Norm: -- Some unprincipaled person: or persons have raised the rumour that there will be a dance. We beg to assure the public that there will be no such thing.

A YOUTH called at the drug store here last week and wanted a copper's worth of pennies; (ins (the clerk) thought in vain of a thousand and one drugs and chemicals for that name, and at last concluded there must be a mistake somewhere. The thought occurred to him that it might be a penny's worth of coppers (copperss) the lad wanted, and enquired of him, when the boy quickly replied, yes, that's it.

An entertainment was given in the Orange Hall, Berkeley, on Mouday evening, under the direction of the Ladies Aid of Christ church, Markdale A very enjoyable programme, consist ing of readings, recitations, songs and dialogues, was delivered by members of the church, choir and friends. A good crowd was in attendance. Three loads went from Markdale. The entertainment was closed by a short address from the Rev. J. Ward, who offered very many thanks to the members of the Orange Lodge for the loan of the Hall, and to Mrs. Lund who kindly lent them her organ, sfter which all sang the national anthum,-COM.
