open well at 70 school house, Holland, last week. His injuries were not serious.

 H. B. Cochran, druggist Lancaster, Pa., writes that he has guaranteed over 300 bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters for dyspepsia, bilious attack and liver and kidney troubles. In no case has it disappointed those who used it. In Canada it gives the same satisfaction.

THE BENEFIT OF NEWSPAPERS.—The country newspaper is the most useful and least compensated of all the agencies which stamp the impress of progress upon villages and inland towns. Without the aid of local newspapers, local towns are, as a rule, thriftless and dead. It is common for some great man to speak with contempt of the local newspapers, but the village newspaper makes more breaks men cut of less material—more great without straw—than any other factor in politics, and it is the one ladder on which men climb to local distinction as the beginning of wide fame. The advent of the local newspaper has always dated the increased thrift of the community. The local newspaper is the life of the locality, and the measure of its support as a rule measures the advancement of the people. Not only subscribers but pay for your local newspapers. They are friends and helpmates in all seasons.

NOT AN INDUCEMENT.—When advertising a piece of property for sale, a shrewd real estate agent will mention among other advantages location, good schools are within easy reach, the churches of different denominations are within easy reach, and that though in a quiet and retired place, two minutes' walk takes you to a street car line leading into the heart of the city, etc. Did you never notice in this enumeration of inducements to buy, the fact that a first-class saloon was located on the opposite corner, or that on the next block was a free lunch counter, where the best beer in the city was always on draught, or a pool-room which would be so pleasant and handy for the boys?

No, indeed. While the church and the school an easy access to business are essential to the well-being and maintenance of the home, the others are in every sense antagonistic and inimical to everything that is reckoned dearest and most valued in that sacred place.—E.T.
