WELL SPOKEN OF.
 B. N. Wheeler, of Everton, speaks highly of Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam. It cures him of inflammation of the lungs and an obstinate cough. It loosens the phlegm and heals the lungs.

IMPORTANT.
 When you visit or leave New York City, save Baggage Express and Carriage hire and stop at the Grand Union Hotel, opposite the Grand Central Depot. Elegant rooms fitted up at a cost of one million dollars, reduced at $1.00 and upward per day. European plan, Elevator, Restaurant supplied with the best. Horse cars, stages and elevated railroad to all depots. Families can live better for less money at the Grand Union Hotel than at any other first class hotel in the city.

A SETTLED FACT.
 It is a significant fact that Hagyard's Yellow Oil is the best household remedy for internal and external use in case of pain, soreness, lameness, and inflammatory complaints.

A young minister said several times, when giving some new exposition of a passage: "The critics and commentators do not agree with me here." Next morning a poor woman came to see him with something in her apron, saying as she enquired for "the master." He said in his serious yesterday. "The common taters did not agree with him here." "So I have brought him some of the very best Jersey Blues."

A WIDE SPREAD EVIL.
 The great source of consumption and of ugly sores is scrofula in the blood. Burdock Blood Bitters purify the whole system and cure scrofula, as well as the more common blood humors.

Editing a paper now a days is a nice business. If we publish jokes people say we are rattlehead, if we omit jokes they say we are an old fossil, if we publish original matter they blame us for not giving elections, if we publish selections they say we are lazy for not writing something they have not seen in some other paper, if we give a complimentary notice folks say we are prejudiced, if we do not cater to the wishes of the ladies the paper is not fit to tie up a parcel or make into a bustle, if we stay in our office and attend to our business we are too proud to mingle with our fellows, if we go out they say we never attend to our business, if we wear poor clothes folks say business is bad, if we wear good clothes they say we never paid for them, and the poor editor does not know what to do. There are about 9,999,999 people in Canada and the States, all knowing more about running a paper than the editor does himself.—Exchange.
