Wood is cheap as well as wheat.

CATTLE fair next Saturday 3rd January.

Don't forget the Tea-meeting New Years in the Presbyterian church.

Mr. John. M. Walker, formerly of this place gave us a call on Monday.

The voting in Markdale Ward, Glengol, will take place in the Orange Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake King of Collingwood are now visiting friends in this place.

DUNDAS is selling 5 lbs. first-class Tea for $1. Ladies, insure your tea-pots.

Our townsman Mr. Thos. McNea trapped three fine beavers this fall. Their skins are worth $25.

No friendship in business, procure the best value for your $1; give Dundas a trial.

Full returns may be expected in this paper next week of the neighboring municipal elections.

Ratlidge's Christmas beef was fed by Geo. Richardson Esq., of Euphrasia, and it was a daisy.

90 pupils in Markdale School Section are liable to be fined for non-attendance at school for 1884.

For Sale.—A one-horse sleigh new, also a good single bob-sleigh, cheap for cash. A Turner & Co.

Good skating on the Markdale rink now. It is well patronized under its popular manager, R. O. Whitley.

A rapid thaw set in on Sunday last which has taken about all the snow away, and the prospects are that there will be yet an open winter.

School Books. a full assortment, also a complete line of Stationery at the Medical Hall. A. Turner & Co.

An outbreak of the devils army took place the evening previous to Christmas day, on Mill St, Markdale. The worst of order prevailed throughout.

Now is the time to settle up the little accounts, the printers are among this class, and should be paid even the larger ones should be laid over.

A CONCERT, followed by a grand hop, will take place at Williamsford on the evening of New Years day. Tickets of admission to all, 25 cents.

You cannot send a more suitable New Year present to a friend, than the STANDARD. Think of 52 copies to any address in America free of postage for $1.

We acknowledge this week subscription for STANDARD for 1884-85 for Shelton Knight, Chikawack, B. C. from Mr. Wm. Knight, (the old gentleman's New Years Gift to his son.)

Sleighs & Carriages. The balance of stock we will sell at reduced prices. We have on hand a number of outters, pleasure sleighs, winter sleighs and lumber sleighs. B. J. Shanahan.

TEA-MEETING. The annual tea-meeting of Ebenezer church, 11th line, Euphrasia, will take place on New Years day, commencing at 5 o'clock. Good speaking and choice music is promised. Tickets 25 cents.

A grand Masquerade Carnival will be given in the Markdale Skating Rink shortly after New Years. Between $30 and $40 will be given in prizes. The Dundalk Brass Band is engaged for the occasion. A large time is anticipated.

A TEA-MEETING will be held in the Methodist church, Kintorely, on New Years day. Several reverend gentlemen are expected to address the audience. Admission 25 cents. Proceeds in aid of the new church building fund.

ERROR.—In the report of Markdale cheese factory last week, Thos. Boland should have appeared as the patrons, auditor, instead of a director; and, in giving the number of lbs. of milk to the lb. of cheese, the figures 966 should read 9 66-100.

The Durham Chronicle says Alex. Webster, formerly of Priceville, has purchased Johnston's Mills, Euphrasia, and is coming back again. Mr. Chronicle is somewhat estray, it being Jas. son of Alex. Webster, who has purchased the above mills.

At the December meeting of L. O. L. No. 1045, Markdale, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:—Bros. Thos. Elliott, W. M.; Jas. A. Dodds, D. M.; Jas. Elliott, Chap.; R. W. Blakely, Rec. Sec.; Jas. Nelson, Fin. Sec.; Thos. J. Lackey, Treas.; Thos. Nelson, Lect.—Com.

M. & W. Arrastrong have their new steam saw mill, in this village about complete and will be sawing in a few days. They are now prepared to contract for the supply of any quantity of lumber, also custom sawing for cash or on shares. Will also purchase any quantity of good sound logs.

The publishers of the Montreal Witness have offered a prize of $100 for the best and most appropriate Winter Carnival poem to be in the hands of the publishers of that paper by the 6th of January. It is worth while our mentioning the above offer as the successful competitor may be found among our own readers.

Selling off at Cost.—Dundas is selling his entire stock of Groceries, Crockery and Glassware at cost. You can save at least 25 to 50 per cent. by buying above lines at Dundas. His stock is fresh and good and well bought. This is no sham sale. I purpose giving my whole attention to the Boot & Shoe business. Don't miss this opportunity.

TEA-MEETING.—The Presbyterian church annual tea meeting will be held on New Years day in the church Markdale. Tea will be served from 6 to 8 o'clock after which addresses will be delivered by several Reverend and other gentlemen, also vocal and instrumental music, readings, recitations, &c. Admission 25 cents, children 15 cents.

ENTERTAINMENT.—An entertainment will be given in the School house 11th line Euphrasia on Friday the 9th January in aid of the Union Sabbath School. Tea will be served from 5 to 7 o'clock, after which a programme consisting of Dialogues, Recitations, and Speeches by Rev. Gentlemen. Music, &c., &c., will be rendered. Admission 25 cents, children half price.

ROYAL TEMPLARS.—The following officers were elected for the ensuing term at the last regular meeting, viz: S. C., R. W. Ennis; Vice C., W. T. Jackman; P. C., C. W. Rutledge; Chap., Rev. T. Grandy; Rec. Sec., J. A. Smith; Fin. Sec., A. Hill; Treas., Thos. Hill; Herald, J. R. Mathews; Guard, Jas. Sproule; Sentinel, J. E. Richards; Dep. H., O. Wright; G. S. Bowes, Representative to Grand Council.

A FAITHFUL SERVANT.—Mr. Thos. Edwards of Glengol, has conveyed the Royal Mail from Traverston P. O. to Markdale and return three times a week for four years, making his last trip last Tuesday. He was punctual in the discharge of duty, and very accommodating, thereby making fast friends on all sides, and will be much missed. Edward Drey has been awarded the contract for the coming year, having secured a 25 per cent reduction of charges, but one letter was sent.

The Christmas Tree. In connection with Christ Church, S. B. Marshall was a grand success.

The annual school meeting was quiet, Mr. B. Coleman, the retiring trustee being re-elected.

W. L. Young is spending New Years day down home.

Mrs. Crane of Owen Sound is the guest of Mrs. Trimble.

Mrs. McKenna has been visiting friends at Orangeville this week.

S. Sergeant has returned from visiting friends near Harris.

Mr. Wm. Donnelly of Toronto made a flying visit with friends in this district this week.

R. H. Warner was home from Orangeville for Christmas.

CHURCH ORGAN.—The new Amos church, just erected at Dromore, was opened for divine worship on Sunday last. Sermons were preached in the morning and evening by Rev. C. Campbell, of Toronto, and in the afternoon by Rev. J. Park, of Durham. Collection amounting to $130 were taken up. The building will seat 360 comfortable. Heated by hot air. This quite a credit to the neighborhood. A service was held on the evening of Monday quite successful; proceeds $90.—Index.

A number of subscribers who are a long way in arrears, and whose papers will be stopped, next week may expect to find their account with the clerk of the court.

The annual meeting of L. O. L. No. 1893, was held in their Hall, Kells corners on Tuesday evening, the 23rd Dec., when the election of officers for the ensuing year took place, and resulted as follows:—Bros. Thos. Kells, W. M.; Thos. Boland, D. M.; George Sewell, Chap.; Wm. McLoughry, Rec. Sec.; George Wright, Fin. Sec.; John Boland, Treas.; Wm. Sewell, D. of C.; A. Elliot, Lect.; Samuel Powles, 1st Com.; Jas. Leckey, 2nd Com.; Samuel Leckey, 3rd Com.; Wm. Stinson, 4th Com.; Jas. Foster, 5th Com.—Com.

ANNUAL TEA.—The annual Christmas entertainment, in connection with the Methodist church of this place, was in every respect a grand success. Tea was served in the Orange Hall, after which the company repaired to the church, which was filled so that many went away not being able to gain admittance. C. W. Rutledge was voted to the chair a few minutes to 8 o'clock, and a splendid program followed, in which Rev. T. Grandy, Dr. Sproule, M. P., Rev. Mr. Casson and Rev. Mr. Howell of Owen Sound, took part in speech-making, while the choir discoursed choice selections of music, as also Mr. John Hill, with Mr. Mason's accompaniment with bass viol, and Mr. and Miss. Henry a song. The best of order was maintained throughout, a fact which would strongly indicate the interest manifested in the proceedings; this was the first entertainment in behalf of the new church building fund. The proceeds were $84.
