STALLION DEAD.—W. J. Shepherdson's stallion, "Scottish Champion," took inflammation on Sunday last and died before morning. This will be a heavy loss to Mr. Shepherdson.

R. J. Sproule, Flesherton, wants 20,000 bushels good clean Spring and Fall Wheat for which he will pay the highest market price in cash.

MR. W. J. SHEPHERDSON of Euphrasia is perhaps the best auctioneer in the County, and the farmers appear to know it by the number of sales at which he wields the hammer.

ANY communication we may receive criticising the series of letters, or continued article on the Irish or dynamite question, will require to have the full name of the writer to it in order to be published.

NEARLY all the railways have been blocked up and trains delayed more or less by the recent severe snow storms and drifting, but our line has not lost a trip though trains have been behind time occasionally.

We do not like dunning, besides, we know it is want of thought on the part of the great majority of our patrons that they have not already renewed. Let each endeavor to square accounts before the end of March.

ALL who intend to purchase Watches, clocks or other goods in my line, will secure discounts of cash from now until the 14th March. That will be a material advantage to every purchaser. W. A. Brown, Jeweller, Markdale.

NEW BLACKSMITH SHOP.—Mr. Dan McFarlane is opening out in the above business in the building opposite the Markdale House. He will be ready on Monday next to wait on customers and respectfully solicite a share of patronage.

ACCIDENT.—On Monday evening last while driving along the road with a stick of square timber, Mr. Robert Milligan of Osprey was pitched off his seat going through a pitch-hole breaking his leg below the knee. Dr. Kerr attended the patient and set the bone.

We regret to learn that Mr. Wm. Glenecross of Glenelg, who has served as councillor in the past, is very ill and no hopes of his recovery is entertained. His brother John died last Monday at the age of 29 years. The disease is, we understand, consumption.

R. J. Sproule's annual clearing sale which is now going on so far has been a decided success. All attending it express themselves perfectly delighted at the great bargains they have got.

The Social held at the residence of Mr. Isaac Brown, Glenelg, on Friday evening last was very largely attended, the house which is large and capacious being well filled. A good time was spent by all, and a bountiful repast partaken of which we understand was exclusively provided by Mr. B. himself. The proceeds were $18.00.

What the ladies say: That R. J. Sproule of Flesherton is selling the prettiest and cheapest Ladies Coats and Shawls ever sold in Flesherton, as they are selling at less than half price.

TEA-MEETING.—There will be a tea-meeting held in Lyons' church, town-line Holland and Euphrasia, six miles from Markdale, on Wednesday, 4th March. Several reverend and other gentlemen will address the meeting. Tea served at 6 o'clock. Tickets 25 cents. A good time is expected, and a cordial invitation is extended to all.

Miss Wilson, daughter of Mr. James H. Wilson of Euphrasia, proved to be the lucky winner of the lady's beautiful Astracan Fur Cap, she being the largest cash purchaser at R. J. Sproule's clearing sale Saturday last. We congratulate Miss Wilson for her success.

MISS EMMA BOLAND, a promising young lady of about 20 summers died on Monday last. She contracted a cold last autumn which settled on her lungs with above result. The body was interred in the Markdale Methodist cemetery on Wednesday by the largest funeral ever known in this district, over one hundred teams being in the procession.

A Flucky Editress. From the Collingwood Bulletin.

The following item may be interesting to such of our Collingwood friends as had the pleasure of being interviewed by the lady when she visited Collingwood.

A well-known business man in Detroit had a spirited encounter a few days ago with the energetic Miss F. E. Downs, who has for several weeks been canvassing Detroit for subscribers to her journal, published in Toronto. The gentleman's story is as follows:

"The lady came into my office and solicited me to subscribe for the paper."

I was busy, and begged her to excuse me. She persisted in her solicitations. I told her I did not wish to discuss the subject, but she was not to be put off. At length her persistency having taken the impudent turn, I intimated that it might become my painful duty to put her out of the office. She dared me to the trial and met my intimation by a vigorous declaration that I couldn't do it, you know. The affair got hotter and hotter, and, by Jove, I did chuck her out, but she was such a tigress that I was obliged to call on one of the men for help. I was at Gettysburg, but this latest battle was worse than the other by a large majority. That is, I came nearer being whipped—and by a woman. I must say that while she was most enraged her speech was lady-like and refined, only that I could see that the spirit of mischief was in her. Why, my goodness, she backed up in a corner when she dared me to put her out, and declared that she was armed, and knew very well how to defend herself. She also threatened to publish something to my injury and in the struggle she dropped a book (which I have now), in which are written her opinions of sundry well-known Detroiters. Some of these unique productions are complimentary; others are quite the reverse, but all are interesting.—Detroit Free Press.

MARCH BLIZZARD.

The United States Government Census Volume, just published, speaks of the "REMARKABLE SUCCESS" attending our "UNSTOPPING AND UNTERMINING EFFORTS" in pushing the American Agriculturist. It began the current year with a larger subscription list than at any corresponding period in twelve years. The able corps of Editors, who have made the American Agriculturist a welcome visitor to hundreds of thousands of readers for a quarter of a century, are still bending all their energies to make the Journal, if possible, more interesting and valuable than ever. And you may rightly conclude that it
