Flesherton.

From our own correspondent.

The regular Quarterly Services was held in the Methodist church on Sabbath last.

In the absence of the pastor, Rev. Mr. Wilson, the Rev. Mr. D'Argent of Maxwell occupied the pulpit very acceptably on Sabbath afternoon last.

Mr. C. J. Leitch, son of our esteemed citizen, Mr. Thos. Leitch, paid our town a visit for a few days last week. Mr. Leitch has been for some time living in Texas, U. S., but is now about to take a situation in Toronto.

Monday last was fair day in our town. Not many buyers present, and a very poor show of bovines.

The Flesherton cheese factory is again going in full blast. Again the rattle of the wagons, conveying the milk, is heard at an early hour on our streets.

COTTAGE SOCIAL.—A very pleasant and successful social was held, by the kindness of Mr. and Mrs. Vanzant in their dwelling on Tuesday evening, under the auspices of Flesherton Presbyterian Ladies' Aid Society. There was a good turnout, and all appeared to enjoy themselves well. Various games were heartily entered into by those present, while Mr. Vanzant, who can almost make a violin speak, accompanied by Miss Damude and Mrs. Geo. Saul on the Piano, discoursed some charming music, much to the delight of those present. It is needless to say that the good things provided by the ladies was all that could be desired.

Quite an amusing scene took place on our streets on Tuesday last. A couple of our citizens having found some of those little animals (the hog) at large, thought the pound-keepers stables (Mr. Munshaw's) would be the best place for them, and had them almost to the door of the pound when the lady to whom they belonged appeared upon the scene, then it was for who was master of the situation. We think the animals knew the voice of her who was kindest to them. A halt was made; a moment's meditation; a charge; the ranks waver, and the captives are free; the men fall back upon the rear, and nothing more is seen of them. None killed, very few wounds.

EASILY CAUGHT.

It is very easily to catch cold, but not so easy to cure it unless you use Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, the best remedy for all throat, bronchial and lung troubles, coughs, colds and consumptive tendencies.

"The Illustrated War News."

THE GRIP PRINTING & PUBLISHING Co. have now sent us the fifth number of this now very popular illustrated paper. This issue we consider to be superior to any former number, both in artestic merit and subjects illustrated. It contains a graphic illustration of the Battle of Fish Creek which is compiled from a photograph of the locality, and anthentic information obtained. It well represents the difficulties which our brave volunteers had to encounter in this first severe engagement with the rebels, and on this account alone this number should be brought by everybody who is interested in the North-West rebellion. Besides this, there are sketches representing the Relief of Battleford. The front page contains an excellent equestrian picture of General Middleton, and Capt. Wise, A. D. C., who had two horses shot under him in the recent engagement at Fish Creek. The black page contains typical sketches made at the drill shed in Hamilton. The supplement, which is a double page one deserves special mention, as it is without doubt one of the finest pages of artistic lithography ever produced in Canada. It represents a group of rebel leaders, including Louis Riel, Beardy, Big Bear, White Cap and Gabriel Dumont.

We have also received the sixth number of the popular Illustrated War News. The front page contains a picture which will be of intense, though mournful, interest to Canadians, It represents the Buriel of the Volunteers who fell at the Battle of Fish Creek. A graphic sketch shows the attack of half-breeds on the steamer carrying the first expedition from the relief of Battleford. The commencement of the fight at Duck Lake is given from a sketch furnished by a North-West Mounted Policeman. The advance guard of the Royal Grenadiers passing Humboldt, and the men of "C" Company (Intantry School) returning from a rabbit hunt are from sketches from the same source. The entertainment of the 7th Fusiliers, of London, at Port Arthur, is shown on page four, also the Ottawa Sharpshooters (G. G. F. G.) at Winnipeg. This number contains the usual two-page Supplement, which is a fine one, and represents, in three sketches, Toronto ladies receiving and packing contributions for the soldiers at the front.

The paper sells at 15 cents per copy, obtainable either from local booksellers or from the office of publication.
