We had no intention of making the editor of the Advance mad when we criticised his remarks on the road will not venture further comment now, as it might have a serious result.

ACCIDENT.—Mr. Wm. Ritchie had one arm wound up in the carding machinery in his mill recently, and, were it not for a belt flying off, thereby stopping the machinery, he would have lost his arm: as it was his hand and arm was bruised and twisted so that he has been laid up since. We are pleased to learn, however, that he will be able to resume work in a few days.

Take your list of wants to Richardson's for Xmas fruits and groceries, Flesherton.

ease of any kind. Sold by Smit's, the barber.

ACCIDENT.—One day last week while attending the threshing machine at Hugh McKee's in Glenelg, Richard Millsap in stepping upon the horse power while in motion got his foot caught, tearing off the sole of the boot and part of the upper, and bruising his foot so that he has since been laid up. It was a narrow escape but we are glad to learn he will soon be about again.

If you want to procure nice goods for Xmas presents, see Richardson's immense stock, Flesherton.

IN making Christmas presents we would advise giving something useful, say for instance a nice warm Shawl, Silk or Velvet Dress, Mantle, set Furs, Ladies Satchels, or a Fur Jacket. W.
J. McFarland has opened out very choice lines in the above goods for his Xmas trade.

EVERY colic, unnatural appetite, fretfulness, weakness, and convulsions, are some of the effects of worms in children; destroy the worms with Dr. Low's Worm Syrup.

THE editor of the Advance is very ready to take exchanges to task for presuming to clip from his paper without giving credit. It's a poor rule won't work both ways. Wonder where he got his report of the recent Conservative convention held in Markdale. For our part, we do not always give credit to our correspondents, but we don't grumble if there is no credit, but we don't like to see a person finding fault with others for a thing he practices himself.

MR. JOSEPH MAXWELL, of Osprey died at his residence Maxwell, from bleeding of the lungs, on Saturday last.

GOOD NEWS.—Mr. R. O. Whitby, painter, Markdale, has secured the rink for this season from Mr. Robert Montgomery. Rufus has had considerable experience in making ice, having for some time managed the rink in Dundalk, to the satisfaction of all concerned. He expects to have good skating about the latter end of this week. There will be skating three nights in the week—Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday throughout the season.

MRS. WRIGHT, who has been spending a few months visiting friends, took her departure on Wednesday last for St. Louis.

It will pay to come 15 miles to get watches, clocks, silverware, wedding rings, &c., for your holiday needs, from W. A. Brown, Jeweller, Mark-dale. Buy a substantial present for a few dollars, and the many years of wear it gives makes it a good investment. This holds good in my lines of presents. W. A. Brown, Jeweller, Markdale.

Owing to Christmas and New Years day coming on Thursday, the STAND-ARD will be published a day earlier each week.

FRANK MILLSAP, of Artemesia, died on Monday last. It is supposed he died from the effects of being way-laid on the railway tract about a month since near Proton Station.

whole stock long Boots, at 40 per cent the above lines under very peculiar circumstances, a large Montreal monitory institution having advanced money upon them, and the parties failing to redeem them I bought them at a great sacrifice. I now offer them to my customers, giving them the advantage of my cheap purchase.

Don't fail to see the above lines.
