We have a few subscribers over a year in arrears, which we will strike off our list at the end of this year, if not paid before that time, and will put their accounts in court for collection.

The number of this paper is 221.
Examine the number following your address on this paper, and if it is not as high a number as 121 you are in arrears, and should renew at once.

COMING.—Mr. Hamilton, our photographer, has secured the services of a first-class artist (Mr. Still of Orangeville) for one week, from Monday until Saturday, 8th to 13th inclusive. Come early in the day and secure a real life-like picture, in any size.

CREDIT SALE.—On Saturday, fair day, Mr. Edward Large will sell by auction at the Revere Hotel, Markdale, a number of horses, a cow, and other articles. Sale at 2 o'clock. George Noble, auctioneer.

Those indebted to us for job printing will please call and settle before the last of this month. We have to transfer all accounts into a new set of books, and it will very materially lighten the labor if the majority of accounts are settled before that date.

ORANGE SOIREE.—L. O. L. No. 740 will give a soiree in Price's New Hall, Holland Centre, on Tuesday evening the 16th inst. Several able speakers will give addresses and a good time is expected. Tea served from 6 to 8 o'clock. Admission 25 cents.

We have received from C. A. Fleming, Principal of Northern Business College, Owen Sound, an engraving of a beautiful piece of ornamental penmanship, 18 x 24 inches, which formed part of his display of pen work that carried off all the first prizes this year at the leading Exhibitions. It contains every variety of pen work, flourishing, lettering, shading, scrolling, &c. On the left hand side a beautiful wreath of flowers encloses a pen sketch of Inglis Falls near Owen Sound, and a similar wreath on the right surrounds a very pretty little pen sketch of Canadian scenery. Mr.
Fleming will send a copy of this magnificent piece of pen art on a roller by mail to every one who will enclose him two three cent stamps to pay postage and packing. Every one of our subscribers should take advantage of this liberal offer.

evening the 8th commencing in each place at 7 p. m.

SUBSCRIBERS.—Please take notice to the number following your address on this paper; it is the number of the paper to which your subscription is paid. The last paper this year will be No. 224 and each week afterwards will add one to that number, or one less for every week before. If your subscription expires at date, (224,) we would be pleased to have you renew at once; if it has expired some time in the past, kindly let us have the amount as soon as possible.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY.—About two o'clock on Tuesday morning last J. E.
Richards and S. M. Smythe, two of W. J. McFarland's salesmen, who sleep in the store, were awakened by the growling of the big dog, who is also stationed in the premises at nights. They heard an effort made by parties outside to open the back door. The boys at once jumped, knocking a chair over in the dark, which it is supposed frightened the burglars. On opening the side door, two men were seen hurrying down Mill street from towards the store.
Smythe fired three shots from a selfcocking 32 calibre revolver after them, but of course they were at too great a distance for the bullets to take effect.
